

The Training of a $22000 Beaut - Marty O'Toole

Marty O'Toole—let's call him the $22,000 beaut just once and send it to the canner—will be one of the most talked about players in the National league this year. When O'Toole goes to Hot Springs winter with bone-setters and muscle manipulators and reports his breadwinner working as smoothly as a press agent's flow of adjectives. The first fight has started training at his home, South Framingham, Mass. Marty's favorite exercise is shovel-

ham. When ready to leave for the valley of vapors he will have qualified to hire out as guide to persons afflicted with the "back to the soil" microbe.

"He's as 'hard as nails' says a correspondent (regular early season stuff) and won't have to reduce his weight by the boiling out process at Hot Springs. His right arm needs little work to put it in condition. If he has a successful year O'Toole will pay big interest on the money invested in him by Barney Dreyfus."

with Pittsburgh "war correspondents" will begin filing stories, speculating upon the condition of his salary arm; later he will be "mighty good" or "horribly bad;" Barney Dreyfus will be a "wise head" or a poor guesser, as the spit-baller succeeds or fails. Any way you look at it, O'Toole is sure to have an interesting time. Photographers will pose him for "action"

When the big rings closed their doors last fall O'Toole's pitching arm was being nursed as tenderly as the heir-apparent to a throne. It was kind, ed, or rusty, or something like that, as the spit-baller succeeds or fails. Any way you look at it, O'Toole is sure to have an interesting time. Photographers will pose him for "action" ing snow. As the white and fleecy forms the foreground, background and all the detail of South Framingham scenery these days, the pride of the O'Tooles has no trouble keeping busy. Old residents say he can clean more square feet of sidewalk than any young buck in town.

Accompanied by his sheep dog, photographed by the enterprising press agent, O'Toole indulges in long walks along the roads about South Framingham.

Philadelphia, Pa., Jan. 25.—An announcement was made here today that Packey McFarland of Chicago, and "Young" Erne, of Philadelphia, have been matched to fight six rounds at the National A. C., here on February 7th. The fighters will weigh in at 135 pounds at 6 o'clock on the night of the contest.

ABE ATTELL SUSPENDED IN NEW YORK

New York, Jan. 25.—Abe Attell, featherweight champion, was suspended from boxing in New York State for a period of six months by the State Athletic Commission this afternoon, which found him guilty of "faking" and "stalling" in his recent bout with Knockout Brown. The commission also suspended Jimmie Goodman, Attell's second and announced that it would investigate the National Sporting Club of America, where the bout was held.

Attell, now in the west, had testified before the commission that he fought to the best of his ability and believed that he had been "doped" by the injection of too much cocaine in his hand by the club's physician.

CONDITION OF DEY IS CRITICAL

ST. JOHN HIGH SCHOOL BEATEN IN EXTRA PERIOD

Special to The Standard. Fredericton, Jan. 25.—The Fredericton and St. John High School hockey teams battled for 20 minutes over time in their interscholastic league fixture tonight, before a winner was declared and then Fredericton had won by a score of 5 to 3.

The score was tied, 2 to 2, at the expiration of time and the teams then played a 10 minute period, 5 minutes each way and the score was again tied, 3 to 3.

St. John then wanted to call off the game, but finally decided to play the game out and teams resumed, playing 5 minutes each way. Fredericton scored once in each period, Flett getting both goals, while St. John couldn't locate the nets. McKee, Smith and Waring starred for the visitors, although the first named spent much valuable time in the penalty box, while Flett's scoring ability, Dolan's rushes and the all round work of Bellevue were features of the home team's play. Both goal tenders stopped many hard shots.

Chamney Coleman was the referee. McKee, Smith and Waring were the scorers. The line-up was as follows:

St. John H. S.	Fredericton H. S.
Machum	Vanwart

SPORTING SITUATION IN ENGLAND

London, January 13.—The near approach of the Olympic games is stirring British athletic circles and discussions concerning the best methods for regaining the laurels lost at the 1908 Olympiad are rife among the sportsmen.

All are agreed on one point, that British supremacy must be re-established on track and field, but the best methods for accomplishing this have given rise to numerous controversies. The problem of coaching and training is causing the most bitter altercation, but the advocates of the American system of preparing athletes are growing in strength, and in spite of the prejudice against him, the paid coach will probably soon become a feature in the amateur sporting world here.

Amateurism in England continues to be distinctly aristocratic, and while a gentleman may play with or against a professional, contrary to the American practice, the distinction between the two is never lost sight of. The rule that no manual worker can be an amateur is accepted without question, and that England would like to see this regulation imposed on American entries to the Olympic games is indicated by a removal of the criticism of athletes from the United States, who work their way across the Atlantic on cattle boats.
