MEXICAN SITUATION CHIEF MARKET FACTOR YESTERDAY

NEW YORK, Aug. 19.—The Mexican situation was the conspicuous influence in today's stock market. Reports over night that the relations between this country and Mexico had reported a crisis were responsible for depressing the list, and although more reassuring statements were received later in the day the tone continued uncertain throughout the session.

American stocks declined in London before the opening here, selling orders being cable from this side. When trading began in this market prices gave way generally, with special heaviness in shares of corporations which have extensive interests in Mexico.

Some large blocks were unloaded in the early trading, but pressure thereafter was not severe, despite the bearish cast of sentiment and the readiness with which the list responded to operations on the short side.

At the low figures of the session Smelting showed a three point loss.
