WITH HUNGER SWEEPING COUNTRY RUSSIANS IN NO GOOD TO TOLERATE

THE LENINE-TROTSKY REGIME

Downfall of Present Government Certain to Come
-Bolshevik Making But Feeble Resistance To Attacks of Entente Troops and Czecho-Slovaks
Conditions Will Grow Worse Before They Improve.

 London, Sept. 12.—Impassable forces are driving the Bolsheviks to deeds of terrorism that are forerunners of a debacle which is certain to engulf the Lenin and Trotsky regime. Famine is sweeping over Russia and this is an enemy that Bolshevism is powerless to overcome. It is relentless, it strikes everywhere.

The Bolsheviks have launched feeble counter-attacks—now against the British, now against the Czecho-Slovaks—as a diversion. Their enemy, famine, has pursued them relentlessly and each diversion has only succeeded in carrying them deeper into the mire of despondency. Still, the Bolsheviks are the strongest force in Russia which is indicative of the chance of that demoralized, disorganized and hungry country. Good judges see no prospect of their immediate overthrow. There is no organized anti-Bolshevik army that could take Moscow.

Isolated bands of White Guards are operating in various parts of the country, destroying railroads and bridges, and threatening and pillaging towns; conducting a sort of guerrilla warfare and increasing the amount and extent of the famine but only indirectly weakening the Bolshevik regime. Conditions in Russia will grow worse before they grow better. The intervention of the Allies will prove successful as it increases in power and extent. The Bolsheviks have an army, partly Russian, partly Lithuanian. Let us always extreme socialists and are the chief factors in the revolution of 1905. They form the backbone of the army and until it is overthrown no war over, conditions must remain desperate indeed.

The latest Archangel episode is indicative of the general condition of Russia. One Chaplin, a Russian of the collected a group of brother militaries who had no use for the socialists and proceeded to arrest the Archangel government which had invited the Allies to come to Archangel. These Russian officers are impatient with the socialists and are anxious for a purely military government. So the Allies must play the part of mediators, disarm the Chaplin group, and endeavor to organize a coalition government.

Whether this compromise will prove any more effective than other attempts of a similar nature is a matter of speculation. It is a repetition of the Horvath episode. The Allies have tried many policies with Russia. They have supported or tried to back many movements, none of which have been successful.

NOVA SCOTIA CENSORS RIGHT ON THEIR JOBS

Immoral or Suggestive Entertainments Will Get Short Shift in Halifax.

Halifax, Sept. 12.—The Nova Scotia Board of Censors are out to get a name for themselves for drastic censoring of shows that have acquired a reputation for carrying objectionable features. The Williams Standard Shows applied for a permit to exhibit in Halifax for ten days. In the past at the annual provincial agricultural exhibitions these shows were morally unsavory, having risqué features and also permitting games of chance in which the patrons of the exhibitions were badly deceived. The board of censors decided to grant the Williams people this year a conditional license for four days, stipulating that no objectionable features could appear in any of the shows, and that if within that probation period anything morally offensive or even morally doubtful appears, then the shows will be immediately stopped and the Williams people ordered out of the city. But if they are decent for the four days, their license will be extended to ten days on the same conditions.

The next logical step will be the substitution of the Zemus for the Williams. While the Allies are considering the Zemus which are more representative of the people than the Williams because the latter cater to only one class of people, the Germans are undecided as to whether to back the Bolshevik or monarchical forces. Conditions in Russia will grow worse before they grow better. The intervention of the Allies will prove successful as it increases in power and extent. The Bolsheviks have an army, partly Russian, partly Lithuanian. Let us always extreme socialists and are the chief factors in the revolution of

INTERESTING ACCOUNT OF THE SOLDIER'S LIFE DURING BIG WAR

W. Powell, Who Left St. John in 1916, Writes From France—Says New Brunswick Battalions Have Done Splendid Work, But Suffered Heavy Casualties—Word Picture of Battle and Its Results.

W. Powell of Bonaville, Newfoundland, who enlisted in this city and went overseas with a Siege Battery in 1916, gives a most interesting account of his life on the battle front in a letter received by a friend here yesterday. The soldier is with a signal section, and has recently witnessed every stage of a big drive in which the Allies were successful, both in the air and on the ground. The letter reads as follows:

France, Aug. 13, 1918.

Dear Mr. P.—
 Yes, I will tell you "going some," although I have not written you for a long while, I know you will accept my excuse when I say that writing letters these days is done somewhat under adverse circumstances. You know what has been doing these latter days better than I do out here in France, doubtless the newspapers have told of the deeds of the Canadian soldiers of the Hun from his stronghold and for the first time I have experienced the real romance of warfare, if romance it can be called. We call it hell. Also it may be romantic to the fiction writer or newspaper correspondent, but the man who goes over the top, who faces the barrage, who storms with fixed bayonets a machine gun position, these men have the real experience and to them romance means little. Your New Brunswick battalions have done splendid work, but have suffered heavy casualties in wounded, but the noble example set by both officers and men shall ever remain an inspiration to those their children's children and an incentive for the making of better citizenship. I have seen many sights these days that I shall never forget, of which I cannot tell you here, but shall leave that for some future date. Sheila have burst near me but I have been safe this far. Machine gun bullets have taken some of my chums quite near to me, but not one has hit me, thus my luck so far. Trust in the Heavenly Father's care will ever be mine as it has been in the quieter hours of home life back in old Terra Nova.

A scene: Imagine yourself on a hillside taking a short rest, eating hard tack and bully beef, this being the sixth meal of its kind, below you see the cavalry going into action, the field artillery is seen yonder and the tanks are quite near you. Over that road to the right you see a crowd of German prisoners, then come in groups of 20, 30, 40 and 50; some are wounded, others look well and even happy. Our own wounded are to be seen also. Here is a soldier being carried upon a stretcher, there a private with a raging wound in his side being carried by his comrades. The Red Cross men are busy. A battalion lies past with fixed bayonets on their rifles. The weather is complete, the weather is all that can be desired and old Fritz is "on the move" with his armor plates circling above, then you watch a "scrap" in the air and a plane comes down in flames. Such scenes one can never forget.

After an hour ago I watched a fight in the air and saw one of our planes bring down a German plane the latter falling just about 100 yards from where I write this letter. The pilot had been wounded in the head and was taken out unconscious but still alive. I'm enclosing a piece of the wing as a "souvenir." Note the different colorings which are done in order to camouflage. We witness these events daily now.

I know now what it is to be tired, yes so done out or in, whatever you wish to call it, that I have just dropped when the order has been given to stop, closed my eyes and slept. Some fellows overcome by the heat and long marches drop out by the wayside, unable to carry on longer. You feel like doing the same thing but with aching shoulders, aching limbs and tired aching feet, you tightly close your lips together and carry on through sheer force of will power, walking mechanically. Many a night have I slept in the open with nothing above me but the stars at which to gaze. The vermin are somewhat troublesome, but your tired feeling helps you to forget this plague and soon you travel the land of nod in a golden boat with fairy sails in company with the angels of your fancy.

With your letter I was delighted and I cannot expect you to use your valuable time thus, but would I be asking too much of you when, if you have any spare magazines, say Munsey or the Cosmopolitan, etc., to send along a copy. It would be greatly appreciated and we always pass such magazines around to each other, thus all can enjoy the pleasure of reading such. But now I must wish you and Mrs. P. the best of health and happiness, and to return to Canada and with others to take part in her great future development.

Sincerely yours,
 (Signed) W. POWELL.

SUDDEN DEATH OF NEW GLASGOW MAN

Hedley V. Jennison Died Wednesday Night — Had Been Prominent in New Glasgow's Business Life.

Special to The Standard.
 New Glasgow, Sept. 12.—Hedley V. Jennison, a well known citizen, died last night. He was 61 years of age, unmarried, and resided on Alexander street, where his sisters, the Misses Mary S. and Lillian J. Jennison, kept house for him. He had been unwell for a month or so but ate dinner as usual and showed no symptoms of illness.

At 4 o'clock he collapsed and death was practically instantaneous. Heart failure is thought to have been the cause of death.

The deceased was born in Walton, Hants County, N. S., and in addition to the estate mentioned is survived by two brothers, Jandro J. and Leslie Jennison, a mining engineer of Truro.

For over twenty years the late Hedley V. Jennison practiced law in New Glasgow. Shortly after he located here he and his brother, Judge Jennison, promoted the New Glasgow Electric Company, Ltd., and furnished an electric lighting service for the towns of New Glasgow, Stellarton and Westville. The company outgrew its plant not once but several times.

In politics he was a strong Conservative and will be greatly missed in the councils of his party. He was also prominent in the work of St. George's Episcopal Church. Interment takes place at Westville, N. S., where the remains will be taken there by train tomorrow.

FORECAST IMMEDIATE CHANGE IN GOVERNMENT AT BERLIN

Pressure From Vienna Believed To Be Forcing Germany To Make Real Bid For Peace — Tempting Bait To Be Offered France and Italy.

By Arthur S. Draper.
 (Special cable to the New York Tribune and the St. John Standard.)

London, Sept. 12.—Reports from Amsterdam forecast an immediate change in the government at Berlin, with the Colonial Minister, succeeding Count von Hertling, and the Socialist, Philipp Scheidemann, also attempting to open negotiations with the Allied Socialists in the early summer.

If these changes are made they will be a sign that Germany is about to launch a peace offensive of profound importance.

As the leader of the majority Socialists, Scheidemann yields much power, while Erberger, of the Catholic Centre party, among the personnel.

By German standards, these men must be classed as moderates, favoring as they do a peace by negotiation. Scheidemann and Erberger have consistently advocated a moderate course, and have come into constant conflict with the militarists.

It is giving Scheidemann undue credit to say that he is unwittingly the agent of the militarists and that he has played their game unintentionally. Erberger and Scheidemann tried to arrange a conference with representatives of the Allies in Switzerland.

ST. JOHN CLERGYMAN SPEAKS IN NEWCASTLE ON SOCIAL SERVICE

Rev. H. A. Goodwin Tells What Has Been Accomplished By N. B. Council.

Newcastle, Sept. 11.—A social service meeting was held at Newcastle town hall yesterday afternoon and evening. Alderman H. H. Stewart, president. Among others present were:

Newcastle Baptist Church—Rev. E. A. Kinley, Ex-Alderman C. C. Hayward, Mrs. H. R. Melanson, Mrs. A. McN. Ashie.

Newcastle Methodist Church—Rev. F. W. Bertram, John H. Ashford, Mr. J. Robinson Allison, Mrs. T. A. Clarke. Newcastle Presbyterian Church—James Falconer.

Douglastown Presbyterian Church—R. H. Jessamin, and Miss Annie Jessamin.

The meeting was addressed by Rev. H. A. Goodwin of St. John, president of the N. B. Social Service Council and Rev. Dr. J. G. Shearer, secretary of the Dominion Council, which was organized in 1907. The N. B. Council was organized in 1916.

Rev. Messrs. Goodwin and Shearer explained the objects of the movement. The latter spoke of the New Brunswick Public Health Act as being one of the best, if not the best of the kind in Canada.

The Canadian council represents 17 organizations besides provincial units. The provincial has many district councils. All churches are represented and its program takes in all that makes for moral and social betterment.

Rev. Dr. Shearer pointed out that by a federal law anyone who does that which endangers the morality of a child has committed an indictable offence and is liable to two years imprisonment. He severely criticized the Senate of Canada for refusing to pass the following bills agreed to by the commons:

Raising the age of consent from 14 years (as is the law in Germany, Austria, Hungary, Mexico and Canada) to 16 years (as is the law in Britain, while that in Australia, New Zealand and South Africa is 16 to 17). The age limit of seduction from 16 to 18; and of seduction by employer from 18 to 21 years. The social service council would readmit these bills to the government in hopes to have them again passed and forced upon the senate's attention.

The meeting decided in favor of the following:

Shell Shocked Nerves

Shattered nerves are the source of greatest suffering to many a returned soldier. The doctor can give something to relieve physical pain, but when the nervous system breaks down and you are sleepless, nervous and mentally worried, real cure only comes when the exhausted nerve cells are nourished back to health and vigor by such restorative, upbuilding treatment as Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

Pressure from Vienna.

That Germany intends to make a real bid for peace, with tempting offers to France and Italy, is certain. The present plan of reorganization, if it takes place, will be due to pressure from Vienna and to internal difficulties which are confronting the Hohenzollern dynasty. There has been a series of negotiations extending over a considerable period, and the Dual Monarchy now asks that drastic steps toward peace be taken as the price of its further assistance.

Reichstag Is Ready
 The Reichstag will undoubtedly initiate the move under the directions of the government.

In the meantime balloons are being sent up to gauge the wind. It is necessary for Germany to create a proper atmosphere at home before it can hope to gain success abroad. If the peace offensive proves a failure, it is certain to do the rulers must have their defence prepared.

having a local council, adopted a constitution and elected the following provisional officers:

President—Rev. W. J. Bates.
 Vice-Presidents—All clergyman and Salvation Army officers of the district.

Secretary—H. H. Stewart.
 Treasurer—Mrs. Thomas A. Clarke.

The evening meeting was well attended, most of the members of the Miramichi Presbytery and many citizens being present.

Rev. W. J. Bates presided. The speakers were Revs. H. A. Goodwin and Dr. Shearer. Twenty-four subscriptions to "Social Welfare" were taken and much money was subscribed to the Social Service Council fund, some paid in cash and some promised, the latter to be paid to the treasurer, Mrs. T. A. Clarke.

The speakers were given a hearty vote of thanks on motion of Revs. L. H. MacLean and E. A. Kinley.

A very successful garden fête in aid of the wounded soldiers was held on the beautiful grounds of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Park yesterday afternoon and night, realizing a large sum.

HOW A YOUNG GIRL SUFFERED

And Was Restored to Health By Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—Told By Her Mother.

Brooklyn, N. Y.—"I cannot praise Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound enough for what it has done for my daughter. She was 15 years of age, very sickly and pale and she had to stay home from school most of the time. She suffered agonies from backache and dizziness and was without appetite. For three months she was under the doctor's care and got no better, always complaining about her back and side aching so I didn't know what to do. I read in the paper about your wonderful medicine so I made up my mind to try it. She has taken five bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and doesn't complain any more with her back and side aching. She has gained weight and feels much better. I recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to all mothers and daughters."—Mrs. M. E. Fowler, 816 Marcy Ave., Brooklyn, N. Y.

CUT THIS OUT

OLD ENGLISH RECIPE FOR CATARRH, CATARRHAL DEAFNESS, AND HORN NOISES

If you know of someone who is troubled with Catarrhal Deafness, head noises or ordinary catarrh, cut out this formula and hand it to them and you may have been the means of saving some poor sufferer from total deafness. In England and Scotland, a long time past, land scientists for a long time have recognized that catarrh is a constitutional disease and necessarily requires constitutional treatment.

Spray Inhalers are nose douches and are liable to irritate the delicate passages and force the disease into the middle ear, which frequently means total deafness, or else the disease may be driven from the air passages towards the lungs which is equally as dangerous. The following formula which is used extensively in the English climate is a constitutional treatment and is a very specially efficacious to sufferers here who live under more favorable climate conditions.

Secure from your druggist 1 ounce of Permin (Double strength). Take this home and add to it 1/2 pint of hot water and a little granulated sugar; stir until dissolved. Take one tablespoonful four times a day. This will often bring quick relief from the snoring head noises. Clogged nostrils should open, breathing become easy and hearing improve as the inflammation in the eustachian tubes is reduced. Permin used in this way proves especially efficacious to sufferers here who live under more favorable climate conditions.

Use Coconut Oil For Washing Hair

If you want to keep your hair in good condition, be careful what you wash it with.

Don't use prepared shampoos or anything else, that contains too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and is very harmful. Just plain milled coconut oil (which is pure and entirely greaseless), is much better than anything else you can use for shampooing as this can't possibly injure the hair.

Simply moisten your hair with water and rub it in. One or two tea-spoonsful will make an abundance of rich, creamy lather, and cleanses the hair and scalp thoroughly. The lather rinses out easily, and removes every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves it fine and silky, fluffy, and easy to manage.

You can get milled coconut oil at most any drug store. It is very cheap, and a few ounces is enough to last everyone in the family for months.
