

GERMAN GOVERNMENT MAKES PROTEST AGAINST AIR RAIDS

The Master Culprit Squeals When He Finds Himself Getting Hit.

THREATENS TO RAID ALLIED CITIES AGAIN

Claims That Orders Were Issued to Leave Civilians Alone.

Amsterdam, Nov. 4.—An official telegram from Cologne says that twenty-seven persons were killed and thirty-five others were badly injured in an Allied aerial attack on Bonn, fourteen miles southeast of Cologne.

Washington, Nov. 4.—The German government today notified the United States that since October 1 its air forces have been under orders to make bomb attacks solely against important military and industrial objects within the immediate operations of war on the assumption that Allied and American air forces were to receive similar instructions.

The note delivered through the Swiss Legation, protests that air raids have been carried out recently against several German towns with loss of life among the civilian population and that unless such raids cease Germany can not refrain from aerial attacks on Allied territory outside of the zone of operations.

News to Washington.

This was the first notice received by the American government that such orders had been issued to the German air forces, which have constantly raided defenseless cities and towns in France, Great Britain and Italy since the war began. The state department made public the German note without comment.

It follows: "The German aerial forces have been under orders since the beginning of October of this year only to make bomb attacks, which are directed solely against important military and industrial objects within the immediate operations of war. These orders were issued on the assumption that the enemy aerial forces were to receive similar instructions."

More Hypocrisy.

"In assuming this the German people find themselves disappointed. A short time ago the enemy made bomb attacks on the German towns of Wetzlar, Kalserslautern, Mannheim, Ludwigshafen, Freiburg, Forbach, and Weisbaden, claiming numerous victims among the civilian population, nor has occupied territory been spared. It is evident that Germany can refrain from aerial attacks on enemy territory behind the area of operations only if, on their side, the enemy from now on will reciprocate and also refrain from making aerial attacks outside the area of military operations."

"In the expectation that the intention shared by the other side to further humanity and preserve important objects of culture will meet with the understanding of the opponents the German government proposes to the governments of the other belligerent countries that corresponding instructions be issued without delay to their aerial forces, informing them of the measures taken."

Looks Like Joke.

There was no intimation as to what action, if any, the American government would take with regard to the German protest. It was said authoritatively, however, that official reports show that American air operations have not up to this time gone beyond attacks upon purely military objectives. Such damage as may have been caused to non-military property and civilian losses have been incidental, it was said.

In view of the repeated raids of German air forces during the past four years not only on defenseless towns in France, England and Belgium, but also on hospitals plainly marked and far beyond the fighting zones, military and diplomatic observers here do not believe the German protest will be taken seriously by the Allied governments.

HAIG'S MEN IN MIGHTY BLOW CAPTURE 10,000 PRISONERS

"On the left English troops, having followed up the enemy closely through out his withdrawal yesterday morning, attacked and drove him from his new positions on the line of Anouille River. East of this river the guards division has captured Preux-Au-Sart, and the 24th Division has captured Wargnies-Te-Petit and Wargnies-Le-Sand.

The 119th Division has crossed the Anouille River east of Jenlain. "Further north our troops hold Sebourg and Sebourg-aux-Jules. "On the extreme left, to the east of Valenciennes, the Canadian troops have made progress along the right bank of the Scheldt and have passed beyond Estreux and Onnaing.

"Our advance is continuing on the whole battlefield."

ST. JOHN MAN GETS HONORABLE MENTION IN POETRY CONTEST

Verse by J. Mortimer Robertson was "Highly Commended" in Victory Bond Competition.

A St. John man, J. Mortimer Robertson, has been awarded "honorable mention" by the Victory Loan Committee in a poem entitled "A Victory Sonnet," which he forwarded to the Central Loan Committee in a contest for the poem that would prove of most value in the bond selling campaign and at the same time breathe the true spirit of patriotism. Contributions were received from over 1,100 competitors and a goodly number of the poems submitted were meritorious, making it quite difficult to award a prize.

Professor M. W. Wallace, Toronto, acted as judge, and gave the award to George H. Maitland, a Toronto newspaper man. In making the award, which was not an easy matter, the judge considered those poems which combined patriotism and bond-selling appeal, many of the contributors were looked the way of the requirements in degrees, but all breathed the spirit of patriotism.

The local man is mentioned along with a few others who have received "special" honorable mention, and he is to be congratulated on his success. Each of those awarded special mention is entitled to a prize of a $3 special piece, which will be forwarded through a channel designated for the purpose. The local poem is the subject of much favorable comment by the writer, J. Mortimer Robertson, 44 King Square. The poem is as follows: "A Victory Sonnet."

Men of fair Canada, and women too! Your sons and brothers have gone forth to die; They faltered not, nor raised the question "Why?" Their only thought, to see this vile thing through. Some of them, doubtless, will come back to you. Broken of limb, or with the slightest eye.

Dare you, with folded hands, stand idly by? Nor do you sit down the foul Hun new? You cannot go yourself! Then you can strew Your money for the cause we hold so high. "Five hundred millions needed"—hear the cry. And heed it, to your country's call, prove true. Canada's Victory Loan again is due. Save to the uttermost, and buy! buy! buy!"

ANDREW D. WHITE DIES AT ITHACA

Was Cornell's First President and One of Foremost Diplomats of United States.

Ithaca, N.Y., Nov. 4.—Dr. Andrew D. White, Cornell University's first president and former ambassador to Germany and minister to Russia, and one of the foremost diplomats and statesmen of the United States, died here this morning at his home as the result of a stroke of paralysis, which he suffered last Friday, Nov. 1. The funeral will be held on Thursday, Nov. 7, the anniversary of Dr. White's birthday.

Andrew Dickson White, Ph.D., LL.D., L.H.D., D.C.L., was born at Homer, Cortland Co., N.Y., Nov. 7, 1832, the son of Horace White and Clara Dickson. He was graduated from Yale University in 1853, travelled in Europe, studied at Sorbonne and College de France 1853-54. From 1854 to 1855 he was attaché to the United States Legation at Petrograd. From 1855 to 1856 he studied at the University of Berlin. He became professor of history and English literature at the University of Michigan, remaining there from 1857 to 1863. In 1863 he went to Syracuse, N.Y., and was elected state senator. During his four years term he introduced much important legislation which became law, including a bill incorporating Cornell University, of which he became the first president, serving from 1868 to 1885. In addition to the presidency he filled the chair of modern history and thoroughly equipped Cornell to become a modern institution. Later he was United States ambassador to Berlin and minister to Russia. In 1899 he attended the peace conference at The Hague, and he had served on important foreign commissions sent by the United States. He had filled other positions and had written many books.

POTATOES DULL

Fredrickton, Nov. 4.—The local potato market is exceedingly quiet. Good stock is worth nominally $2.50 per barrel, but the spuds are not coming in. Many farmers as well as their help are down with the Spanish "flu," and that may be one of the chief causes for the quiet market.

Quotations from Boston this morning, received by a local shipper, are $2 per 100-pound sacks. This surely does not forecast any very high figure for New Brunswick potatoes this year. New York and Boston distributors find it difficult to explain the lack of interest at the distributing houses there. Reports received by the commission merchants are to the effect that from most country shipping points the market is a little stronger, but as far as the distributing centres are concerned the market is dull, with very little interest being taken by the buyers.

EPIDEMIC DEATHS FOR THE MONTH TOTALLED NINETY

Grand Total of Deaths in City Was One Hundred and Sixty-Three—Influenza Appears to Have Passed Zenith.

Reports to the Board of Health for the past two days would seem to indicate that the epidemic of influenza had passed its zenith and was now on the decline. Five cases reported on Sunday were listed yesterday and only eight new cases were reported to the board. Twenty-three houses were released from quarantine.

The deaths for the month of October from pneumonia, broncho-pneumonia and influenza totalled ninety out of a grand total of one hundred and sixty-three.

T. M. Burns, secretary of the board, said this was the largest number of deaths in one month in the history of the board, and it had been keeping records for thirty years.

The deaths reported from the three diseases were:

Disease	Resident	Non-res.	Total
Influenza	18	4	22
Pneumonia	41	13	54
Broncho-pneumonia	14	5	19
Total	73	22	95

Yesterday a call for experienced nurses to care for pneumonia cases among the Indians at Hampstead reached Hon. Dr. Roberts and he turned the call over to Mrs. G. A. Kühring. A hospital has been secured and the sick persons placed in it but there is a lack of experienced nurses and Mrs. Kühring has issued a call for help from this class. Any woman who has had experience in nursing the sick can be of service. Miss Burditt of East St. John has volunteered and will leave for Hampstead this afternoon. She has an young woman willing to go with her or follow her to that village will please notify Mrs. Kühring, 81 Sewell street.

Immediately on receiving the call for help Hon. Dr. Roberts got in touch with Lieut.-Col. McAtty of the Depot Battalion and he secured two Indian volunteers from the battalion who went to Hampstead at ten o'clock and have not had the necessary experience to deal with pneumonia cases and hence the call for experienced women. Mrs. Kühring would be glad to hear from any woman in any part of the province who would be able to answer this Macedonian call.

PROVINCIAL AMOUNT HAS REACHED TOTAL OF $2,706,400

Parish of Kars, Kings County, Has Won Four Crowns—Other Sections Have Gone Over the Top—St. John Amount $2,438,550—Addresses at Open Air Meeting.

The grand total reported at Victory Loan headquarters for the city and county of St. John for the first week was a little short of the two and a half millions aimed at the amount standing at $2,438,550 for the six days. For the province exclusive of St. John, telephone reports received yesterday placed the amount for the same period at $2,706,400.

The parish of Kars, Kings county, has won four crowns, having oversubscribed its quota one hundred per cent; Rogersville has captured one crown; Loggieville has three crowns and to its credit. Yesterday four places went over the top and won their flag, Dufferin and St. David parishes, Lunenburg county, Edmundston and Westfield.

The aim of the central committee for this district is to have the largest per cent of subscribers per capita in all Canada, and they ask the citizens to help them attain this object. Wear the button and show the window card if you have bought a bond for next week a whirlwind campaign is to be inaugurated in which the services of over two hundred young ladies, members of the Y. W. P. club, and the commercial men have been enlisted, and every person and house not showing these marks of participation in the work will be called upon.

This week marks the end of the ward canvassing and after that all workers will be free to get subscriptions in any part of the city.

For the first week the total from the wards and headquarters was $1,181,850, a daily average of nearly $197,000. The number of subscribers in the wards was 2,888. This is not the total number of subscribers, as it does not include the banks and headquarters' subscribers.

Open Air Meeting.

Although the weather was chilly last evening the open air meeting of the Victory Bonds was held in the great hall of the city. The speaker was warmly enthusiastic and the objective of $10,000 was more than attained. A daily average of $197,000 was subscribed at the Imperial Bank.

The chairman of the evening, F. A. Dykeman, made a good introductory speech, announcing that Hon. W. E. Foster was to address the audience.

Premier Foster said that he wondered why it was necessary to point out the reasons why people should buy Victory bonds. He knew that that had already been done, and well done by other speakers. The money was to pay for Canada's part in the war and to uphold the honor of Canada, of New Brunswick and of St. John.

"Not so many years ago," he said, "salesmen used to sell gold bricks or shares in worthless mines, but now no more gold bricks for us. We know just what we are getting in and behind it. The great resources of Canada are behind these bonds. We owe a generous response to the men in responsible positions who have to finance the war. The man who is to be admitted to the one who helps him in the future to buy a bond, and the man who dies his money out of the soil."

Premier Foster said he expected to go to Ottawa in the near future to confer with the Provincial Premiers, and he hoped to be able to stand there and say that New Brunswick had oversubscribed her quota.

W. J. S. Miles.

W. J. S. Miles, principal of the St. John High School, the next speaker, made a splendid speech telling in a few words what he had seen and what a person who realized what the war was all about.

Sergt. Wicks.

Sergt. Wicks, a returned soldier, a member of the 25th Battalion, made a splendid speech telling in a few words what he had seen and what a person who realized what the war was all about.

FOUR PERISH IN FIRE ON A STEAMER

The Mineola Lying at Bar Harbor Badly Damaged and Is Sunk.

ALL THE PASSENGERS HAD BEEN LANDED

Vessel Ran on Rockland-Bar Harbor Route—Captain Died Recently.

Bar Harbor, Me., Nov. 4.—A fire which originated in the boiler room of the steamer Mineola, while lying at her wharf here yesterday, got under headway before the arrival of the fire department. Three deck hands and an oiler were caught in the forecastle and suffocated. They were found huddled together. The dead men are: Edward Rawley, of Rockland, deck hand.

Ernest Foster, of Rockland, oiler. Louis Almada, of Providence, R.I., deck hand. Nebemiah Dunning, of Jonesport, deck hand.

When the fire department arrived at the wharf the steamer was in flames. As there were no burns on the bodies it is believed that they could have made their way to safety if they had not stopped to dress.

After a hard fight the water was let into the steamer by opening the sea cocks and the steamer sunk. While the amount of damage to the steamer could not be estimated, the whole upper works were destroyed.

Passengers Land.

At 6.30 p.m. Saturday night the steamer Mineola arrived at her docking wharf at Bar Harbor and the passengers and freight were immediately discharged. Captain Frank Bray was in command, this being the second trip from Rockland in the Mineola. He had taken command after the death of Captain Shuts which occurred in Rockland a week ago.

At the time of the fire only the four men in the forecastle were aboard. It was about 3 o'clock that the alarm for the fire came in and by the time the department arrived on the scene the flames were well under way, the upper works were in flames and the smoke was very thick.

Sunday afternoon the steamer Catharine arrived from the Rockland wharf with pumps and wrecking crew. The Mineola will be pumped out and raised.

The steamer Mineola was built at St. George in 1901. She was 121 feet in length and 26 feet in width with a depth of 9.6 feet. She had a gross tonnage of 295 and net of 107. She carried a crew of 15 men.
