Valera Believed To Have Lost Prestige During Treaty Debate

His Own Constituency Failed Him in His Fight, and Future Prospects Not Bright.

London, Dec. 26.—(By the Associated Press.)—The Daily Breeze's adjournment of further debate on the Irish peace treaty until Jan. 3, although coming as a surprise here, was considered as favorable for ratification. By agreement between the contending factions, the Daily members will deliver no speeches touching on the treaty during the period of adjournment, nor participate in public meetings at which the treaty is discussed, but it is believed the Irish people will get together and agitate for ratification.

Agricultural and business associations and civic bodies in Ireland are planning meetings to discuss resolutions in favor of the treaty and, although it is recognized that there will be some declarations against acceptance, it is believed the majority will support the stand of Arthur Griffith, Michael Collins and their treaty advocates. The adjournment period will, thus, it is said, be equivalent to a popular referendum.

The English newspaper correspondents in Dublin emphasized the importance of the speech of Richard Mulcahy, chief of staff of the Irish republic army in the Daily yesterday in which he advocated acceptance of the treaty. They thought that his support, with that of such fighting men as Michael Collins and J. J. McKenna, assured the adherence of the republican army throughout the country.

Some of the correspondents also dwell upon what they consider Eamon De Valera's loss of prestige, as indicated by the vote for adjournment, which he opposed. De Valera's statement that when he assumed the republican presidency he did not regard his oath as fettering his actions was regarded as damaging his influence.

WORKERS' PARTY ADOPT ARTICLES OF CONSTITUTION

Propose to be Governed in United States by Central Committee of Seventeen Proletarians.

New York, Dec. 27.—The workers' party of America, organized yesterday, today adopted several articles of the constitution under which they propose to be governed by a central committee of 17 proletarians.

The second session of the organization's regional conference attracted a crowd of spectators and sympathizers which filled the labor temple meeting place, but if the lookers-on came for thrills they were disappointed. At yesterday's meeting some dozens of aspiring delegates were thrown out bodily, but today only one man was ejected for calling the president of force a liar.

The purpose of the party, according to the tentative declaration of principles subscribed to today was to "organize the working class for the abolition of capitalism through the establishment of the workers' republic."

Another article proposed limitation of membership to those "who accept the principles and dictates of the workers' party of America and agree to abide by the discipline established."

One of the delegates suggested to Steven Birscher, the chairman, that members be limited to men and women of "sound moral character."

Amid peals of derisive laughter aimed at this ally, Mr. Birscher replied: "Any person who accepts the principles of this organization is a person of sound moral character."

The meeting was punctuated by winking of the "International" and a new song to the tune of "Maryland" beginning "We'll keep the red flag flying here."

U. F. M. To Hold Convention At Winnipeg Jan. 11

Politics, Temperance and Marketing of Crops to be Thoroughly Considered.

Winnipeg, Man., Dec. 27.—Arrangements for the annual convention of the United Farmers of Manitoba, to be held here January 11 to 13, the first ever held in Winnipeg, former ones always having been held in Brandon, are nearing completion. Limited accommodation in Brandon necessitated removing the meeting place to a larger centre. It is expected that from 300 to 400 delegates and visitors will be in attendance.

General problems facing the movement, organization, marketing, the provincial platform, the temperance situation, etc., will be under discussion. Something new from the proceedings of past gatherings will be instituted when the convention takes the opportunity of expressing in a public way its attitude on Winnipeg the message of the movement generally in the evening of January 12, when two representative Manitoba speakers will address a mass meeting of delegates and citizens.

Miss Agnes MacPhail, Canada's first woman M. P., will probably be one of the speakers at the convention. Another speaker from outside the province will likely be William Irvine, the successful candidate of Calgary. It is hoped also that the whole round down of Progressive candidates elected in the recent constituencies of Manitoba will be present and deliver brief addresses.

The United Farmer women of Manitoba will hold a one-day convention December 28.

Reds Continue Their Organization Work In United States

Are Building Up Constitution Intended to Overthrow Present Government.

New York, Dec. 27.—Steve Burcher, New Jersey delegate to the convention called for the organization of the workers' party of America, who presided with a policeman's billy at yesterday's noisy session, took the chair today with a howling pin for a gavel.

A preliminary rap, and the convention proceeded with the work of adopting a constitution for an organization dedicated to the overthrow of the present government and substitution of a workers' republic.

There followed an address by "Comrade" Bill Dunn of Montana, a former I. W. W. leader, in which he predicted the ultimate success of the Russian revolution and the spread of communism throughout the world. He added that it was "becoming fashionable to believe that some sort of capitalism is springing up in Russia."

"We are meeting here in security, or at least in fancied security," he continued, "and up to the present none of the forces of capitalism, either through the government or otherwise, has interfered with us. As a matter of fact, no radical body has been raised with the last two years and some of the war has died down. But is that true?"

He then declared that the reason for the lack of raids was because the radical elements had banded together and fought back.

After citing the incident at Centennial, Wash., he said:

"Bloodshed is always deplorable. It is a terrible thing. But men and women have to die when life is sweet. It is always better to die fighting than it is to be kicked to death."

Maine's Christmas Turkeys Came From New Brunswick

But Few Raised in That State Supply Mostly from This Province.

Bangor, Dec. 27.—"Native turkeys? There isn't any," said a local market man when approached on the subject. "If we depended upon the nearby supply we couldn't supply one-tenth of the demand."

Turkey-raising seems to be a discontinued line with Maine farmers. A good supply was brought to market 25 or 30 years ago. Nowadays a farmer known to have a supply holds back for the best offer and dealers "chase" him.

Now the so-called native turkeys come mostly from New Brunswick, raised under practically the same conditions as on this side of the Canadian border, but in a land where the people seem to have time or inclination to raise turkeys.

Just why Maine people, at least in this section, have mostly gone out of the business of raising turkeys is explained in various ways. Some say it is a woman's job, and the intimidation of it that women have something else to do in these modern days than tend to turkeys. The turkey is a delicate creature when young, great care being necessary to protect it especially from the wet.

If a very young turkey gets wet it will die, as a general rule, and it is not safe always to let the young out when the dew is on the grass. After setting some age the turkey becomes self-supporting, being a wanderer and living on grass, hoppers, etc., and after harvest in the grain fields.

With the high prices of turkeys today it would seem that farmers and others would resume the raising of the birds. As a crop it ought to pay as well as some other farm products, to say the least.

WOULD STAMP OFF AUTO CARS AS COOK MAKES DOUGHNUTS

Henry Ford Experimenting With Plastic Composition for Tonnage.

Boston, Dec. 26.—Roger Babson, back from a visit with Henry Ford at the latter's laboratories, asserts that he saw Ford at work on a process for the making of automobile bodies out of a composition consisting mainly of cotton.

Babson says he saw a mound of a sticky, putty-like substance in the Detroit experimental establishment.

"What is that stuff?" he says he asked Ford.

"That is a mixture of formaldehyde, glue and cotton," was the reply.

"And what are you intending to do with it?"

"Automobiles," was the answer.

"It is Ford's purpose to make a lighter and a cheaper automobile," Mr. Babson asserted, "so he goes to cotton."

He works out a mixture for cotton, a durable, tough, long-wearing material. If he is successful he will, in time, block out automobiles much after the manner that a cook stamps out doughnuts. He believes his ideas will result in a greater revolution of the automobile industry than has the flivver.

The statistician says Mr. Ford disbelieved to him the belief that the day of heavy automobiles is about over. His complaint is that an engineer is forced to carry at all times a great superfluous load, a constant waste.

"I was in Detroit at Thanksgiving time," said Mr. Babson, "before Babson was served, Ford said to his wife:

"Remember seventeen years ago, when you and I stepped the streets to get a chicken for our Thanksgiving dinner and not a store would trust us?"

"And after a moment he continued: 'And I paid the United States $75,000,000 in taxes last year.'"

Ford wouldn't be surprised, he is quoted as saying, if people lived in cotton-houses, rode in cotton-trains and worked in cotton-shops seven years from now.

"Everyone thinks Ford wants Muscle Shoals to produce fertilizer," says Babson. "It is my opinion that he wants it to produce automobiles for the making of aluminum for certain parts of automobiles."

UNITED STATES OR RUSSIA IS THE QUESTION

Allied Premiers Will Have to Decide Which Is Best Fitted to Revive Europe.

London, Dec. 26.—The necessity for a final conference between Lloyd George and Briand prevented the French premier from seeing Ambassador Harvey personally again. The result of the two gentlemen's conversations has been such as to insure the fact that the United States will have first-hand knowledge, if not participation, in what is done from now on in the European puzzle.

The calling of the Supreme Council—with auxiliary plans announced for meeting of both Lloyd George and Briand with the German ambassador—of their respective countries—necessitates the presence of Ambassador Harvey at Cannes.

The Cannes meeting, it now develops, will deal with the idea of a general economic conference which was germinated at the present sessions and in all probability Ambassador Harvey will be asked to see what relation to such a conference his Government would stand.

France's Trade Still In Adverse Column

Returns for November Large Surplus of Imports Over Exports.

Paris, Dec. 27.—France's trade balance again shows a monthly surplus of imports. Returns for November show the excess of inbound trade to have run beyond 500,000,000 francs, raising the import surplus for the eleven months of 1921 to about 1,000,000,000 francs. These results, it is true, compare with a seven hundred and eighty-nine million import surplus in November, 1920, and with an eleven-month excess of 11,600,000,000 francs in 1920 and 21,500,000,000 francs in 1919.

It is also true that excess of imports in the eleven first months of 1921 was larger than it has been this year. But on the other hand, the export surplus of nearly 400,000,000 francs, which was achieved in the first half of 1921 has been much more than cancelled.

One cause of hesitation on the markets is that the result of the London conference has not yet been officially made public. Moreover even if definite agreements have been reached concerning the reparations question by France and England, the markets are aware that they will have to be submitted to the Supreme Council and also be ratified by Italy and Belgium. Still it is certain that the discussion between the two Premiers was much more cordial than on previous occasions and that they sincerely tried to reconcile the English and French points of view.

London Times Learns Gandhi Will Control Ahmedabad Congress

Will Employ Power to Extend Non-Cooperation, Civil Disobedience, Non-Payment of Taxes.

London, Dec. 27.—The Bombay correspondent of the London Times predicts that Mahatma Gandhi will succeed in the present session of the Ahmedabad Congress in securing a prohibition of, and that the congress will involve with leadership and dictatorial powers over the congress organization and funds. He will employ these to extend non-cooperation, civil disobedience and non-payment of taxes with increased vigor throughout India, deliberately challenging the whole policy of the Indian Government.

Gandhi professes delight at the Government's repressive measures which, he is convinced, will disarm the moderates and close the ranks of his adherents. The correspondent thinks that this aspect of the situation is disquieting, for the constitutional government machinery is erected on the loyal co-operation of the moderates in the task of governing the country.

Turk, 146 Years Old, Still Going Strong

Zora Quite Zippy After 140 Years of Labor, But a Little Shy on Girls.

Paris, Dec. 27.—A modern Methuselah, reputed to be the oldest man on earth has started out to see the world before he gets "too old to travel." Zora Mehmed, 146 years old, of Constantinople, has arrived in Paris, Zora, who has been working pretty consistently for 140 years, is in excellent health and boasts of being able to carry a 200-pound weight.

Zora produces identification papers to prove he was born in 1776 and he refers to his closest competitor for longevity honors, a Sikh Indian in the United States, aged 137 years, as "a mere boy." Zora has a son 95 years old and he has some descendants that he long ago lost count.

The aged Turk is a shaggy old subject of matrimony. Having tried the experience four times he says he speaks with a certain amount of authority.

"Women," said Zora shaking his head bitterly, "women, they may seem as sweet as the rosy dawn, but verily they are more often like thorns, hidden only by a rosy exterior."

Prohibition Case At Fredericton Badly Mixed Up

Information Arising Out of Raid in Capital City With- drawn.

Fredericton, Dec. 27.—Information in a prohibition case, arising out of a raid in Fredericton on Friday last, was withdrawn this afternoon before Magistrate Jaffrey, of Devon, by whom the search warrant was issued. The withdrawal was because of doubt of ability to try a charge originating in Fredericton before any Magistrate but one in this city.

Police Magistrate Limerick, of this city, because of a distant family connection, has taken no part in the case. The case may be heard by Magistrate E. Allison Mackay. A decision will be reached in this matter tomorrow.

Alberta Considering Commercializing The Buffalo

Herd of Over 5,000 Now Roam the 100,000 Acres of Wainwright Park.

Edmonton, Alta., Dec. 27.—Commercialization of the buffalo at Wainwright Park, Alta., stocked twelve years ago with 750 animals and now having a herd of more than 5,000, is under consideration by the Federal Government. The herd is increasing rapidly each year and with the eventual sale of the animals outgrowing the 100,000 acre park, Government representatives are seeking ways to commercialize the surplus animals. A commercial undertaking would include the sale of meat, robes, mounted heads, and possibly leather and wool.

An excellent demand exists for buffalo meat, and all the animals the Government cares to kill can be sold at fine prices in both Canada and the United States.
