FIRST HOME OF LEGISLATURE IN PROVINCE SOLD

Building Was Occupied by Parliament in 1788 and Later Years.

ERECTED FOUR YEARS EARLIER BY LOYALIST

Two-Story Frame Structure of Strong Class Built Years Ago.

Fredericton, N. B., July 6.—The frame building on Queen street in which the New Brunswick Legislature first met has been sold, being included in a block of real estate which changed ownership a few days ago.

Upon the building is a brass plate placed there by the Daughters of the Empire twenty years ago which bears the inscription: "The Legislature of New Brunswick met first in Fredericton in this house on July 15th, 1788, and for twelve years thereafter."

The building is one of two frame structures on property with a frontage of 60 feet and running back 108 feet on the southeast side of Chancery Lane, and is at the lower end of the business section of the city, almost opposite the B. N. A. branch of the Bank of Montreal. It was recently occupied by a watchmaker, but has lately been unoccupied.

The new owner of the property is Miss Areta Gerow, of this city, who declined this morning to discuss her reasons for purchasing the property or her intentions regarding it.

The building, which dates back nearly to the time of the coming of the Loyalists, was known as The King's Provision Store, and was built by working parties of His Majesty's 54th Regiment of Foot in 1784.

ership business in various branches.

Frederick J. McRae, Allan A. Mc-Rae and Hugh A. Carr, all of Campbellton, have been incorporated as Mc-Rae's Limited, with capital stock at $40,000, and head office in Campbellton. The company is authorized to carry on general wholesale and retail mercantile business.

William J. Lean, Isabelle Lean and Aaron Gold, all of St. John, have formed a partnership as the Gold-Crean Manufacturing Company, to carry on manufacturing of overalls and other

Sinn Feiners Slay Unarmed Officer

Special to The Standard Fredericton, N. B., July 6.—Word was received today by Mrs. Henry Willmot, of Lincoln, of the murder in Ireland by Sinn Feiners of her nephew, Lieut. Alex. Toogood, 1st Lincolnshire Battalion, on June 19. He and two young artillery officers were out walking in civilian dress when they were attacked without any warning, blindfolded, stood against a wall and brutally killed.

He was in his 21st year, and was the eldest son of Col. Cecil Toogood, who was for over four years a prisoner of war in the hands of the Germans, and is at present commanding the 2nd Battalion Lincolnshire Regiment in Poona, India.

MARRIAGE IS DISSOLVED Fredericton, July 6.—At the opening of the Divorce Court this morning, William A. Barnett vs. Ida Mae Barnett, was taken up. Barnett, the plaintiff, told at some length of his marital troubles and several acts of guilt which he personally saw his wife commit. Madeline Barnett, a daughter, testified to living in Boston with her mother, who is now living with a man named Hagen, as his wife.
Geo. Fleming, as a witness to the marriage, told of the ceremony. His Honor said the order of the court would be that a decree dissolving the marriage contract.

In Carrie Maddison vs. William Bruce Maddison, Mrs. Maddison told of her married life and how, on her return to her home one evening, with a Mrs. Steeves, she found her husband with a girl named Muriel Flow-

No Serious Fires In N. B. Forests

Fredericton, N. B., July 6.—New Brunswick is free from serious forest fires. The northern part of the province where the primeval forests are located is apparently exempt from fires, according to official reports of the Department of Lands and Mines, and while there are numerous smaller fires in the central and southern portions of the province, none of these have got beyond an unimportant stage. This province has no far exposed with the lightest fire losses in years.

Mrs. Steeves corroborated this testimony. The court said it would reserve judgment.

BULL MOOSE AND SEA DOG AT GAGETOWN

First Time Latter Has Made Its Appearance So Far Up River.

CHASED BY TWO MEN BUT MADE ESCAPE

Women's Institute Held Very Pleasant Meeting—"Cake Contest" Created Interest.

Special to The Standard.
Gagetown, July 6.—One morning not long ago, a few early risers had the novel experience of seeing a moose at close quarters. The animal, which was a large bull moose, walked down the railway track from the direction of the station, passing within a few yards of Brooks Brothers and Archie McAllister's, who were watching from their windows. He then took flight at a dog and bolted across a field, through N. H. Otty's garden, making large dents enroute, and out through a small gate leading into Frank Mc-Allister's yard, and thence out the Mill Road to more familiar haunts.

Sea Dog On Log

The surprise of those who saw the moose was as nothing to the feelings of F. R. Fox and Frank Du Vernet last Thursday afternoon, while working with some logs near the mouth of the Ottagow stream. They sighted a very odd looking animal lying on a log in mid-stream. They got within a few feet of it in their motor boats before it dived and swam a long distance under water, coming up to rest on another log. They had nothing to capture it with, but following it up, had a good chance to observe it before it finally got away. It was a sea-dog of enormous size, with body nearly white and dark gray tail. It was the first ever seen on this part of the St. John river, and must have taken some time to get fifty miles from its home in the waters of the fundy.

Narrow Escape.

Fred McAllister had a narrow escape from being seriously injured last Tuesday evening, while breaking a cask. The animal took flight at a bunch of brush and bolted over the top of a fence into Frank Hayden's field, which adjoined McAllister's, taking Mr. McAllister with it. He was dragged several rods before he was able to free himself. Fortunately, although badly shaken up, he received no serious injuries.

W. I. Meeting.

Institute took place last Thursday

MANSFIELD ROSS IS RELEASED BY "NO BILL" REPORT

Grand Jury, Following Instructions of Mr. Justice Melish, Frees Prisoner.

FRIENDS GAVE HIM BIG RECEPTION

Mother First to Greet Son When Verdict Was Announced.

Yarmouth, N. S., July 6.—Mansfield Ross, fiancé of Eleanor Perry, daughter of the retired sea captain, George Henry Perry, who was murdered on the threshold of his home here in February last, was this morning discharged in the Supreme Court, after the grand jury, acting on the instructions of Mr. Justice Melish, had brought in a "no bill" against him. The dropping of the charge against Ross of being an accomplice in the murder of Capt. Perry, after the fact, followed the acquittal yesterday of Mrs. Clara Elizabeth Perry, of the charge of murdering her husband.

When Ross stepped down from the prisoner's dock, he was greeted by his mother, a little woman almost girlish in appearance, dressed in black.
Eleanor Perry and her sisters were waiting in the court. Mrs. Ross, apparently the happiest woman in the world, with her son and the Misses Perry, left the court room and were greeted by friends waiting outside.

Mrs. Ross and her son, immediately entered a motor and were driven away to their home.

IF TORMENTED WITH CORNS USE GOOD OLD "PUTNAM'S."

It's really a simple thing to remove your corns, and without pain, if you evening at the home of Mrs. George E. McDermott. After an evening spent in fancy work, the members took part in a "cake contest," in which Mrs.

Wm. C. Belyea was the winner, and received a beautiful bouquet of rose peonies. Each member was also presented with one of Mrs. McDermott's lovely peonies before leaving for home.

At the close of the evening, ice cream and cake were served, by Mrs. Mc-Dermott and Miss Ruby Carrier.

A. R. Slipp, K. C., paid his first visit to Gagetown, since his appointment as judge of the York, Sunbury and Queens circuit on Thursday last, when some matters in connection with his new position were taken up.
