

latest analysis of the success of the disabled men who have been re-trained and re-claimed and are now re-established in a trade or occupation wherein their disability does not affect their success or earning power.

Samuel A. Langford.

Minister, Department of Soldiers' Civil Re-Establishment.

The
has aroused
education

In for
and was t
assistance
a keen sei
country, v
re-training
industrial life.

In Ca
much a m
was gained
came so q
it stood, s
the end of
and the r
statistics l
enough, ar
little was
at this tim
adopted ar
would info
helpful and

Much
been due t
for the De
the admini

For th
of the Can amateurs p
add surmis
misconcepti
soldiers are
body and s
unintention
institutional
to learn a n
and desire t
in this volu

An end
one; that t
to the soluti
agencies su
labour relati

This pr
due to vary
These men c
to some pr
organized an