Beside the cottage perch
A girl was on her knees,
She held aloft her enowy scarl,
Which futtered in the breeze;
She breathed a prayer for him—
A prayer he could not hear—
But he paused to bless her as she knelt,
And wiped away a tear.

Oh, do not deem him week,
For dauntless was the soldier's heart,
Though tears were on his cheek.
Go watch the foremost rank
In darger's dark career—
Be sure the hand most daring there
Has wiped away a tear.

A SISTER'S AFFECTION, When the army of the Potomac made its advance, a few days since, a member of the Twenty First N. Y. Regiment, picked up, in a place just vacated by the rebels, a copy of the Richmond Examiner of the previous week, from which we clip the following touch-

"One of those affecting incidents occurred at the departure of the Yankee prisoners for New Orleans, that whether concerning friends or foes, must move the stoutest heart. A young lady, of Northern birth, who has been some time a resident of this State, and, having a lucrative occupation, preferred to remain here after the war broke out, discovered, by some means, that her brother was among the prisoners in the city. There the guard was so watchful and the line so strict that she was unable to approach within ten that she was unable to approach within ten yards; but, with straining eyes and anxious love, did the poor girl endeavor to scrutlnize each probable form, until a mutual gaze met hers, and revealed the object of her search. Her brother recognized her. Darting for-ward, but repulsed by the guard, each preci-ous moment threatening to sever them. perous moment threatening to sever them, per-haps, forever, who can judge of the agony of the poor stricken sister! Some of the by-standers, becoming interested in the scene, used their influence to permit a message to be conveyed to the prisoner. "Oh! is there anything I can do for him, anything he wants?" she exclaimed. But the wants of the prisoner were few. With lose of liberty, what else could avail him? 'Take him this,' said she, 'it is all I have in the world."-And she handed him a small, a very small packet. So they passed to the prisoner a few dollar bills, with some small change, not

Man's money saved by securing the rights of Woman!

THE Undersigned is now manufacturing and has for sale in Almonte, the only genuine advocate of Women's Rights, called Gardiner's Patent Washing Machine.

The working of this Machine is its best recommendation, as it is now deservedly supposed to be an indispensable article in every family; in fact, it is an article which justly lays claim to a small coozy neuk in every woman's wash-room. This article is got up in a neat style; made of the best material; and, in order that all may become acquainted with its utility, just come and terial; and, in order that all may become acquainted with its utility, just come and examine it, take it home and try it, and then buy it.
