ANSWERS TO CORRESPONDENTS, (Concluded.)

INEXPERIENCE:—It is unnecessary to call upon the bride before attending the wedding.

MAUD S.:—It is unnecessary to leave your card if the lady upon whom you are calling opens the door. On leaving, however, it would not be bad form to remark, "I do not wish you to forget my address, so leave this reminder," and place a card on the table or card receiver.

PANSY:—Try the remedy for reducing flesh contained in "Beauty," published by us at 4s. or $1.00.

LADY HILDA:—Have a fancy Louis basque of taffeta silk for wear with your silk skirt, cutting it by pattern No. 8433, which costs 1s. 3d. or 30 cents, and is illustrated in THE DELINEATOR for June. A few batiste waists, a grass linen suit and one of checked chevrot will complete your outfit. Russet and patent leather shoes are more popular this season than over. Ammonia added to the water used to wash the hair will tend to make it brittle; it will lighten the color to some extent, but we would not advise its use for this purpose.

L. D. W.:—The duties of matrons in public institutions vary so much that we cannot give you a definite idea on the subject. You might apply personally to some of them for the information desired.
