

Sittings on Circuit. or more of the Judges thereof, may hold sittings for the purposes of taking such evidence and hearing such causes and other matters, and transacting such other business and at such periods and at such County Towns as the said Court may from time to time see fit to direct and appoint. And such sittings may, at the discretion of the Court or of the Judge who is to hold the same, be held in the Court House of the County Town in which the same are appointed to be held, or in such other place in the said County Town as the Judge may select; and the Judge shall in all respects have the same power and authority as a Judge at nisi prius in regard to the use of the Court House, Gaol and other buildings or apartments set apart in the County for the more convenient administration of justice. And all Sheriffs, Deputy Sheriffs, Gaolers, Constables and other Peace Officers, shall be aiding, assisting and obeying the said Judge in the exercise of his jurisdiction under this Act, and otherwise, whenever required to do so by the said Judge or by any general or other order of the said Court.

Judges may sit separately under general rules or orders. VII. The Judges of the said Court may sit separately either at the same time or at different times for the hearing and disposing of such matters and the transaction of such business as may from time to time, in that behalf, be directed by general or other orders of the said Court; and the decrees and orders made by a single Judge in such cases shall have the force and effect of, and be deemed for all purposes to be, decrees and orders of the said Court, but shall be subject to rehearing before the full Court or otherwise in such cases as the Court, by general orders or otherwise, may from time to time direct or appoint; and every Judge so sitting separately, whether at Toronto or on the circuit, shall have all the powers and authorities of the full Court, subject to such general orders as may be made in that behalf.

Court may vest property by order, &c., instead of deed. VIII. In all cases in which the said Court now has power and authority to order the execution of any deed, conveyance, transfer or assignment of any property real or personal, the said Court shall hereafter have power and authority to make an order or decree vesting such real or personal estate in such person or persons, and in such manner, and for such estates, as according to the present practice would be done by any such deed, conveyance, assignment or transfer; and thereupon the said order or decree shall have the same effect both at Law and in Equity as if the legal or other estate or interest in such property had been actually conveyed by deed or otherwise, for the same estate or interest, to the person in whom the same shall be so ordered to be vested, or in the case of a chose in action as if such chose in action had been actually assigned to such last mentioned person.

Registration of decree or order IX. Every decree or order of the said Court which has already been or shall hereafter be made whereby any sum of money, or
