"Student Circle" (Chinese Radio Show) - Fredericton's only Chinese radio show.

"Nine Moons" with Kathy. Scary new music designed to shake you up.

"Doorknobs and Dipsticks" with Biff Spudbuster. Fry up yer back bacon and grab a 'soda-pop' for the down-home harbinger of sanity.

"Wild Frontier of Christian Rock" with Tezzo. Contemporary, alternative, pop and metal Christian music for everybody.

"Africana" with Musa.

"Mefill" with Fredericton's only East Malian radio program, featuring the news and culture of India.

Chinese News Show

"Naked Agression" with James Hamilton. This industrial specialty show brings you plenty of things that go 'grind' in the night. Be afraid. Be very afraid.

"Institutionalized" with Mr. Nick. Fredericton's only hardcore show enabling you to annoy your parents, roommates, and convince your doctor that the old electro-shock therapy is working just fine!

"The Grapefruit Dead" with Vicki Morin. Melodic melodies rescuing you from the redundancy of life.

"The Cookie Monster Power Hour" with Richard Roe. A spooky, thriller-chiller of a show featuring live bacteria and oozing puss all over the place, in 3-D! So study your ABC's and prepare to "do the rubber duck"!

"Captain Hyndegryner's Fishstick Surprise Show" with Billy. Har, maties, batten' down the hatches, grab hold of the tiller, and away's we go on a wild and wet ocean voyage.

"The Drooling Lizard Show" with Cheeko. Tune in for the latest reptilian riffs, sending goosebumps on parade up and down your arms.

"Jazz-A-Mix" with Nic featuring diversified jazz from be-bop to swing, from classic to new age, and every note between - Nic covers it all including plenty of background information.

"The Evening People Show" with Kwame Dawes. An eclectic mix of music styles that form the basis of reggae music which predominate the selections. R&B, gospel, folk, reggae.

"La Cabane à Sucre" with Robert Gauvin. C'est la seule emission de langue Francaise de CHSR. Nous jouons toutes sortes de musique française, de folk à rock.

"Mystic Rhythms" with Eric Hill. Possibly complex relations and variations in sound made coherent by your amiable and self-effacing host. Rhythms ranging from folk to punk are explored and the latest in film and music is communicated.

"Knight in the Morning" with Andrew Knight. The only show dedicated to schizophrenics with music, comedy and lots more of interesting "stuff".

"The Bellowing Bushbuck" with Outback Jack G'Day. Mate! Join me and the Matilda Bay Moo-Cows for three hours of fun and frolic. We'll chuck a dingo on the Bar-B and talk about where koalas come from.

"A Stroll Through the Park Show" with Downy Jim and the Secretaries.

"From a Different Perspective"

"I Think I Got the Blues" with Scott Dunham. Presents blues, old and new, and related forms of traditional North American black music, and more...

"Mind Beat Production" with Sasha Maicher. Psyched-out sounds for your stomach. Lots of big beat... dance music with interviews, and other strange injections of sound & subliminals.

"The Preparation-V Show" Music to soothe your hemorrhoids with. Recommended by 4 out of 10 doctors.

"Vintage Vinyl" with Derek Spear and Dave Gauvin. Hey, is that "Vintage Vinyl"? Well, turn it up man! Home of classic rock and roll. Be there.

"Graffic" with Paul Gorman. A nexus of music and imagery. Plenty of interesting music, details on local art events, and the latest in comic news. All this and nifty words as well, on one relatively neat package from a not too tightly wrapped host.

"Virgins and Phillistines" with Kathryn Pizar. Kathy picks up where Paul leaves off, and ventures into parts unknown.

"The Good Morning Headache Show". A psychotic blend of tunes whipped at high speeds for 2 hours. Filling but not fattening.

Open "Grape Ape & the Bananas" brought to you by a weekly mystery host. Tasty stuff you cats'll really love.

ian Mahoney "A Taste of Honey". All you need is the peanut butter and two slices of bread for a lunch time of light alternatives.

Jeff Clark dishes out 'light' alternative music like REM, The Alarm, and Frozen Ghost for the first hour, exploding into 'heavy' alternative - stay tuned for Ministry, Skinny Puppy, Unknown Process, Guns n' Roses.

Shawn Yerxa presents your weekly dose of urbanity, dexterously beat-mixed and offered up for your dancing pleasures.
