

5.

C 202969

My hope is NOT that our differences will all be resolved - if they were there would be no place for party politics and most of us would be unemployed

My hope is rather than we may continue to settle our differences by debate, discussion and the ballot - in our time honoured constitutional way - within the framework of a basic unity which will ever serve to increase the strength and influence of Canada in the councils of the nations.