Office of the Prime Minister

Sir,

St. Patrick's Society has instructed me to convey to you, and through you to the members in charge of the observance of the centenary of the birth of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, the advantage of this occasion to express its respect and esteem for Canada's most illustrious

It is only right and proper that commemorative services should provide all peoples of Canada, in honoring its distinguished to recognize that the status of both Canada and the British Empire in the world today is unquestionably due to the vision, acts and concepts of Sir Wilfrid whose life, works and ideals are best illustrated in his now historic pronouncement:-

"A daughter in her mother's house, a mistress in her own."

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your obedient servant,

L. P. Neilligan
President

Honorable Adelard Godbout,
Prime Minister, Province of Quebec,
Parliament Buildings,
Quebec, P.Q.
