CALLS FOR EXPLANATION.

Says the Windsor Record of yesterday:

"The reference to the treatment of the Chatham and Sarnia guests to the opening of our new library by The Chatham Planet, which appears in another column, calls for some explanation from the Library Board. If these invited guests were treated as alleged, then it is a serious reflection upon the city. We hope in this matter that The Planet has been drawing upon its imagination."

A MOST DISGRACEFUL APPOINTMENT.

The Dominion Government has become sponsor for another of the Ontario election celebrities. It will be remembered that after the provincial general election in Ontario, Mr. Donald Sutherland, the Conservative member for South Oxford, was offered a bribe to support the Ross Government. The offer was indignantly rejected and then the Liberal machine attempted to unseat Mr. Sutherland. The case was conducted for the Ross Government by a Mr. Jackson, who, in order to secure evidence to prove his charges, engaged convicts from the Central Prison to swear away Mr. Sutherland's character. Several of these scoundrels after giving evidence, admitted in court that they had committed perjury. Mr. Justice Street commenting on Jackson's conduct at Woodstock, on October 21st, 1902, said "Mr. Jackson, of Ingersoll, has associated with men of the lowest possible character. It is evident he must have desired evidence to have been made to procure the proving of charges in the petition. There is no doubt of it. I have seen nothing like it in court in my life."

Such wholesale condemnation, instead of relegating Jackson to a back seat, has proved such a splendid recommendation for him that he has been appointed Canadian agent at Leeds. This associate of "men of the lowest possible character" will be commissioned from time to time to transact important business for this country. Like Preston, he has been rewarded for his offences against the sanctity of the ballot. His nomination for a position of trust stands as an everlasting disgrace to Sir Wilfrid Laurier and his confederates.

MAY GO TO LONDON

The London Free Press of yesterday says:

It has been known for a week past that the Talbot street Baptist congregation had particularly made up their minds to extend a call to Rev. J. J. Ross, of St. Catharines. The Reverend gentleman preached from the pulpit of the church here on Sunday week and the people were delighted with him. During the past week the matter was much discussed and it was conceded upon all sides that Mr. Ross was the man wanted as successor to the pastoral work in a church that had been placed, by the effort of his predecessor, very largely upon a most enviable footing.

Rev. Mr. Ross went to St. Catharines from Chatham only in April last, but as pastor of the Queen street Baptist church he made a host of friends, and his leaving there will be very greatly regretted. The call which is now to be sent to him from the Talbot street church is not the first intimation, however, that Mr. Ross has had that he might be wanted here. When, some time before it actually occurred, it was intimated that Rev. Dr. Sowerby might leave London the name of Mr. Ross was prominently mentioned in connection with the charge here.

OZARD--WALKER

A pretty home wedding took place at noon yesterday at the residence of Mr. C. H. Walker, architect and builder, 445 Spence street, when Miss Rhoda Walker became the bride of Mr. W. H. Ozard, assistant day foreman of the Free Press newspaper. The ceremony was performed in the presence of a large gathering of friends by Rev. Mr. Burman. The bride was attended by Miss Margaret Ozard and Mr. Parry Walker escorted the groom. The bride looked charming in her bridal dress of white Persian lawn over tulle, with conventional veil and orange blossoms. Her going away gown was a becoming suit of brown cloth with hat to match. Mr. and Mrs. Ozard left by the C. P. R. Atlantic express for Ontario, where they will spend their honeymoon. On their return to the city three weeks hence, they will take up their residence at No. 222 Selkirk street.

The wide acquaintance and popularity of the young couple was attested to by the large number of gifts of which they were the recipients on the happy occasion. The gift of the bride's father to his daughter was a very substantial cheque—Manitoba Free Press.

Mr. Ozard was formerly a valued employee of The Planet and is spending part of his honeymoon in this city.

YOUNG OFFENDERS

City Editor, The Planet,
Chatham, Ont.:

The following letter has been sent by the Attorney General's Department to the various Magistrates and Crown Attorneys throughout the Province:

Sir,—By section 550 of the Criminal Code it is provided that "the trials of young persons apparently under the age of 16 shall take place without publicity and separately and apart from the trials of other accused persons." As you will understand, this provision is intended as far as possible to protect young persons who presumably are not as yet hardened from unnecessary exposure before the public. There is reason to believe that the above enactment has not been obeyed in all cases, and I am to impress on you that the desire of the Attorney General is that the enactment should be scrupulously carried out. The object we must all have in view is, where possible, to save and reclaim young persons, and it has been considered by those most competent to give an opinion that this is one effective means.

Yours truly,
J. R. CARTWRIGHT,
Deputy Attorney General.

Crown Attorney H. D. Smith says in reference to the above letter that it is quite right for the children to be tried privately but that he felt the children were not being punished sufficiently. He instanced a recent case where a lad had been in the hands of the police on several occasions and had been let go with warnings. The other day the boy was discovered ransacking a house on Victoria avenue. On this occasion the lad had his younger brother in tow. Now if the other brother had been sent to the Reformatory in the first place, he could not have been able to instruct his young brother in the crime of stealing.

THE FEAR OF HUSBUB

Prevents Many People From Trying a Good Medicine

Stomach troubles are so common and in most cases so obstinate to cure that people are apt to look with suspicion on any remedy claiming to be a radical permanent cure for dyspepsia and indigestion. Many such pride themselves on their astuteness in never being humbugged, especially in medicines.

This fear of being humbugged can be carried too far, so far, in fact, that many people suffer for years with weak digestion rather than risk a little time and money in fully testing the claims made of a preparation so reliable and universally used as Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

Now Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are vastly different in one important respect from ordinary proprietary medicines for the reason that they are not a secret patent medicine, no secret is made of their ingredients, but analysis shows them to contain the natural digestive ferments, pure aseptic pepsin, the digestive acids, Golden Seal, bismuth, hydrastis and nux. They are not cathartic, neither do they act powerfully on any organ, but they cure indigestion on the common sense plan of digesting the food eaten thoroughly before it has time to ferment, sour and cause the mischief. This is the only secret of their success.

Cathartic pills never have and never can cure indigestion and stomach troubles because they act entirely on the bowels, whereas the whole trouble is really in the stomach. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets taken after meals digest the food. That is all there is to it. Food not digested or half digested is poison as it creates gas, acidity, headaches, palpitation of the heart, loss of flesh and appetite and many other troubles which are often called by some other name.

They are sold by druggists everywhere at 50 cents per package.

NEW PASTOR

Rev. Mr. McGilvray, of New Market, preached in the First Presbyterian church Sunday. He is a good preacher and made a very favorable impression. The congregation will meet next Monday night for the purpose of extending a call for a pastor. If they can decide upon a suitable preacher. They have now heard five

GUY BROS. MINSTRELS.

Notwithstanding the heavy rainstorm which prevailed last night, the Opera House was packed from the orchestra chairs to the "nigger head" with people who had gathered to see Guy Bros. Minstrels. The huge audience were in no way disappointed by the performance. They were kept in continual merriment by the funny sayings and doings of the six talented brothers and their excellent troupe. When the curtain went up it revealed the members of the troupe seated in a circle dressed in red plush coats and blue knickerbockers of the same material. The men were in their usual costumes and black faces. The show was first class in every respect, and one that the most refined lady could attend without witnessing anything that would annoy her feelings.—Kingston, Ontario, News.

They appear at the Opera House, matinee and night, Saturday, Nov. 14th.
