THE JOURNAL OF COMMERCE, THURSDAY, MAY 27, 1915

Journal of Commerce Published Daily by The Journal of Commerce Publishing Company,

THE

Limited. 35-45 Alexander Street, Montreal. Telephones:-Business: Main 2662. Reportorial: Main 4702.

HON, W. S. FIELDING, President and Editor-in-Chief. J. C. ROSS, M.A., Managing Editor

Journal of Commerce Offices: foronto-T. W. Harpell, 44-46 Lombard Street. Telephone Main 7099. New York Correspondent-C. M. Withington, 44 Broad Street. Telephone 333 Broad.

London, Eng .-- W. E. Dowding, 25 Victoria Street, estminster, S.W.

Subscription price, $3.00 per annum. Single Copies, One Cent. Advertising rates on application.

MONTREAL, THURSDAY, MAY 27, 1915.

The British Coalition.

by such methods as are recognized by international The composition of the Coalition Government in law and the dictates of humanity, we may be sure England causes some surprise, not with regard to the Conservatives who have accepted places in the It is not conceivable that they would willingly and Cabinet-for they are all men of pronounced leader- to no material purpose enter upon a course of ship-but with regard to the distribution of the of- famy that must bring upon them the disgust and ship-out with regard to the distribution at which abhorrence of the whole civilized world. Depend had been anticipated from the advance press rethe last indicates that not only the Liberal many has only adopted these methods in a spirit of desperation. She is unwilling to ad-Ministers who voluntarily retired, but also some of mit l.er difficulties, but they can hardly be concealthose who have remained in office, have made some ed. She claims to have abundant supplies of food, sacrifices for the good of the nation, accepting posi- yet in the discussion of her relations with the United tions of less importance than those they have hither- States the German press, and even the German offito occupied. This is an indication of the spirit in cial documents are constantly referring to England's which the work of re-organization has been approach- policy of "starving" Germany. What danger can ed, and augurs well for the success of the Ministry. there be of anybody starving Germany if she has

That Mr. Asquith would retain the Premiership, the abundant resources of food that the Germans and Sir Edward Grey the Foreign Office, was well claim they have? The use that can be made of poiknown from the beginning. Both have filled these sonous gases is not anything new. All clever great offices with much distinction at a most criti-ists are well aware of what can be done in this way. cal period, and any change affecting them would But the thing is so much at variance with the laws have been a disaster. Lord Lansdowne's accept- of war that no nation has hitherto made use of it. ance of a place, although without portfolio, gives Germany, we may be sure, would not do so now if the Cabinet the benefit of his great abilities and his she were not driven to such a course by desperation. wide experience in public affairs. In the business of So in the case of the torpedoing of the Lusitania, the Foreign Office, over which he long presided, his the German authorities knew well the horror with advice will be particularly helpful to Sir Edward which this act would be viewed by the civilized world, whose official burden has been, and must and only a position of desperation could have led continue to be, very heavy.

the German Government to adopt such a policy. Mr. Balfour, although no longer the formally The fact that Germany has resorted to these mos chosen leader of the Opposition, is still the foremost Conservative. The country is to be congratulated cognizes the desperation of her position, and that the on his willingness to take up again the responsibilit ties of service. His appointment as First Lord of German agents in the neutral countries, as to the the Admiralty necessitates the retirement of Lord abundance of her resources for carrying on the war Fisher from the post of First Sea Lord, for that able is mere bluff. and popular but somewhat impetuous officer took pains a day or two ago to declare that he would not serve under either Mr. Churchill or Mr. Balfour. Our great soldiers and sailors too often prove themselves the war through to a successful finish. The King slow to recognize the conditions under which gov- has left Rome, and has gone to the front, where, as ernment must be carried on in a democratic age. It commander-in-chief he will not only have a large part in the direction of affairs, but will share with have been concerning Lord Kitchener, his services his soldiers all the hardships of the war. are not to be lost to the nation. The campaign of the Northcliffe press against him has failed; he re-

The sinking of the battleship "Triumph" in the mains at the head of the War Office. Mr. Lloyd Dard nelles shows the difficulty of forcing this fa-George has been so successful as Chancellor of the mous passage. It is not going to be an easy task for Exchequer that his retirement from the position the Allies to reach Constantinople, but every ship or would be a cause for sincere regret, but for the fact man lost in the effort will only make the Allies that he takes a new office-that of Minister of more determined. Italy will now be an important Munitions-which evidently is regarded as one of factor in assisting in forcing the straits.

the very highest importance in war time, and one in which there will be a fine field for his great indus-Mr. McKenna's appointment as enemies' lines on a total front of over three miles try and energy. The property and energy. All methods appointment as include a large states and the second and th est surprise. He is, however, a man of proved abil- kept up continuously will eventually force the Gerity, who is evidently highly appreciated by Mr. As- mans to retire from their present positions. quith, and he is likely to make a success of any de- turing trenches is a slow and costly task, but there partment assigned to him.

These are the offices of the Government to which at this time the nation attaches the most importance. That they are so ably filled will be a source world's bread basket. In the nine months ended of much gratification to the public.

Mr. Lewis Harcourt, who has very satisfactorily the value of $429,000,000, as compared with $129,000, discharged the duties of Secretary of State for the 000 for the corresponding period in 1914. Wheat Colonies, steps back to his former post of First made up the largest amount with $261,000,000, as Commissioner of Works. Mr. Birrell retains the Irish compared with $71,000,000 for the corresponding respect to Ireland are becoming smoother.

in his waik to point to a very imposing establishment. "Handsome house!" "Yes, uncle, it is, but built out himself to predict. But, judging from the present gians. If that hour strikes he may be accepted to the comparatively unimportant position of Chan-cellor of the Ducky of Lancaster. While he is, per-haps, not an ideal Minister, Mr. Churchill has many of a considerable time thereafter. There will be a good market for everything American or Canadian ingents of a and the second of the qualities which the country needs now, and farmers can produce. said the old chap sadly. "A publican?" "No, dearhis willingness to aid the Prime Minister by serving in a minor position will be remembered to his dentist "UNCLEAN" GERMANY. the years to come. Lord Crewe gives up (Philadelphia North American.) AN ENGLISH MOTHER. the India Office to Mr. Austen Chamberlain, and Germany boasts that she has taught England and goes to a less exacting position as President of the Council. Mr. Bonar Law becomes Colonial Secre-has. She has taught the world that a nation drug-I loved the spring so well in that fond year! America and all other nations a "lesson." Truly, she The little baby buds that grew and grew tary, a place that should be agreeable to one who is ged with the spirit of militarism is a menace not Came as sweet token of a joy so near. adian by birth, and who has taken a warm in alone to its neighbors, but to all humanity, and that So dear, it seemed that it could not be true terest in Colonial affairs. Lord Curzon, Lord Sel- until that mad delusion is swept away there will be borne and Mr. Walter Long take less exacting posts no peace or security on this earth. Germany is no The sprouting grass, the brooks that sang aloud The mother birds that perched their nests to sing, than some of the others. Sir John Simon, perhaps longer a nation at war, but a nation urged by blind the ablest of the younger Liberals, and one who is savagery. She has put herself beyond the pale of civ-All made glad song for me. Ah, I was proud. And oh, so happy in that winsome spring! assured of a brilliant future, retires from the Attor- ilization. And the most dreadful prospect to conney Generalship to an office which, from a lawyer's template is that even war may not explate her But now spring days bring but an added fear int of view, is of much less importance, and makes blood-guiltiness, but that for a generation the races Of waiting, dumb expectancy and dread; way for Sir Edward Carson, the flery Ulsterman, of men will shrink from her name as at the cry who becomes Attorney General. Report says that "Unclean!" I falter, now the test has come so near Oh, how may one be brave with heart like lead? Sir John was offered the position of Lord Chancellor, but wisely-in the case of so young a AN INDUSTRIOUS CAT. The sun is higher, hotter than before -preferred to take a place that would enable (From the Philadelphia Record.) him to remain in the House of Commons. Sir Stan-ley Buckmaster, whose chief duty of late has been in the Censor's office, becomes Lord Chancellor. ful. Twill dry the ground, 'twill mark the great at-A large black cat belonging to Theouore Golder of tack; West Shester is at present making itself doubly use-I pray it cast no shadow at my door-During the day it covers a sitting of Rhode Isl-Mr. Runciman, at the Board of Trade, and Mr. Hob-house, at the Post Office, retain their place and, as The shadow that I fear-God, hold it back! morrow, nay, to-day, may move the guns, had been anticipated, Mr. Arthur Henderson, as what kind of a brood the animal will produce The buyles may be calling now in France, And England pouring out a million sons Labor's representative, goes to the Board of Edu- the eggs and whether it will care for the small ducks when they arrive or dine upon them. Mr. Asquith has succeeded in bringing together To start, to swell, to win the great advance. mest every question that occupied the attention of the at And I had but one son, just one to give-I gave the motherland a mother's all, If he should die it seems I could not live. before the outbreak of the war, these to the banks in the form of deposits $700,000,000 a en held such divergent views that united action year. as impossible. But in England to-day the war is I could not rise again if he should fall. was impossible. But in England to-day the war is the only question to be considered, and so long as their public men are ready and willing to unite in the work of carrying on the conflict to a success-the work of carrying on the conflict to a success-And yet I pray, dear God, if he must die If I must lose this only son of mine, In German soil my soldier boy shall lie ful end, the British people will not be disposed to that he should have life insurance. Beyond the Rhine, dear God. beyond the Rhine! --O. C. A. Child, in New York Times.

revive the past issues of domestic policy. The Cab-BRITISH COMMAND OF THE SEAS. inet is a strong one, and should be su coalition can succeed at all. The more statistics are studied the pomes evident that the British command Germany's Desperation.

If a nation with such claims and thoughts is found world regards as necessary to the maintenance of honor, the conclusion is forced upon one that such a policy is simply a desperate effort to so shock and orrify the enemy that they will sue for peace. True correct conception of the British character would

But the Germans, through the whole let the Germans know that such methods never can business, have shown that, with all their knowledge and so-called "kultur," they have totally failed to understand Britain or the Britons. If the German Government felt that they could ultimately succeed succeed.

abandoning every principle which the civilized

While Germany keeps up a bold front, and makes the most of any gain she may obtain at any point self, but when we remember that the net tonnage of essels registered at ports of the British Empire must on the long battle lines, the evidence accumulates 15,000,000, we can that she is hard pressed, and that she sees the probability, unless she can do something to secure an naritime preponderance. early peace, of the disastrous termination of the war into which she so recklessly entered. No one acd Great Britain from adding new strength to its nerchant marine. In the past year the merchant cuses the Germans of lack of ordinary intelligence onnage put into the from its shipyards has They have not hitherto been indifferent to the world's en thr times the total of that captured or destro -good opinion. Conceited and boastful they were, but ed by the Germans. The British navel and the Britthey were nevertheless anxious that Germany should play a part which would lead the nations of the forced.-Boston Evening Transcript world to look up to her with respect and admiration

SURE THING! (New York Sun.)

President Weismann, of the United German Sociees of Brooklyn, who offers the theory that the British carelessly allowed the Lusitania to be torpedoed in order to provoke a warlike complication between the United States and Germany, is not at all original. In some circles of superior intelligence it is believed that the Lusitania was sunk by a British submarine by irrefutable demonstration. under sealed orders from the Admiralty.

THE NORTHCLIFFE WAY.

are unpopular and that the public confidence in Kitchener cannot be shaken, the Northcliffe papers will promptly turn completely around and extol Kitchmer as the one man who can save the country. That's the Northcliffe way .- Hamilton Herald

* "A LITTLE NONSENSE NOW AND THEN"

d Johnny, "but I got 'horrible mention.'" the one-time mayor of Terre Haute probably endorses the British plan. But there was no aggression, n the theory that one term is enough for any official - threat, no claim to a better place in the sun. Ger-Lumberman.

"Come, dear," said the mother of a little four-yearld miss, "it is getting late, and you should be upstairs in bed."

"But, mamma," protested the little one, "it won't Belgium. be any earlier up there than it is down here."-Ex-

Walter was spending the summer in the country, and one afternoon accompanied his father to watch the cows being milked. so overwhelmingly superior was defeated in an ex-ceedingly short time, and had to yield considerable

"Father, where do the cows get the milk?" he innired, looking up from the foaming pail which he had been regarding thoughtfully.

"Where do you get your tears?" asked his father. After another thoughtful pause he questioned: "Do the cows have to be spanked, then?"

"Ye think a fine lot of Shakespeare?" "I do, sir," Shakespeare who wrote 'Uneasy lies the head that ten sic nonsense as that." "Nonsense, sir!" thunder-ed the other. "Ay, just nonsense. Rabbie would hae kent fine that a king or queen either dina gang to bed wi' a croon on their head. He'd have kent they hang ower the back o' a chair."

Miss Smith, the teacher, was hearing the history Cap- she?"

"Yes, ma'am," replied a little girl.

pefully. All was silent for a moment, then Elsie The United States and Canada are becoming the raised her hand.

"Yes, Elsie?" queried the teacher. "Who followed March the United States exported bread stuffs to Mary? "Her little lamb, teacher," said Elsie, triumphantly.

-Harper's Monthly.

"So you like our new house, uncle?" asked Helen, Secretaryship. He has had to handle Irish affairs period in 1914. Exports of cattle on the hoof amountas she walked to the station with her crabby old rethrough stormy times, and it is well that he should ed to $143,000,000 as compared with $115,000,000 in lative. "District's all right, very fair," grunted the be allowed to handle them now that conditions with 1914; canned beef $8,000,000, as compared with $360,amiable one as he ambled along. "That's a nice The 000; fresh beef $9,300,000, as compared with $574.000: house next door to us," went on Helen contempla-Scottish office, too, remains unchanged in the hands bacon, $31,000,000, as compared with $21,000,000. To tively. "Um!" demurred the old one. "Now, that's of Mr. McKinnon Wood. a smaller extent the same is true of Canada's export what I call a residence," he said emphatically, stopping Mr. Winston Churchill goes from the Admiralty of foodstuffs. It is a certainty that this demand will in his walk to point to a very imposing establishment. What is a set of the the the the term of term of the term of t

Since May 1st the British have pierced the seems to be no other way of making progress.

The contrast presented just now by Germany and easure the inability of Ger- Japan in regard to truthfulness, humane treatment 15,000,000, we can measure measure the mapping of our of opponents, and strict observance of contract is so striking that we cannot refrain from calling the attention to it of such of our readers as may not have been struck by the lesson which it teaches. Germany has for more than a generation been boasting of her kultur, her progress in all departments of activity, ish mercantile first lines are constantly being rein- and her undeniable claim to the highest place among nations. Japan, on the contrary, has been avoiding all kinds of pose. Having been convinced that European civilization is superior to the civilization which she followed up to about the middle of last century, she unostentatiously, and without fuss of any kind, made up her mind to adopt the higher civiliza tion and to reject the lower. She, accordingly, has been working ever since to carry out the detern

Germany entered upon this war, as everybody knows, without provocation, and even without griev nce of any kind which could be stated in reas At present the Northcliffe papers in Britain are bitterly attacking Kitchener. But make no mistake about Northcliffe. If it appears that these attacks colonies she thought necessary. Her people were emigrating in large numbers, and thereby were swell ing the populations and the strength of the British Empire and the United States. She desired to keep all her own people who could not find a satisfactory livelihood at home within her own territory, and she made up her mind to wrest, by force, from her neighbors what she deemed to be desirable for herself.

Compare with this the conduct of Japan. sent the most promising of her young men to Europe and the United States to study Western civilization It was after the distribution of prizes at a Sunday and Western methods of doing business. She adoptschool, says the New York Times. "Well, did you get a prize?" asked Johnny's mother. "No," answer-of business as she was able to in the time that elapsed. She founded schools and universities. She created So far as that six-year term in prison is concerned, So far as that six-year term in prison is concerned,

many, while good nature on the part of our own

Government allowed her to appropriate highly valuable colonies in Asia, Africa, and the Southern Seas, was not satisfied, but rushed into the present great war to deprive France of her colonies and to crush Thus preparing for a further assault upon other Powers later on. The Continental Powers misunderstood Japan, and ONE OF OUR BATTLESHIPS SEVERELY CRITIso did China and Korea. The first result was a war with China, in which the Power which seemed ferritories to the smaller Empire. France united with Russia to deprive Japan of her conquests; and Russia installed herself in Port Arthur New York as to where the lifeboats were located and the other territory evacuated by Japan. Of all the land surface that she had obtained by her strug- told her an equal number was on the other side. "But Some what later Russia went to war with her, and everybody will remember how Japan was able to obtain a friend of Russia. She therefore made no claims, in horror. everything in her power to prove that she wishes to From Town Topics.

Samoa, and elsewhere, has been hungering and thirsting for the possessions of her neighbors; has is appalling and inexcusable, when it is rememb been bullying and pin-pricking; above all, has been that it is largely preventable. "No," she said. "Mary followed Edward VI., didn't she deemed to be irresistible. When the moment to and could be with proper care. Many of them are strike came, as she thought, she broke all her own caused by the friction match, or at least inferior "And now, who followed Mary?" asked the teacher, engagements. To keep England out of the fray she grades of matches, and the commissioner believes was willing, it is true, to promise that none of France proper should be taken from her. But she was careful to make no promise that she would respect matches, or at least providing that before any bran France's right to her colonies. In regard to Belgium, of matches can be sold, the quality must be inquired although she was one of the Powers that guaranteed into and approved and a license issued, as in New its independence and neutrality, without provocation of any kind, or even the semblance of a right, she invaded Belgium, and she is treating that country tofore treated rebellious provinces.

It is unnecessary to pursue the comparison further. Every reader will be able to do that for himself. But from Carranza sources, it is probably true it may be worth while to point out how the future Cruz is in the same plight as Torreon. In fact famine seems to be foreshadowed in respect to the two. He threatens all the larger cities in Mexico. Uncle Sam would be a very foolish man who would take upon may have to feed the Mexicans as well as the Belaned strongly to the opinion that

Nebraskan resulted from contact w and not from an attack by a subm

Utah Copper opened % up at the ranced to a level above 66. The garded as an indication that the reased from $3 to $4 a share.

44%.

ons helped Chino also and that

American Can was a strong featu

ing 1/4 up at 361/4 soon advanced urgued that in the anti-Trust sui has made out only a weak case a come was likely to be favorable to Union Pacific after an initial d covered to Wednesday's closing le

New York, May 27 .- The adv

which set in at the opening was n

hough there was no material react

When the rise was checked the

and there was evidence of a firm

the part of the commission house c bull commitments pending some de

Covering of shorts was the prine

side for a turn, saying that a ma

hold up in face of such disturbing

had been encountered on Wednesda for a rally of a couple of points at Missouria Pacific was rather he was believed that the plan to exten

New York, May 27 .- By the end

e market had become very dull b eral maintained a good undertone market interests argued that the firm late was the best kind of proof of Rock Island moved off to a new le

That plans are under way for an ea

ras believed in quarters where gener

nformation on Rock Island affairs sserted that a heavy assessment we in Utah Copper and gained 11/4 by se mean an addition of about $400.00

New York, May 27.-Although t

dull, stocks preserved a good tone eading issues gave evidence of endency. It was not expected, h idvance would go far in view of u ficial Germany's attitude towards t

Missouri Pacific after selling dov

red with 12% at Wednesday's clo

11%, the decline having been larg

Now that the Gould, Rockefeller a ngs of notes have been deposited, highly probable that nearly all, if

Rock Island showed little rallying ecline to 15%, and the decline in de ew low at 421/2 tended to strengthe

a thorough reorganization. It is likely that July interest on deb nount, will be in by June 1st.

ings of Utah Copper stock.

crease of $1 a share in the Utah

ues of Guggenheim Exploration

Guggenheim Exploration responde

the Wall Street situation.

ear would prove successful.

this country's relations with Ger

very in prices, but some trade

by opening at 54.

f the first half hour.

THE MORAL ISOLATION OF GERMANY.

(New York Journal of Commerce.) It is not singular that all public opinion having any claim to be called American should unite in an expression of indignant horror over the drowning ex hibition of the dastardly cowardice and fiendish bloodthirstiness which guide the course of the Ger. man submarine. Of the unconcealed exultation such an event of people whose German blood seems to make them indifferent to any exhibition of German avagery, perhaps the less said the better The assumption that in the last forty years a new eneration of Germans had grown up, not only dif ferent in character and impulse from their fathers, but quite incapable of thinking in the same terms as men of other civilized races was scouted by impartial outsiders as absurd. But every day Urings som manifestation of German feeling that makes it sound less fantastic; every month the German Government inds some new occasion to affront the reason, conscience or the humane scruples of mankind in way inexplicable only on the theory that they have lost their senses. In any case, Germany will stand alone, more surely and completely than she has we been compelled to do because she has chosen to herself an object of execration to all the rest of the world. It is a spectacle which history may be ram sacked in vain to match, and it is the more pitiable ecause of the callous insensibility of Germans ev erywhere to the scorn and indignation of which they have made themselves the object.

CISED.

Visitors to the fleet received patient attention from the officers, no matter how silly the questions asked, but I wonder if one woman who knows her social Germany and world much better than the military as yet realizes he foolishness in asking a young flag lieutenant of the The officer motioned to some boats suspended and it does not seem to me you have enough to save your large number of men on board if you were attacked she remarked further, Again the officer replied kindly: "In time of action we clear the decks of all incumbrances. All boats are thrown overboard. W stay with the ship." "Go down with it?" she gasped "Yes, if it goes"-and then politely chan ed the subject into a remark that the New York had nore dancing space on deck than most battles

SAFETY MATCHES.

The fire waste in this State and throughout ou country is immense-much greater than in Europe. It At least two-thirds York and other places .- Insurance Cor

FACING STARVATION.

Young, of North Carolina.

While the story that General Villa was mobbed at Torreon by poor devils who were starving comes

(From the Warrenton Banner.)

New York, May 27 .- There was a lift activity following the publication f the Captain of the Nebraskan, whi no subm gles she was able to retain only Formosa. was the reply. "An' ye think he was mair clever than Rabbie Burns?" "Why, there's no comparison Since then she has been wise enough to recognise Since then she has been wise enough to recognise between them." "Maybe no; but ye tell us it was that her true policy was to do what she could to make wears a crown.' Now, Rabble would never have writ- when negotiating peace, which might rankle in the minds of the Russians, and since then she has done live as a good neighbor of Russia. Germany, on the contrary, not satisfied with the spacious territories ceded to her in Africa, in Asia, now as few sovereigns, however savage, have here-

 $\mathcal{H}_{1,\infty,\tilde{X}_{1}}$

will be dire disaster to Germany, and a loss of life ruin, reconstruction .- New York Sun. lator between the warring factions and treasure from which she will be lucky if she recovers in a whole century. While her breach of all RELIEVING THE DROUGHT IN MISSOURI. her treaty engagements, her setting at defiance of the ons of the world, her disregard of all the An eight gallon barrel of beer was unloaded at Gu principles that have hitherto restrained men's passions thrie Saturday, which the depot agent placed in the n war, have brought upon her the detestation of the wareroom until the owner called for it Some time whole world.

Japan, on the contrary, is rising every day in the rel from under the side, and, placing a tub under it during the night some one bored a hole into the bar stimation of all observers. She is faithful to her drained the barrel of its contents and made away engagements, and not aggressive. She was not called with it to draw the sword when the war began. But she felt that her alliance with England obliged her to do so, and she acted up to what seemed to her the obligation. Japan by straightforward and honorable conduct has raised herself in the world's estimation. Germany by her ferocity and malignity has lowered herself.

"FROM GENERATION TO GENERATION." Memoriam W. G. C. Gladstone, in London Times. "One gave long years, with heart and brain, One, youth's brief fiery blow, For freedom; whence the greater gain Only the high gods know.

If you are not already a Subscriber to the JOURNAL OF COMMERCE .-- the Business Man's Daily --- fill in the Coupon :

You are authorised to send me THE JOURNAL OF COMMERCE for One Year from date at a cost of Three Dollars.

the ship and indicated, therefore, th suletd from contact with a mine. on over and at noon the market enerally steady, although there was a ouri Pacific and Rock Island.

It was the general opinion that Ut been discounted and the increase nd that in case the rates were ra would probably be realizing on the g in bond circles there was considera the fact that the 5 per cent. French tly sold in this market are now and that the demand for them is smal uoted the buyer of the notes gets ? ess than eleven months, and that is xchange market conditions, for the ble in dollars as well as in francs. Canadian Pacific sold off to 1561/2. 158% at Wednesday's close on the e earnings which indicated that the 10 p not be earned in the year er ext. The stock met with support a

FIRST-CLASS

A Cornwall Manufact

writing to the "Journa

"Thank you

Journal.

First-class

Commerce" said: