

The Spice of Life.

Advertising Manager—"I don't see why you are kicking. We ran your advertisement right next to pure reading matter."

Advertiser—"Holy smoke! Do you call that scandalous breach-of-promise suit 'pure reading'?"

Mrs. Henpeck—"Is there any difference, Theodore, do you know, between a fort and a fortress?"

Mr. Henpeck—"I should imagine a fortress, my love, would be harder to silence!"

COMMISSION JOBBERY.

"Senator, you promised me a job."
"But there are no jobs."
"I need a job, Senator."

"Well, I'll ask for a commission to investigate as to why there are no jobs, and you can get a job on that."

"Don't ax the good Lawd ter send Prosperity. Let Him see you wid yo' coat off an' yo' sleeves rolled high, tryin' ter pitth Hard Times over de fence, an' Prosperity will be settin' at yo' br'akfas' table nex' mawnin', an' you needn't wonder how he got dar!"

REVERSABLE SIGN POSTS.

Tourist—"How far is it to the village of Slocum?"

Native—"Foive mile, sir. But you be walking away from it."

Tourist—"But the sign-post directed me this way!"

Native—"Ah, yes! But we've 'ad all the sign-posts turned round, to fool the Zeppelins."

HIS GREATEST FEAT.

A correspondent of the New York Sun quotes a remarkable tribute of a negro preacher to a white preacher who had consented to occupy the black brother's pulpit one Sunday. He said "Dis noted divine is one of de greatest men of de age. He knows de unknowable, he kin do de undoable, an' he kin onscrow de onscrutable!"

NEUTRAL ROOSTER.

A British soldier in Belgium was one morning wending his way to camp with a fine rooster in his arms when he was stopped by his colonel to know if he had been stealing chickens.

"No, colonel," was the reply; "I saw the old fellow sitting on the wall and I ordered him to crow for England, and he wouldn't, so I just took him prisoner."

An old Scotchman had been ill for a long time, and it was agreed by the family that the minister should be called in. When he came he told the old man he would have to leave his worldly cares aside and prepare for that terrible visitor, who was waiting at the door. "And who's that, minister?" "That greatest enemy of ours—Death." "What a fright ye gien me. Aw thocht it wis the wife's mother!"

One evening the young minister who had seemed rather attracted by "Big Sister" Grace, was dining with the family. "Little Sister" was talking rapidly when the visitor was about to ask the blessing. Turning to the child he said in a tone of mild reproof: "Laura, I am going to ask grace." "Well, it's about time," answered "Little Sister" in an equally reproving tone. "We've been expecting you to do it for a year, and she has too."

He came into the grocery store and in about two minutes his new seven-dollar trousers had wiped up a large quantity of fresh paint. He made an awful fuss and the proprietor came bustling forward.

"It's your own fault," said the grocery man un sympathetically. "Didn't you see that sign, 'Fresh paint'?"

"Yes," said the victim peevishly. "I saw it, but I didn't believe it."

"You didn't believe it? Why not?"

"Well, I didn't believe it because I come in so often and see something marked 'fresh' that isn't fresh."
