

LABOR DAY PROGRAM AT BELLEVILLE FAIR

Fine weather greeted the opening of Belleville's annual fall fair on Labor Day at Agricultural Park. The atmospheric conditions were perfect for a most successful event.

Yesterday's crowd was not as large as has been on the grounds in the past. Perhaps the fact that the day was a holiday and many went from the district to take in the Canadian National Exhibition at Toronto, told against a bumper attendance.

Eight o'clock on Monday morning saw the gates thrown open for the exhibits. Until one o'clock the gatekeepers were kept fairly busy admitting exhibitors with their entries.

Mayor Platt started the ball rolling by formally declaring the 1918 fair open. In the course of a short address he referred to the production by the farmers as of the utmost importance particularly in these days of war, and paid tribute to the heroic men of the merchant marine who are keeping the sea courses open for ships and the allied and neutral world fed with the necessities of life.

The 15th hand played God Save the King after which Rev. Rural Dean Swayne of Christ Church spoke at some length in explanation of the work of the merchant sailors and the campaign of the Canadian Navy League to raise funds to assist the sailor cause.

with sheaves of spring and fall wheat, barley, oats and rye. The poultry shed contains many fine birds of various classes. The entries were not so numerous as in past years.

Among the heavy stock exhibitors were N. Vornilysa & Sons in Percheron horses, G. Collins & Son in Jersey cattle, A. E. Phillips in Holsteins, Durham and Ayrshires were shown. Mr. A. Martin had a good line of sheep and Messrs R. J. and R. J. Garbutt many fine hogs.

The R.T. of T. Trench Workers and the West Belleville War Workers and many others had booths on the grounds providing refreshments. The Canadian Navy League's local branch had a tent on the grounds for selling refreshments and for receiving contributions to the Sailors' Fund.

The war exhibit from Beaverton did not come. Secretary R. H. Ketcheson having received word that a part of the display had been destroyed by fire at Beaverton.

Serene Parks Wa Committed

For Trial on Theft Charge—Others Remanded For Sentence. Serene Parks, a young Bannockburn resident, was Friday afternoon committed for trial in Magistrate Masson's court on the charge of having entered a building owned by Mr. Hunter near Bannockburn with intent to steal and of having stolen certain articles and grain. Parks was granted bail.

Evidence was given by Alex. W. Hunter, son of the owner of the shanty and by Murray Wannamaker Wannamaker stated that Parks was with him when the building was entered and robbed. The articles were moved on the 20th of August, and Wannamaker thought he told Parks something about where they came from but could not say. On the night of the 20th Wannamaker, an absentee from the army and Parks slept in the open at the edge of a marsh.

Wannamaker also testified that he and Parks took some fruit and butter from Mrs. Lloyd's by night. Magistrate Masson, after committing Parks, remanded the confessed youths—Wannamaker and George Reid, for sentence.

Mr. A. Abbott defended Parks and Crown Attorney Carnew prosecuted.

Memorial for Fallen Members

OF ORANGE LODGES OF BELLEVILLE—THREE HAVE PAID THE PRICE. A deeply impressive memorial service for those members of the Loyal Orange Association who have fallen in the fight for freedom in France, was held Sunday evening at Christ Church, Rev. Rural Dean W. G. Swayne, rector, officiating. The brethren of the two local lodges, L.O.L. 274 and L.O.L. 2519, attended the memorial in a body to pay the tribute of respect to their fallen brethren. The service was an adaptation of cremation and the order for the burial of the dead.

Three local brethren have paid the price—Capt. W. H. Hudson, of L.O.L. 2519, and Ptes. Fred Cobourne and Ernest C. Brown, of L.O.L. 274. Those who have served or are serving overseas are: L.O.L. No. 274—Pte. Fred Cobourne, Pte. Ernest Brown, Pte. Stanley Brown, Pte. J. R. Carr, Pte. Robt. J. McCoy, Pte. Willis Dennison, Pte. Arthur McCoy, Pte. Geo. H. Barlow, Pte. Ernest G. Fleming, Pte. Chas. W. Thompson, Pte. Braden Anderson, Pte. Fred Clarke, Pte. Norman Price, Pte. Ernest A. V. Carr.

L.O.L. No. 2519—Pte. Jose. Pte. Jacobs, Pte. H. A. Rogers, Pte. R. A. Rogers, Lt. Col. A. P. Allen, Lt. Col. M. K. Adams, Major A. C. McFee, Major Proctor, Captain W. H. Hudson, Captain Fay Willis, Capt. B. L. Hyman, Capt. Percy Gene, Lieut. H. A. Fish, Lieut. E. A. Geen, Bombardier Ed. Blaylock, Pte. A. Ray, Lieut. Roger Porter, Wireless Operator W. Harold Reid.

The music for the service was particularly fitting, the hymns being "Holy, Holy, Holy!", "O Lord Our Banner, God of Might" and "Through the Night of Doubt and Sorrow"; the organist, Mrs. (Col.) Campbell, playing at the close "The Dead March in Saul."

Rev. Rural Dean Swayne's address was based on the words: "Be ye steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord." His theme was sacrifice. He showed how Christ was slain for others. The whole world travails and groeth. Man was unable to enter into communion with a God, because of sin. But Christ, by the sacrifice of the law, and the Resurrection is the key-stone of the Christian faith.

We see everything of importance in the world is bought by sacrifice. We did not in this happy land enjoy the full blessings God had provided. They seemed the commonplace. That we may prize them, we are called upon to defend them at great cost. This has been brought about by our arch enemy, the Devil, entering into the hearts of men. We look upon the German Emperor and Empire as the symbol of tyranny. So they are. But are the combines much more considerate towards those depending on them? Look at the man who corners the market. No matter how the poor squirm, they must pay the price or starve.

Thank God many men were ready to defend the principles of righteousness when the hordes of Germany aspired to overrun the world. Can we call any sacrifice too great in order that victory may be won? Is it not a noble death to die defending the principles for which Christ died as well as to defend the liberty of the world? Never has there been a more righteous cause.

The rector congratulated the Order on the answer its members gave to the call of duty, 10,000 almost, having responded. Of these, about 6,000 have fallen. Surely the love of God, working in the hearts of men, as demonstrated by these soldiers, is something to be proud of.

People are Spending Their Surplus Money With No Thought of a Rainy Day. Toronto, Sept. 3.—In his speech at the directors' luncheon on the occasion of Press day in the Canadian National Exhibition, W. S. Taylor, president of the Canadian Press Association, deplored the fact that in these days of easy money and high earnings, the great masses of the Canadian people are spending their surplus with no thought of the rainy day that will come with the end of the war.
