

HE TELLS MRS. EDDY THAT SHE NEEDS A GUARDIAN

George D. Glover Writes That Judging From Her Actions Mrs. Eddy Is Either Irresponsible or Is Wrongly Advised.

CONCORD, May 15.—In the affidavit filed by Mr. Shandler, senior counsel for the plaintiffs in the Eddy suit, the most interesting feature is the letter of George D. Glover to Mrs. Eddy dated Washington, D. C., February 23, 1907. The letter is addressed, "My dear Mother," and begins as follows:

"For many years I have thought that persons to whom you had given your confidence and who had surrounded you and taken complete charge of your affairs are not deserving of such faith as you appear to have in them and such favor as they assume in your name."

"But until now I have not found myself in condition to do anything whatever to inquire into or to try to remedy any wrongs done by them."

"Various notions of yours seemed strange to me, especially when you said that you believed that your students and the men who gave you that pair of beautiful horses wanted them to run away and kill you; that men had broken into the house and stolen your will; that the will was missing when you went to look for it in the place where you had put it, and that you on the same day made another will and placed it in Mr. Streeter's strong place, you not remembering Mr. Streeter's name until I suggested it."

"The letter then tells of the return to Washington from Concord of Mr. Glover and his daughters and of alleged efforts of Mr. Farlow and of Mr. Tomlinson of the Christian Science Church, to secure from Mr. Glover letters which had been sent him by his mother."

"On January 7th," says the letter, "came to me Mr. Mattax, Mr. Farlow's secretary with a bundle of papers, among them one written by Mr. Strains about my early life and saying that when I was wounded in the army and carried off in a stretcher, suddenly I said I was all right and ran off instantly cured. This he wished me to verify. I asked him to show the papers and said I would consider his request. He would not do this."

"The next thing that happened was the coming of a letter that was dated Concord, January 11, and signed with your name, saying 'the enemy to Christian Science is by the wickedest powers of hypnosis trying to do me all the harm possible by acting on the minds of people to make them lie about me and my family,' and asking me to send you by express all the letters you had ever written to me, and assuring me that if I could do so you would give me and Mary presents of value."

"After telling of other letters which he received, while in Washington signed by Mrs. Eddy, and directing him to give up the letter and of a visit, alleged to have been made to him in Washington by Mr. Farlow, who, Mr. Glover declares, "pressed me to obey my mother and go instantly to South Dakota and give Mr. Tomlinson the letters, which trip of over 1800 miles I declined to make so suddenly."

"You can imagine how strange these letters seem to me in connection with the fact that I have been recently informed of letters written long ago in which you expressed a belief that malicious animal magnetism as your enemy was influencing me into hostility to you and that even your Boston lawyers were thus influenced and that you could not trust them to do your business."

"If you are allowed to receive and are able to read and understand this letter you will not wonder at my suspicions caused especially by your two contradictory letters, the notice to stay away and the invitation to come; Mr. Tomlinson's visit; the painful interview we had with you and the revisions, Mr. Mattax's visit, the letters written to Lead, and Mr. Tomlinson's trip there when he knew I was here, the demands for the letters and the reasons given and last, Mr. Farlow's trip with two more letters to force me to go home. If the letter I have last spoken of, so putting me under malicious animal magnetism, that I am hostile to you, was written by you, there is no end to my wonderment and suspicions."

"If all these letters written and all of these things done in your name are really yours, surely you are not in condition to write letters and do business properly. If they are not yours, but are letters written and things done by other people in your name, the case is worse; and you and your large property and income, all handled and managed in your name, need careful attention."

tried by the jury already selected. In pleading guilty he made an impressive address to the judge, stating that he had commenced his career in politics with high ideals for himself and for the city, but that conditions had broken him down and he now desired only an opportunity to make reparation and restore his character before the world.

When he concluded his address he fell back into his chair, almost fainting, and the tears coursed down his cheeks.

"His health, he said, could not endure the strain of the trial which he was facing, and the torture was beyond the endurance of those who were nearest and dearest to him."

Judge Dunne, at the termination of Ruef's address made no comment, except to continue the case two weeks for sentence.

Committed by Dead Clerk — Clergymen Are Getting After the Railways.

WOODSTOCK, May 15.—The local branch of the Lord's Day Alliance had called a mass meeting for Sunday afternoon in the reformed church. An interesting sequel to the tragedy of the young man from Amherst, who was found dead in the Fredericton lock-up recently was enacted today in the police court before Magistrate Tibbles. It seems that the young man had been working in Harland as a drug clerk, and getting wind of the fact that the Scott Act Inspector had been in the village working up a case against him, hurriedly left town, intending to go to Fredericton Junction, or some other point until the thing blew over or was settled. This morning the proprietor of the business, while denying all personal knowledge or interest, says that he has seen the case proceed, acknowledged the corn in two cases, and paid the fines and costs.

Those interested in base ball are very hopeful of a good season for the sport. For the past year or two the town has not had a representative team, but the prospect is good for a renewal of interest. Arrangements have been made with the owner of Rogers' Island and the 25th band for the laying out of a diamond on the north of the island, which is just in the river opposite the town, and this year for the first time, the opening match will take place on Victoria Day, when the local team will meet the fast Houston aggregation.

The county medical men are summoned to meet here on the 21st inst. for the purpose of forming a county medical society and to revise the schedule of fees.

Callaghan Bros. are to put on a good day's racing on Dominion Day. They have announced three classes, a 2.25, 2.28 and a farmers' class, in which event the horse must be owned and driven by a bona fide farmer. Generous purses are to be hung up. John Tattersall, until recently chief of the fire department, has resigned his position with Grant's carriage factory, and started up for himself in the Caldwell block in King street.

Woodstock's local wholesale drug firm, The Baird Co., have outgrown their present quarters, and will take a lease of the whole of the Vanwart brick block in King street, thereby about doubling their floor space. They are also putting more men on the road. E. W. Mafr, the new general manager, seems to be making a great success of the firm.

VIOLENT FORM OF ITCHING PILES.

Rev. S. A. Duprau, Methodist minister, Belleville, Ont., writes: "I was troubled with piles for years, and they ultimately attained a very violent form. Large lumps or abscesses gathered and I suffered great pain. A single box of Chase's Ointment cured me and saved me from a very dangerous and painful operation. The lumps and swelling disappeared and I am an entirely different man."

From here the party would go to St. John by boat, visiting the commercial metropolis of the province.

GRADUATING REGATIL.

SACKVILLE, May 15.—Beethoven hall was filled to overflowing last evening, the attraction being the graduating regatta of Miss Mabel Gert-hall, reader, Sackville. The hall was tastefully decorated with red and white bunting and potted plants. Miss Dixon delighted the audience with three numbers, each of which was beautifully rendered. Her rendition of the "Rescue of Lydia" was exceptionally fine. She was assisted by the University quartette, Messrs. Black, Davidson, Outbridge and Westmoreland, who rendered two vocal numbers very effectively. Miss Dixon was presented with two handsome bouquets.

GENERAL SUPPORT FOR FAST EMPIRE TRANSPORT SERVICE TO THE COLONIES

Held Essential that Atlantic Line Must be Independent of All Railway Systems — Sir Thomas Shaughnessy Approves of the Scheme if it Does Not Cost More than it is Worth — Winston Churchill's Denial.

LONDON, May 15.—Regarding the statement that Sir Robert Bond had declared at the conference that a gross humiliation had been inflicted upon him and other representatives of the colonies, Winston Churchill said in the house of commons that as he had learned that the statement had been cabled fully to the colonies, it became necessary for him to state that the report from beginning to end was baseless and an imprudent fabrication. There was nothing in the statement that bore the slightest resemblance of form to what took place at the conference.

Premiers Laurier, Ward and Bond were today presented with the freedom of the city of Bristol, and afterwards visited the docks at Avonmouth. Bristol advocates its claim as a terminal port, while Liverpool hopes, if subsidies are to be given for a line between Liverpool and Canada that one of the existing mail lines will be favored and that no new line will be brought into existence, as competition is already keen enough.

Laurier, Borden and Hon. and Madame Byrdie attended a reception given by the Japanese ambassador. Borden attended the annual meeting of the Y. M. C. A. and in the course of an address said that the way to consolidate the empire was by bringing the people of its component parts into touch.

Lord Cheylesmore, chairman of the National Rifle Association, speaking to the Canadian Associated Press, expressed his regret that owing to the fact that the trip of the Empress from Canada and Australia will occupy four months he will be unable to accompany them.

Col. Cross, secretary of the N. E. A., states that the date for the Empire trophy competition at Ottawa has been fixed for September 6 and the Empire match at Sydney, Australia, October 29.

In authoritative Anglo-Canadian circles the assent of the British government to the scheme of the Empire fast mail service is spoken of as already assured. The official report of yesterday's proceedings at the Imperial conference gives an inadequate notion of the warmth of the support given by Deakin and Ward on behalf of Australia and New Zealand, though they insisted upon the necessity and are willing to pay proportionately for at least an eighteen knot service between Vancouver and Australia. In that case the Canadian Pacific Expresses now on the Japan route, being only thirteen knot boats, would not suffice for the Australasian service, but would have to be replaced by faster steamers, which would have to be built. New Zealand, which now gives $200,000 of the subsidy to the extent of half a million dollars. The Empress of Ireland and Empress of Britain might, it is thought, be an effective link in the Empire's service on the North Pacific.

DEPARTMENT AFTER DEALERS WHO SOLD OLEOMARGARINE FOR BUTTER; GEOLOGICAL SURVEY ARRANGEMENTS

OTTAWA, Ont., May 15.—Firm assurances are to be had with eight dealers who were recently found to be selling oleomargarine for butter. Inspectors of the inland revenue department found six dealers in the city of Quebec and two in Montreal who sold them oleomargarine instead of butter.

This is a violation of two acts, one of which forbids adulteration or substitution in food and the other forbids the manufacture or sale of oleomargarine in Canada. Proceedings are to be taken against the eight dealers, on both provisions of the law.

This is the first oleomargarine which has been found on the Canadian market for a long time. It is believed that it was brought in either from the United States or Newfoundland, in both of which places its manufacture is tolerated. It is forbidden in Canada for the protection of the butter industry.

For the season's work of the geological survey all arrangements have been made and several of the field parties have already left for the scene of their operations. The others will be dispatched without delay.

Dr. Ellis will continue the revision of the geology of southern New Brunswick, while Mr. Roberts will make St. John the base of his field of survey operations.

In Nova Scotia Mr. Fletcher will investigate geological conditions in Kings, Annapolis, Digby and Cumberland counties. Dr. Fairbairn will continue the survey of the gold-bearing rocks in Lunenburg and Queens counties. Mr. Young will investigate the granites and other eruptive rocks in Nova Scotia with special reference to the occurrence of tin and other valuable minerals.

Special investigations will be carried on by E. D. Ingalls into the copper resources of eastern Canada.

Dr. Ami will collect fossils in Nova Scotia and New Brunswick to determine geological horizons.

Today the Canadian Land Mark Historic Association was formed by the English and French literary sections of the Royal Society. The object is the preservation of buildings and landmarks in Canada which have historical associations. In support of the movement Dr. Burwash declared that there had long been discussion of historical sites in Canada. An instance was the old fort at Toronto, which is used as a pork packing establishment. Officers for the new association were elected as follows:

Visitor, Earl Grey; hon. vice president, Sir Wilfrid Laurier; secretaries, Col. Crutkings and Benjamin Sulte; vice presidents, Mr. Casgrain and Dr. Burwash.

LIVERPOOL, May 15.—The death is announced of A. P. Moonhouse, general manager of the Cunard S. S. Company.
