The celebration of the 29th anniversary of the Colborne St. Methodist Sabbath School, was brought to a close last evening, when the annual Sabbath School entertainment was presented before one of the largest audiences ever assembled in the church for such an event. In songs and musical numbers, recitations and drills, a most pleasant evening was passed, the program proving to be by far the most successful ever yet presented.

The first section of the program was in the hands of the Primary Class, taught by Miss Willoughby and Miss Thompson, and included the following numbers:—

Chorus, "Love's Voices" Class; recitation, "A Secret"; Clarence Harrison; Song, "Keep the Home Fires Burning"; George Huff; recitation, "Moving"; Elizabeth Baker; song, "I Love you Canada" Jack Hutchinson; recitation, "I am glad I am a little ruff"; Winona Zavitz; song, "Be good as you can be"; Audrey House; exercise, "Our Dollies" Ruth Lamb; Grace Warrick, Doroth Cowherd, Marion Moraythe, Evelyn Hutton, Winona Zavitz, Elsie Drone.

The little ones having thus contributed their share toward the evening's entertainment, the second part of the program was next presented by the intermediate class, as follows:

Exercise, "Coming through the Rye" Miss Redford's Class; piano solo, John Warrick; swing song, Miss Walton's Class; recitation, "Seeing Things" Fred Jones; flower exercise, Mrs. Louden's class; song, Robt. Westbrook; Military discipline, Miss Maymie Walton's class; chorus, Mrs. Fry's class; ring drill, Miss Avey's class and Ida Bell Clark; cornet solo, Charles Leeming; wreath of flowers, Miss Wainie's class; recitation, "Spring on the Farm"; Margaret Reid; drill, Miss Eacrett's class and Pearl Lamb, Marjorie Kingdom.

The third and closing part of the program was most capably rendered by the senior classes, which presented the following numbers.

Violin solo, Will Yeates; pantomime "My Faith looks up to you," Mrs. Hutchinson's Class; recitation, Mrs. Smith; violin duet, Alice Brooks and Edith Sanderson; "The New Professor" the H. H. Class.

Then followed the distribution of prizes won during the year for regular attendance.

Those securing prizes for regular attendance included Vera Poulton, 3 years; Roy Riddols, 7 years; Lorne Kiddols, 7 years and Douglas Hutton, 5 years.

Vera Poulton mentioned above as having the remarkable record of eight years without a miss, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Poulton, 108 Park Ave.
