LOCAL NEWS.

Mr. Walter Gates is home from Worcester, Mass., on a ten day's visit to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Gates, Kentville.

At the Canning United Baptist Church on Sunday evening the initial service of the new Ladies Choir will take place. Rev. A. J. Prosser will preach at this service.

Rev. A. J. Prosser will preach at Upper Canard, Sunday morning at 11 a. m. at Sheffield Mills at 3.15 p. m. and at Canning at 7.30 p. m.

Sergt. Major Earl Townsend and wife of Halifax, Lance Corporal G. E. Talbot of the 193rd and Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Purdy of Truro spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. George F. Talbot, Onslow Station.

Mrs. Adelia Nichols who has been confined to her bed about three months is now improving some in health but the gain is very slow. She is unable as yet to answer the correspondence of her many friends who have written her or who make inquiries about her.

Rev. W. P. Robertson, rector of St. John's, got a day or two at East River, Sheet Harbor, last week and was fortunate enough to kill one of our fine Atlantic Salmon—Salmo Salar—the liveliest fish in the world under rod and line. The rector landed this, his first salmon, that weighed 11 pounds in 85 minutes.—Truro News.

The Grand Farmer's Excursion to Experimental Station, Kentville, on Wednesday next will be one of the enjoyable events of the season. This will be a splendid opportunity for our farmers to hear leading Dominion agriculturists on topics of interest. This excursion is timely and of much importance. Pleasing features will be music by military bands, and the opportunity to visit Alder-shot Camp.

Rev. A. J. Prosser of Canard is not only an able preacher and pastor but is an enthusiastic and intelligent agriculturist. His garden shows that he knows how to grow vegetables to have them ready for the table very early in the season. One of the cabbage in his plot already measures 34 1/4 inches across the head from tip to tip of leaves.

Miss Jean Hardy, of Kentville, presided at the organ at St. Andrew's Church at the evening service yesterday, with conspicuous success. This talented young lady, who is a student at Normal College, shows great promise from a musical standpoint, having passed with distinction the senior grade examination of McGill University in Pianoforte playing.—Truro News.

Miss Gwendoline Fullerton, daughter of Dr. Fullerton of Port Williams, returned from New York on Saturday last, where she has just completed a post graduate course at Columbia University, and had the distinction of receiving the degree of M. A. after attendance at the University of only one year. Miss Fullerton graduated at Acadia in the class of 1911 receiving the degree of B. A. with honors. A year latter she received, also from Acadia the degree of M. A.
