KENTVILLE AND GANNING

ST. JAMES' CHURCH

The services last Sunday and Christmas Day were very interesting and instructive. The Carol Service on Sunday evening was very bright and delighted those who were privileged to hear it. The Christmas Day music, especially the Te Deum Jubilate and the Anthem were of an exceptionally high order. The Christmas music will be repeated Sunday morning and evening, Dec. 31st at the evening service additional music will be rendered. At this service special messages will be given in accordance with the request of the Archbishop and in line with the work which the Anglican Church throughout the Empire is taking up as well as on the lines of the National Service Commission. Try and be in Church on this last Sunday of the year and join in the hearty prayers for God's guidance in the great struggle through which we are passing. At 11.15, Sunday evening, there will be held a watch night service followed by the Holy Communion after twelve o'clock.
