On Saturday evening a test of the village fire engine was made, and incidentally Main street, from Victoria to Elgin, was thoroughly sprinkled. It took fifteen or twenty minutes to get Old Invincible in humor for business, but after that a good stream was thrown. If the engine had been brought out to fight fire, just what would have happened in those fifteen or twenty minutes can be only conjectured. It is evident that the engine requires to be overhauled and placed in a condition for immediate service.

The Delineator For August

A wealth of suggestions for the newest Summer gowns is to be found in the August Delineator, which is interesting not only from the standpoint but for the reading as well. Among the fiction of the number is the second instalment of "The Chauffeur and the chaperon," the delightful motor boat romance by the Williamsons, authors of many automobile stories, also two entertaining short stories by Carroll Watson Rankin and Marvin Dana. Carolyn Wells contributes the "Rubaiyat of Summer Kibayam," written in her inimitable style. Clara E. Laughlin tells the story of the life of Rembrandt whose pictures are held invaluable in the world's best collection of art, and Gustav Kobbe writes of the famous civil war song of the south, "Dixie" and its composer, Dan Emmet, the old minstrel. In the Campaign for Safe Foods, Mrs. Abel contributes a chapter on The Market Inspector and Buyer," which concludes this series of notable articles. There are numerous articles devoted to the interests of the home;—The Kitchen, the House Furnishing, Needle work and Dress-making; and the children's pages include a variety of features having for their purpose the entertainment of the young folks.
