LIGHTNING'S PRANKS

It Causes a most Peculiar Street Car Accident at Toledo.

Toledo, O., July 30.—Eleven or more people were injured in a street car accident last night, one, Mrs. Ott, fatally and two others very seriously. Three of them were slight and their names were not learned.
The accident was a peculiar one. A blinding flash of electricity followed by a cloud of smoke and cries of injured passengers as they were tumbled into the street, attracted the attention of belated passersby. The injuries are of such a character, that they are in every instance extremely painful.

The car was provided with the usual two-light circuit, but the crew are of the opinion that during yesterday's storm lightning struck the short circuit and cut it out.
This left but one circuit protected with the connecting wires subject to a cut-out or an over-charge of electricity. Just how the explosion occurred is not known, but the circuit fuse blew out with a crash, the car was instantly filled with the lurid flashes of electric fluid, and cries of pain and astonishment were followed by men and women falling over each other out of the car.

BASBALL.

There are nine sad-faced and melancholy young men wandering around this office today, who are beginning to realize that baseball cannot be played on last year's reputation and no practice. The Planet team captured the city league championship in 1900 it will be remembered, and when last Saturday the Schizocarpus local nine who have been cleaning up in these parts of late —challenged them, they forthwith jumped into their uniforms, waltzed onto the diamond and—learned a few things.

Of course on the Schizocarpus' team they did not expect to meet two ex-international leaguers in the persons of Klock, of the Chatham, and Thompson, of the Fort Huron, or one or two other gentlemen whose position on the High school team might be open to question—but let that pass. The Planet team was defeated mainly through their inability to hit Miller, their erstwhile comrade, who pitched a phenomenal game, and their aptitude for misjudgments and error-making. They early gave up the struggle and their pitchers saved themselves by tossing up for the opposing batsmen to make merry with.

However, Captain Brackin has the right idea. He calls for practice before further contests, and if the Planet representatives get properly in shape, he will ask for another game, when the Schizocarpus may be assured of getting a good run for their money.

The young lad, who did the tallying for our opponents, registered the struggle as follows:

Modern and Up-to-date Facilities.

We possess all the modern and up-to-date facilities necessary for conducting a reliable and first-class drug business. When you favor us with your doctor's prescription, our best efforts are directed to make that prescription what your medical adviser intended it should be—professionally correct in the minutest details.

Paine's Celery Compound is giving marvellous results to sick people all over Canada. The wonderful cures effected by Paine's Celery Compound during the past year speaks volumes in favor of the great medicine. Thousands who suffered from rheumatism, neuralgia, nervous troubles and dyspepsia now sing the praises of the medicine that brought a speedy cure and gave them health and strength.

Science and Skill.

The progressive druggist should be thoroughly conversant with the science of the profession he follows and skilled in its minutest details. We are practical chemists and druggists; our dispensing department is so managed and fitted up that accuracy is continually guaranteed. We respectfully solicit a visit.

For the Weak and Run-down.
We call especial attention to Paine's Celery Compound, our best selling medicine. It is a true health and strength restorer for weak and rundown people. It gives that buoyancy of spirits and nerve energy that are so needed in the hot and depressing summer. Paine's Celery Compound stands far above all other remedies for the cure of disease.

Swallowed His Destination.

A Clevelandder who made a trip to Washington says that much as he was impressed by the beauty and grandeur of the national capital and its surroundings, the thing he will remember longest was a remark he heard made by a colored deckhand on one of the handsome boats that take daily trips up and down the Potomac.

These boats stop at many of the picturesque little Virginia and Maryland river towns that dot the banks of the historic river and take freight shipments to and from Washington. One of the things shipped from one of the Clevelandder rode on was a goat of the sort that delights the average small boy. The Clevelandder was wandering about the boat, interested in the differences between the Potomac river boat and the Lake Erie craft, with which he was familiar, when he noticed the colored deckhand standing almost motionless before the goat.
The goat was tied to one of the supports of the upper deck. He was scratching his head and apparently very much puzzled.

"What's the matter?" the Cleveland-der asked the deckhand.

"Why," answered the colored man, "de goat done eat up whar he gwine to."

The Bitter Bit.

"See that party with the jag sitting in the corner of the car?" said a conductor who was riding to the car barns in a Zoo and Eden park car to the conductor in charge of the car.

"Yep. He's got a heavy bundle," was the answer.

"Well, take this counterfeit half dollar with you when you collect his fare.
A passenger passed it on me a month ago. If he gives you a dollar, you can show it on him."

The conductor of the car took the lead half dollar, entered the car, and the man with the jag held out a silver dollar and received the counterfeit half and 45 cents in change.

"Worked like a charm," said the conductor as he reached the platform.
"Here he comes now. He wants to get off."

The drunken man wobbled to the door and unsteadily descended from the car.

"Now we'll split up," remarked the conductor of the car as he drew the dollar from his pocket. And as both of the conductors gazed at the silver dollar they gasped in unison: "We're up ag'in it! It's a counterfeit dollar."

Baleena Eating Elephant.

Stark naked savages, with long, greased plaits of hair hanging down to their shoulders, were perched on every available inch of the carcass, hacking away with knives and spears, yelling, cursing and munching, covered with blood and entrails; old men, young men, prehistoric hags, babies, one and all gorged or gorging, smearing themselves with blood, laughing and fighting. Pools of blood, strips of hide, vast bones, blocks of meat, individuals who had dined not wisely but too well lay round in bewildering confusion, and in two short hours all was finished. Nothing remained but the great gaunt ribs, like the skeleton of a ship's wreck, and a few disconsolate vultures perched thereon.—E. S. Grogan Before the Royal Geographical Society.
