Happy at Last

Her Husband no longer gets Intoxicated—Samarina Taster's Remedy Cured Him.
This lady says: "For the first time since I have been married I can be happy and content—my husband is cured of his bad habit of drinking. Several months ago you sent me a free sample of your remedy at my request, and without my husband's knowledge I gave it to him in his tea and food.
I then got a full treatment and gave it regularly. It is wonderful, and I cannot sufficiently thank you for the blessed change it has brought to my home."

EARLY SPRING

Local Signs Multiply But Ex-Mayor
Cowan Takes the Lead

The recent articles which have appeared in The Planet, in reference to the unusual signs of an early spring, have evidently placed a number of citizens on the qui vive for sena-tional evidence of the fact that the beautiful Canadian winter is a matter of ancient history.
While riding down to Detroit the other day G. K. Atkinson, the well-known insurance man, saw two farmers plowing, and while in Detroit he saw an up-to-date ex-Canadian industriously at work mowing the grass on his lawn. He also saw a stock of duck and geese in Lake St.
Chair.
The prize, however, falls to the lot of ex-Mayor Geo. W. Cowan.
That bustling shoe merchant always had a keen eye, but no one ever thought that it was so penetrating that he would be found seeing things.
"You know," said that gentleman,
"I did not believe all those stories about live frogs that I read in The Planet, but now I am ready to believe everything, and I apologize for ever doubting the accuracy of the Great Home Journal."
"I was sitting down reading The Planet Monday night when I felt an itching sensation on my wrist. Looking down I saw a live mosquito, which I promptly killed—and, if you doubt me, here it is."
Here the genial ex-Mayor produced a pocket note book with a dead mosquito pressed between two of the leaves. The appearance of the insect made the reporter horribly suspicious that it had been dead about six months, and he almost recognized it as one of the Eau du Nord. Silence is golden, however, especially when one is talking to a "fighting" ex-Mayor, so the scribe merely looked surprised, made an interested note, and then passed on.

Better Than Spanking

Spanking does not cure children of bed-wetting. There is a constitutional cause for this trouble. Mrs.
M. Summers, Box 4, Windsor, Ont., will send free to any mother her successful home treatment, with full instructions. Send no money, but write her to-day if your children trouble you in this way. Don't blame the child: the chances are it can't help it. This treatment also cures adults and aged people troubled with urine difficulties by day or night.

Didn't Know He Was Missing.
Perth, Jan. 24.—The body of John MacLaren, who left his home in Dalhousie Nov. 23, to visit his brother in Burgess, eight miles away, was found in a swamp, one-half mile from that place, yesterday. Through neglect and delay in correspondence, it was not until a week ago that his relatives realized that he was missing. He was 75 years of age.
