A group of women of the Roman aristocracy inspired by the Pope's recent pronouncement against immodest and immoral women's fashions, are preparing to begin a nation-wide campaign in favor of modesty in apparel, says the Epoca of Rome. The movement which will be carried out in all the largest cities of Italy and which will be supported by the ecclesiastical authorities, has the secondary purpose of freeing the nation from the domination of foreign fashions. The campaigners are bringing pressure to bear both on the women and the manufacturers of wearing apparel. The Pope recently expressed keen interest in the plan and conferred with the Cardinals and Countess Rossi-Ruggi on the subject.

THE BEST TOWN

There are fancier towns than our little town, there are towns that are bigger than this, and the people who live in the smaller towns don't know what excitement they miss. There are things you see in the wealthier towns that you can't in a town that's small; and yet, up and down, there is no other town like our little town after all. It may be that the streets aren't long, they're not wide nor maybe straight, but the neighbors you know in your own little town all welcome a fellow-it's great.

In the glittering streets of the glittering town, with its palace and pavement and thrall, in the midst of the throng you will frequently long for your own little town after all. If you live and you work in your own little town, in spite of the fact that it's small, you find it a fact that our own little town is the best little town after all.

SECRETIVE, IN A WAY

A Hiberian lady, being brought to court charged with assault upon a neighbor, pleaded not guilty. The prosecutor leaped forward, shot his finger in her face, and shouted: "If we prove you guilty, as we will do, will you tell us why you committed this offense?" "I will not!" retorted the defendant hotly; "I had me own reasons."

A Good Way to Get the New Novels

WITH COMPARATIVELY LITTLE OUTLAY

You would like to be able to read the new novels—early—before they come out in book form—just as the publishers do? Why, of course! Well, you can do just about that.

Nowadays eight of ten of the new novels run serially in the popular magazines before being published in book form. "Cosmopolitan" carries six or seven a year by best-selling authors, "Good Housekeeping" and others, three or four each.

Do you see? That means that for a subscription to "Good Housekeeping" you get at least three novels, besides all the other stories, articles and helpful information.

We place subscriptions to "Good Housekeeping", "Cosmopolitan", any magazine. We save you time, postage, worry. Isn't that worth asking us about?
