Count Your Blessings

Bold thing to say, and at this particular time, and besides I only wanted to wish you a MERRY CHRISTMAS, but duty intervened and in order to make as good a showing as possible on Jan. 2 I will not start to count my blessings—take stock right after Christmas, as I always have done, but a week later instead that I may turn all the goods possible into cash and will sell anything in the store at a LIBERAL DISCOUNT DURING THE FIVE WORKING DAYS OF NEXT WEEK.

With many thanks for all your past favors and BEST WISHES FOR A MERRY CHRISTMAS.

PERTH NOTES

Miss Luella Pearson, one of the popular clerks at R. W. Estabrooks store, was called to Hartland last week by the sudden death of her mother. She has the sincere sympathy of many friends in her deep sorrow.

The Misses Beale and Mary Millin arrived here from Auburn, Me., to spend the Xmas holidays with their father, D. Millin, and sisters. Miss Grace Millin who is attending the Fredericton Business College, is also expected home this week.

Andrew Phillips of the Colony was in town Wednesday and Thursday. Mr. Basford of Brewer, Me., the piano tuner was in town Friday and Saturday.

W. H. Budd, M. D., was in town on his return from Riley Brook.

A. D. Campbell of Arthurette was in town during the week.

Miss Esme Stewart was visiting her relatives in Fort Fairfield recently.

Mrs. A. G. Garter entertained very pleasantly at bridge on Saturday evening, in honor of her guests, Mr. and Mrs. Eldon R. Henshaw, of Montreal. Mr. and Mrs. Henshaw, who are both skilled musicians, delighted the guests with some fine violin and piano music, also vocal selections, during the evening. Dainty refreshments were served at midnight by the hostess.

The Mission Band and Sunday School are preparing for a concert which will be held in the church on Wednesday evening.

The schools are getting ready for a concert and Xmas tree in the school house on Thursday night.

Mr. Allan Slason, one of the oldest and most highly respected residents of this place, passed peacefully away at an early hour Monday morning, following a few days illness. His age was 78 years. Mr. Slason was a son of the late Elijah Slason, one of the first settlers of Andover. In early life he married a Miss Reed of Tobique who survives him. Three children were born of this union: Mrs. Eva Caughey and Percy Slason of this town and Sadie, (Mrs. C. W. Lewis) who died several years ago. Two brothers and two sisters also survive. Aaron and Wellington of Andover and Mrs. Calvin Campbell of this town, and Mrs. T. Wright of Tobique, also 17 grandchildren and three great grandchildren. Mr. Slason was an ordained preacher of the Primitive Baptist church, having professed religion early in life, and spent much of his time preaching the gospel. His was a familiar figure in church. The funeral which was very largely attended took place on Tuesday afternoon from his late home and the U. B. church. Rev. C. O. Howlett preached, assisted by Rev. H. S. Mullin and Rev. Chas. Flemington. Appropriate hymns were sung by the church choir. Six grandsons acted as pall bearers—Harry, Cecil and Paul Lewis and Clarence, Basil and Harry Slason. Interment took place in the family lot in the Andover Baptist cemetery. "Grandpa Slason" as he was familiarly known, was a great favorite with the children, as he always passed them with a kind word. He will not be missed only in the home, but also in the church circle and community. Sincere sympathy is extended to the mourners.

Mr. Robert Ervin of Andover has the sympathy of many friends in the death of Mrs. Ervin.

GRAND FALLS

Mrs. Neil Gillespie of Limestone was in town last week visiting her father, P. McCluskey.

John Harley who has been away nearly 20 years came home to visit his mother and sister. He arrived here Monday coming from Montana.
