

Spaniard's Bay has adopted a like course.

Nothing, say a Harbor Grace correspondent, of special interest has transpired here during the past week, the "multum in parvo," showing a decided tendency towards the 'parvo'. With you, we mourn the dogged obstinacy of the clerk of the weather, which keeps our gallant fleet of nine ships, stuck on the bar, doing battle with Murray's hard tack, relieved occasionally by a slight suspicion of Dominion horseflesh.

Two prisoners named Martin and Snow, undergoing sentence of two months hard labor were a short time since, while at work, suddenly affected with that desire to roam with which it is said the spring will sometimes affect young men's fancy. All of a sudden they took 'French' of the invincibles in charge from whom, no doubt, it required a great effort to tear themselves away. About four o'clock they returned to tea.

Time prevents us from publishing at full length the article on "What we met and saw on the look," but we publish the following extract from it and will be glad to hear from the same quarter again:—"I looked seaward and an immense barrier of ice met my view, but lo, a good piece up the south shore, the hard breeze that blew from the S. W. last night got the better of the ice and drove some of it out the Bay. But it is closely packed inside and no prospect yet of the Harbor Grace fleet getting out, to capture their share of the finny tribe. Now the wind is to the north and freezing. We did not see any sign of the steamer Iceland or Greenland from the look out, I suppose that they are in under the North Shore.

The accidents of life are unavoidable but should a writer accidentally get hold of a dab pen, the remedy is easy; procure one of Esterbrook's Steel Pens; The Stationers have them. Canada agency. Robert Miller, Son & Co., Montreal.
