FOR CHRISTIAN BROTHERS. Yesterday's collection for the nade up as follows:---Cathedral .. .. .. St. Patrick's .. .. ..... 1,704.00 St. Joseph's .. .. .. 124.64 Kilbride .. ., .. ..... 52.65

After Last Mass the collectors asembled at the Monastery (Mt. St. Francis). Hon. J. D. Ryan, who anded the entire amount to Rev. Bro. tvan. Superior of the Brothers, made happy speech, eulogizing the Brothrs' good work, which, he hoped, yould soon be extended to St. Josncerned on the result achieved. Rev. Bro. Ryan replied eloquently, thanking the people for their generosity on behalf of his associates and regretting his inability to express his deep sense of gratitude. He had received messages from Rev. Brs. Kennedy and Ryan, now abroad, who were present n spirit and conveyed their thanks to he community for their testimony of good-will. After reviewing the Orincluding those who were at the scene of War, and Sir Edward Morris; also he paid a tribute to the late John P. Grace, Esq., who with J. L. Slattery, Esq., and others, had always worked so tirelessly and pobly for the Brothers. In closing he trusted that the terrible war would be over by the time the collection came round again Messrs. M. Bambrick, J. Doyle and J. Clooney tendered the amounts from St. Patrick's, Kilbride and St. Joseph's Churches, respectively, as did also Rev. Bro. Ennis, of Mt. Cashel, who also spoke in appropriate terms of the donors and wished the country success and prosperity.

Hon. P. T. McGrath, on behalf of the Press, made a brief but fluent speech, pointing out, as had been demonstrated, that the response would be more liberal each succeeding year. He paid a tribute to the late Bro. O'Hurley and to the expupils at the front.

Mr. J. L. Slattery spoke eloquently of the efforts of Hon. J. D. Ryan towards the advancement of education and said it was the intention of expupils to erect a monument to the late Bro. O'Hurley.

Messrs. W. J. Higgins and J. Harris spoke in commendatory terms of the services of the deceased "Soggarth Aroon" and indicated what was being done towards perpetuating his memory. Their thanks were expressed to Hon. J. D. Ryan for the use of the B. I. S. rooms for the purpose of holding meetings.
