Don't Miss This.

SOMETHING ENTIRELY NEW.

Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday it's the "Lady Gardeners." Get it right down in your engagement book.
Now, that the "Lady Gardeners" are going to have your Wednesday, every hour of it, away from the worries of ordinary life, to charm you with the most wonderful little fantasy that every set your pleasure-nerve a-shaking.

Believe me when I say that this is a "Star" production. Prof. Hutton has exploited on our local stage the genius of St. Bride's that has marked past presentations with great names, in a wonderful way. It is he at his best.

You remember those old stories you have read? Those entrancing books, even though the plots are time-worn from long repetition, you recall them now with gladness. The girl forbidden to marry her poor lover. Wealth shall mate Wealth. The missing deeds.
Who is the Heir? and the happy ending that you cannot miss, even though you know how it would be. That is the tragic theme of the "Lady Gardeners"; but mellowed and toned down to a most pleasing presentation for young and old. The punch of a great drama picturesquely elaborated by the dancing of the pupils, the singing, and the unseen atmosphere of another world.

And that's but one part of Wednesday night's optical display—just the second issue. Before you see the stage set for the "Lady Gardeners," you will hear the most lively melodies that ever greeted the ear. The foremost artists on our concert stage have prepared a preliminary showing that you will not easily forget.

Now, can you say?—"It is not for me."

LIFT OFF CORNS!

Doesn't hurt a bit and costs only a few cents

Magic! Just drop a little Freezone on that touchy corn. Instantly it stops aching, then you lift the corn off with the fingers. Truly! No humbug!
Every Freezone! Your druggist sells a tiny bottle for a few cents, sufficient to rid your feet of every hard corn, soft corn, or corn between the toes,
