

Twenty Years
Ago To-Day.

Evening Telegram, Feb. 17th, 1920)

Mr. Fred A. Brazil arrived in town on the Octagon to superintend the building of a vault for Professor Dantelle, and make other funeral arrangements. Professor Dantelle was reported as very ill and was being attended by Dr. McKenzie.

Mr. P. Doherty, S.J., opened the second service of a mission to the R. C. Catholics.

Boatman Annie E. Larder, Captain, with a cargo of salt from Oporto, ran ashore near Gunner's Cove outside "Parakee." The tug D. P. Graham later towed the vessel to shore.

The members of an expedition of scientific explorers were attacked by cannibals in New Guinea and 25 of them murdered.

A message from Mr. Davidson of Baidon & Co. stated that the S.S. Dalmeny, with a general cargo and passengers for this port had run ashore at the wharf coming down the Mersey River from Liverpool.

Next Week
Children's Week.

AT THE PRINCE'S RINK.

In view of the many times that it has unfortunately been necessary, on account of soft weather, to close the rink in the afternoon this season in order to have ice for some important fixture, the management have decided that next week will be "Children's Week" at the rink, and the boat will be on the other foot—in other words, the rink will open every afternoon (if there is any ice at all) for league and other evening fixtures have to be postponed. It is hoped to give the kiddies a fair share of the rink and other sportsmen who are going to kick at a dead one are reminded of the fact that it has been necessary to close the rink four afternoons out of five when they were kids, the chances they would not be playing hockey skating to-day.

In connection with the holding of "Children's Week" next week, Mr. Davidson has undertaken to stand the Bennett's Band for the children on the afternoon; Mr. Bennett and his associates who have already given services free to the children on the last two Saturday afternoons, have volunteered to play free one afternoon next week and the rink will be open for the hand for the other four afternoons. The afternoon sessions begin at 3 o'clock sharp on Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday, and at 2:30 on Wednesday and Saturday.

"Children's Week" will close with a Children's Carnival on Saturday, February 25th, at which ten costume prizes will be offered for the best costumes.

Invitation to Local Athletes.
