WHAT THE CHURCH HAS DONE FOR DOMINION.

.TORONTO, July 28 .- (By Canadian Press.)-In connection with the forth coming Canadian Methodist General Conference to be held in Toronto in September next, it is interesting to recall the contribution of Methodism to the religious, social and intellectual life of Canada. The romance of the founders of Methodism in Canada, of the hundreds of circuit riders, and of her famous orators, preachers and statesmen is one of the most glorious in the not inconspicuous annals of a country whose origin and development have been a veriable epic of romance The fact has been repeated with mononotous regularity that the Wesleyan Revival saved England. The vitality ies of the religious life of the world a spiritual life that has quickened it soldiers of the Imperial army, by Loyand courageous men and women seekexplored wilds of America. In fact
