was given by the Principal, Mr. F. G.
Butler, B.C.S., M.C.S., showing that valuable service had been rendered for the students entrusted to its care, in not only qualifying them but in securing positions for them when they are qualified.

ance and results for the year have larly did well and expressed ap-afforded them at this institution to prepare for promotion in business.

AIDS TO PROGRESS.

Professional C. P. A. and Stenographic examinations in this city, the same as in Halifax and other large cities would be a great aid to progress and should be afforded. Could not the Memorial College be a centre for such examinations that would afford some inducement to students to remain longer at college, where they could afford to do so, in their own country, to study night or day in order to graduate? The B.A. of London University can be secured in Halifax under such arrangements by day and evening students in three years after matriculation, and this degree, or the B. Com. of London University, should be placed within the reach of any student capable of preparing for it in this city, and certificated instructors who are university graduates could be found here for this advanced work that would be very valuable for the country and is deserving of consideration in the New Year.

Gentleman or Prig

Do you often wonder how much different our friends would be if they were differently situated? Suppose your newsboy became the son of a millionaire would you treat him just the same? Or your grocer became your banker or your office boy your Managing Director. Is courtesy controlled by the station occupied by the person we are dealing with or is it something that we bestow on everyone high or low, rich or poor? The answer to this question is the index as to whether we stand on a level with the gentlemen of this world, or whether we are just a common or ordinary prig.

New Fashion by the Prince

Will the Prince of Wales again set a new fashion? At the dinner given in his honour by the Argentine Club recently he wore a black waistcoat with his tailed coat, the waistcoat made of the same material.

No doubt this was due to the fact that the Prince is in mourning, but it is significant that recently, at the Berkeley, Claridge's, and elsewhere a number of men are wearing a very narrow, double-breasted evening waistcoat made of the same material as the tailed coat. And very distinguished it looked, particularly when the shirt carried the new front made from white batiste having horizontal markings—broad satin-like stripes anything from a quarter of an inch to an inch in width—the double cuff being in plain white linen.
