DEATH OF THE BISHOP OF MONTREAL. -The Right Reverend Francis Fulford, D.D., Anglican Bisnop of Montreal and Metropolitan of Canada, died on Wedesday evening, shortly after six o'clock in Montreal, aged 65 years. He was made Bishop in 1850, when he came out to Montreal. In 1859 he was appointed by Royal Letters Patent "Metropolitan Bishop of Canada." The Provincial Synod, which met on Wednesday morning, adjourned till the following day pending his severe!!lness. The late Bishop was noted for his learning, his high Christian character, and his administrative capacity; and his removal will be deep felt by the Anglican Church in this country.

Frederick Macnider, of the bank of Montreal, at Hamilton, was drowned at Quebec on Friday.

Presentation in Erin.

[From our Correspondent.]

[From our Correspondent.]
On Saturday the 29th ult. a presentation was made to the Erin Company of a flag for their Drill Shed, and a suit of regimentals to Mr. John Walker, bugler to the Company. There was a large gathering of people and friends to witness this interesting ceremony. Long before the hour the Drill Shed was besieged with anxious faces, and when the time drew near the Company was marched up Main street to the tune of the "Girl Heft behind me." The Company was under command of Captain Carbery. The men were marched into the Drill Shed. After a few preliminary military evolutions Wm Tyler, Esq., was unanimously called to the chair, and made a few loyal and patriotic remarks. Miss Kate McMillan then ascended the platform and read in a very clear manner the following address:

Officers and men of No. 7 Company of the 30th Wellington Battalion Volunteer Rifles:

You have voluntarily enlisted as a defenders of our hearths and of our homes; your sincerity has been tested by the arduous duties you have been called upon to perform, and also by the sacrifice and self denial-incidental to the strict rules of military discipline. The devotion you have manitested in this great cause, which has for its chief object the maintenance of peace, of law, and of order; the noble spirit of loyalty and patriotism displayed in coming forward as volunteer defenders of our beloved Queen and Country, alike command the admiration and gratitude of your fellow subjects. The Committee of the recent complimentary concert in common with the inhabitants of this place, desire to mark the sense of appreciation by the presentation of some small token as an acknowledgment of your services. I have much pleasure therefore in presenting to you on their behalf a Flag for your Drill Shed and a Suit of Regulation Clothing for your Buyler, with the hope that you may have much satisfaction in the use of them. On behalf of the Complimentary Volunteer Concert Committee.

Quarter Sessions.

TUESDAY, Sept. 9.

Denis Marrow and Martin Marrow, the two little boys who were put on trial for breaking into the store of Mr. Jno. Neeve, were found not guilty.

Robert Palmer, alias Wm Henry Smith, was arraigned for stealing a grey mare from Capt. Thompson, of Hollin, in the summer of 1866. He was arrested in June, one of the Hollin volunteers having seen and recognized him in Guelph. The beast had been previously recovered from a farmer, on the Northern Railway, to whom she had been sold. Palmer pleaded guilty and was taken back to jail.

The Queen vs. McALLISTER.—The prisoner was put on trial charged with stealing from the stable of Hewitt's hotel, Mount Forest, on the 17th of June last, a mare, the property of Andrew Robinson. Mr. Robinson had put the beast in the stable himself, and the ostler being very busy had paid but little attention to him. When therefore McAllister came and paid the stable fees and took the mare away the ostler had no suspicion that anything was wrong. Probably neither had the prisoner, for he and Mr. Robinson and some others had been drinking a little until McAllister's faculties at least became slightly obfuscated. There was some bantering between him and Robinson about selling the mare, and the for mer appears to have gone to the stable and taken her away under the impression that he had bought her for some trifling sum. Verdict, not guilty.

September 10th.

The Court opened at half past 9 o'clock. The Queen vs. Alex. Martin.—The pisoner was put upon trial charged with having stolen various articles 'n the way of clot' ing and dry goods from the store of Messrs, Hood, White & Co., Ern Village, in '1'y last. He entered the dock with a jaunty sir, and h's face wore a look of sto'd indifference, which appears to be natural to it, except when the bandying of jests between his counsel and the winess provoked h'm to an indifference a laugh very distinctly audible, and somewhat unbecoming. Mr. Peterson, Co. tty Attorney, opened the case. He said that for some time previous to the date when the robberies came to light the prisoner had been unemployed; he was not in the service of Messrs. Hood, White & Co.; he boarded with a Mr. Purdy, and at night he would enter the shop of the gentlemen above mentioned, take out goods and secret them in his boarding house. Some of these had been found in his own bed room and some in Mr. Purdy's, wh'le the prisoner had shown some of them that he was wearing to a person who wou'd be brought forward he a witness, 'd told him he had taken them from the store. He had made various admissions and also some threats, for he had averral his dete. Alandon as soon a heregained liberty to transact business on a larger sciler had to take much more than he had.

Geo. A. Reid, was the first witness examined. He said: I live 'n Erin, know the prisoner, he once had a photograph gallery there, and a crewards for a while he was doing nothing; I had some conversation with h'm in July last, on that cocasion I met him at Hood, Wh'te& Co's frame store, they have two stores, one dry goods, the other groceries. I was going to my boarding house when I met him, asked him if he was going up the side they were going to make a rid on that fabric (meaning, as I afterwards discovered, the brick store); I said, I knew about that before you did, (meaning another place) prisoner asked me if Bill (ueaning R 'isbottom) had been tell
