DR. RAINSFORD

Favors an Open Saloon Because, He Says, It Won't Stay Shut—The Real Danger.

New York, Jan. 29.—"I am with Mr. Jerome on this question. I would like to see it submitted to a referendum, and I want to say now that if there was 50,000 majority in favor of dry Sundays I am certain as I stand here that the saloons would not be closed and should not be."
This was the statement of the Rev. Dr. Rainsford in St. George's Church on Sunday, made in his most emphatic manner. Continuing, he said:
"There is but one man in ten who bets, but every paper prints the odds on the horses. You cannot put down gambling. If you permit a man to bet $10,000 on a horse at Morris Park, you can't stop the newsboy from betting ten cents at a time. We should try to save men and not semi-hysterical women. I will not be led by the nose by those who go out to deplete manhood by such methods. The reason for law is not one to be entrusted with any part in conducting the government."
"If anybody thinks we are in danger of having continental Sundays he does not know the sentiments of the working people. There is not the least danger of that."
"The chief danger of the rest day is not from the poor or even the drunken man, or the poor man who crawls out of his tenement to seek some recreation or social relaxation in a nearby saloon. It is from a deliberate desecration of the day by people who have got plenty of leisure. These society people are on the church membership rolls and have pews in the churches, but are seldom seen in them. The reason is that they are engaged in the soul-destroying chase after social distinction."
"I have said that the saloon should be open on certain hours on Sundays for the workmen. I have never said anything that could be construed as an approval of the saloon. Would to God that the saloon could be extinguished. But you can't make the people give up the saloon without you give them something better. You can't make a man give up a bad saloon without giving him a better one."

SCHLEY'S APPEAL

Washington, Jan. 29.—The navy department has made public Admiral Schley's appeal, delivered to the president about a week ago. The department's "comment" will be published in a day or two. Admiral Schley appeals to the president, as the chief executive commander-in-chief of the army and navy, vested with power to regulate and direct the acts of the several executive officers thereof," and he asks that the president review the findings of the court. He asks this on three grounds. In each case, while his appeal on the findings of Admiral Dewey, as opposed to the majority report.

CARADOC.

Caradoc, Jan. 27.—The oyster supper and concert, under the auspices of the Ladies Aid, which was held in St. Peter's school house, Caradoc, on Thursday evening, the 23rd inst., proved a decided success from every point of view. After all had partaken to their entire satisfaction of the oysters and other delicacies prepared by the good ladies of the community, a choice program was gone through with. In the absence of the pastor, Rev. Mr. Snell, the chair was ably filled by Mr. Samuel Oaks, who, after a few well-gramed words, opened the entertainment by calling upon the Cavan Orchestra for a selection, which was well received. In connection with the musical program, special mention might be made of the excellent service rendered by the Christina choir, consisting of Miss Healy and Miss Sussie Steer, who, as on former occasions, captivated the audience, and proved themselves singers of genuine merit. Mr. Walter Steer, local pianist, also in his old-time form, and won the appreciation of all present with a number of beautiful selections, as did also Miss Alice Todd, in a couple of beautiful selections. In the rendering of which she proved herself a singer of high ability. Last but not least in the musical line came Master Jimmie and Miss Sussie Steer, aged 6 and 11 years, respectively, who might be appropriately termed child prodigies in the musical line. Their performance was very difficult to find among children of a corresponding age. Short speeches were delivered by Messrs. Hardy, Lockwood and Graves, after which the singing was brought to a close by all rising and singing "God Save the King." The accompanists of the evening were Mrs. Steer and Miss Jessie Howa.

Local Legal.

A case of special interest to the legal profession was decided on Monday at Osgoode Hall. Some months ago one Angus McCauley, of Lucan, brought an action against Peter E. Butler, of the same place, a colored man, for criminal conversation. A few days before the date fixed for the trial of the action a settlement was effected without the knowledge of the plaintiff's solicitor by the parties, with the assistance of John Fox and Thomas Hodgins, of Lucan. Intelligence of the settlement coming to the ears of the plaintiff's solicitor before the money was agreed to be paid in settlement of the action, he would look to the defendant for the payment of them. Notwithstanding this notice, the defendant, as he alleged, paid the amount of the agreed settlement to plaintiff. The plaintiff's solicitor thereupon moved before Judge Edward Gullitt, local high court judge, for an order that the defendant Butler pay his costs. This motion was dismissed, with costs to be paid by the solicitor. The solicitor, thereupon appealed, and the appeal came on for hearing before Mr. Justice Ferguson at the recent sittings, and judgment was reserved. Judgment was yesterday given holding that the notice to the solicitor was sufficient, and that notice to the solicitor was notice to the client, and allowing the solicitor's appeal, with costs of motion and between solicitor and client and of appeal, and directing the defendant Butler to pay the costs of the solicitor of the action as between solicitor and client forthwith after taxation thereof. George C. Gibbons, K.C., and P. H. Bartlett for the solicitor, R. M. C.

A Well-Known Dairyman Run Into By a Train.

I was run into by a train and had both my legs broken, and I was laid up in hospital for five months. The fractures healed, but my limbs were so sore and stiff that I could scarcely use them to stand or walk. I left the hospital, went home and tried a number of liniments; none did me any good. I was then recommended to try Kelpion. I was enabled in a few days to return to my business and suffered comparatively no pain. I still use it when necessary, and would not be without it in any house. I am constantly recommending it to persons on my route for every ailment I hear of, and can truly say that so far I have never heard of Kelpion failing to accomplish a relief or cure in any one instance. (Signed) Philip Smith, 1522 Queen street west, Toronto. At all druggists.

THE ONTARIO LEGISLATURE.

Continuation of the Debate on the Budget.

The Government's Policy Attacked and Defended—Report of Niagara Park Commission.

Toronto, Jan. 29.—The debate on the budget was continued in the legislature yesterday, and in harmony with the general expedition of work during the session, good progress was made. Speeches were made by six members, and, notwithstanding the threadbare condition of many of the subjects discussed, the addresses gave evidence of considerable original research. Dr. Barr concluded his speech begun on Thursday, after which the debate was continued in succession by Mr. Hislop, Mr. Beatty (Leeds), Mr. Pettipiece, Mr. Duff and Mr. Russell. Mr. Lucas moved the adjournment of the debate.

Hon. Mr. Harcourt has given notice of a bill to amend the university act by authorizing the building of a woman's residence on the university grounds, towards which the lady students and their friends have already raised a considerable sum. The amendment provides for a certain measure of aid by the university trustees, if such is needed, for the building. It is understood that a cottage, with accommodation for twenty lady students, will be built this summer.

THE DEBATE.

The budget debate was resumed by Dr. Barr (Dufferin), who said the Ontario Labor Bureau had cost last year $2,838.28, and had accomplished practically nothing, having made no attempt to solve any of the difficulties between capital and labor. He said the government had not passed one measure for the benefit of the working classes. They had spent last year $4,825 on immigration, chiefly to keep a number of Liverpool men in the country. He predicted a rout for the Conservative party in the approaching election.

Mr. Hislop (East Huron) defended the premier's course. In the past Conservative leaders never traveled at their own expense; township treasurers, he knew, were always liberally paid for their expenses when they went to England, as they frequently did. The premier had done a great public service while abroad. He went to England, and the London Times and other journals would bear fruit in increased emigration to this province and in aiding to consolidate the empire. He reproached the minister of agriculture for his Dakota ranch investment, and censured the government for its sponsorship of the Mabee pamphlet. He predicted a routing victory for the Conservative party in the approaching election.

Mr. Beatty (Leeds) attacked the government for the timber resources of the province. Resuming after recess, Mr. Pettipiece (East Lambton) defended the premier's course. He said the Conservative leaders never traveled at their own expense; township treasurers, he knew, were always liberally paid for their expenses when they went to England, as they frequently did. The premier had done a great public service while abroad. He went to England, and the London Times and other journals would bear fruit in increased emigration to this province and in aiding to consolidate the empire. He reproached the minister of agriculture for his Dakota ranch investment, and censured the government for its sponsorship of the Mabee pamphlet. He predicted a routing victory for the Conservative party in the approaching election.

THE NIAGARA PARK.

The report of the Queen Victoria Niagara Falls park commissioners was given to the house. The commissioners reported that they had received from the Ontario Power Company, and state the terms of their agreement with the company. The company is to spend $50,000 in the construction of a dam, and to build a power house. The company has already expended $1,750,000 for all purposes. The commissioners give details of the improvements and of the big season's business.

RICH DIGGINGS.

Seattle, Wash., Jan. 29.—John F. Money, a lawyer of Juneau, who has arrived here from Alaska, reports that Mush Creek, to the interior, from Porcupine is rich. He says the diggings yield from $25 to $30 a day to the man. The creek is twelve miles long and auriferous its entire length.

FIERCE FIGHT FOR FIVE CENTS. Newaygo, Mich., Jan. 29.—Orlando Schanck and Allen Warren, woodmen in the employ of F. W. Squire, at Dickerson quarried over a matter of five cents. Schanck struck Warren with a club. Warren returned the blow with an axe, inflicting a deadly blow on the face and head, severing an ear.

BIG EMIGRATION FROM THE STATES. Winnipeg, Jan. 29.—J. O. Smith, immigration lawyer of Juneau, who has arrived here from Alaska, reports that Mush Creek, to the interior, from Porcupine is rich. He says the diggings yield from $25 to $30 a day to the man. The creek is twelve miles long and auriferous its entire length.

WOMEN OF ALL CLASSES

Find Pe-ru-na Indispensable to Guard Against Colds, Coughs and Chronic Catarrh.

Miss Emily Milburne, president West Side Young Woman's Club, 152 West Congress Street, Chicago, Illinois, writes to The Peruna Medicine Company, Columbus, Ohio.

"For the past four years the members of our West Side Club have used little medicine except Peruna. It is our cure for the many different complications resulting from colds, whether it is a severe cough, catarrh, influenza or la grippe. We find it is very superior as a tonic and an appetizer, and a good cure for indigestion, and a true friend to women. Personally I endorse it, knowing it to be deserving the confidence of suffering humanity."—MISS EMILY MILBURN.

Mrs. G. W. Miller, 80 N. First Street, Minneapolis, Minn., writes:
"Peruna is a blessing to women. There is no greater strain on the nerves of a woman than the never-ending cares of a household. When things go wrong, dinner is burned and children cry, it is not so easy to look pleasant, but when sickness in the family adds to the burden it becomes very heavy. I have found Peruna my very best friend under these difficulties. When my children were sick it cured them and when I became over-taxed and weary Peruna restored me, and if anyone in my household caught cold a few doses of Peruna administered at once prevented unpleasant results. If every wife and mother would have a bottle of Peruna in her medicine chest, life's burdens would be much easier to carry."—Mrs. G. W. Miller.

The club woman and the housewife join in praising Peruna. The reason for this is because both these classes are alike subject to catarrh and catarrhal diseases.

Catarrh is everywhere. No class of people are exempt from its insidious ravages. It enters the palace and hovel with equal facility. It attacks men and women with like ferocity and frequency. Strong men and fair women are among its victims.

Thus it is we find Peruna, the catarrh remedy, everywhere. The upper classes use it; the lower classes cannot do without it; and the middle classes praise it.

At this time of the year, when winter is here with its chill blasts and biting frosts, everyone should be as alert as possible to escape what seems to be almost inevitable in this climate, catarrh.

The number of people who have catarrh of some form or other every winter, is millions.

Now is the time to get Peruna. Now is the time to get Peruna, and it should be taken as soon as the slightest symptom of catching cold manifests itself.

Many people do not seem to understand that a cold is acute catarrh; that catching cold is simply catching catarrh. An old cold is chronic catarrh. Catarrh is liable to settle anywhere in the system. While it is true that Peruna cures catarrh wherever located, yet it is advisable for everyone to use Peruna as a preventive, and not wait until catarrh has fastened itself in some part of the system.

Miss Sara McGahan, 197 Third Street, Albany, N. Y., writes:
"A few months ago I suffered with a severe attack of influenza which nothing seemed to relieve. My hearing became bad, my eyes became irritated, and feverish. Nothing seemed right, and nothing I ate tasted good."

"I do not know what it is made of, but I know it is a wonderful medicine to drive away sickness and restore you to health. Within two weeks I was perfectly well, and now when any of my friends are sick I advise them to take Peruna."—Sara McGahan.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case, and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

Address Dr. Hartman, President of The Hartman Sanitarium, Columbus, O.

THE FOULEST BLOT UPON HUMANITY.

Andrew Carnegie Expresses His Views Upon the Killing of Men Under the Name of War.

New York, Jan. 29.—"The killing of men under the name of war," wrote Andrew Carnegie in a letter which was read at the P. F. Collier dinner at the Metropolitan Club Monday night, "is the foulest blot upon humanity today. We see much discussion as to what is or what is not permissible under civilized warfare. My view is that this is a contradiction of terms. There can be no such thing as civilized warfare. We have made little progress in the path of genuine civilization as long as we can find no better substitute for the settling of international disputes than the brutal murder of one another. As a general proposition it may be stated that the nation which refuses peaceful arbitration is responsible for the war which ensues. Britain, having done this in its dispute with the Transvaal Republic, is responsible for the extermination of a brave and heroic Christian people. But let us also remember that we are today engaged in shooting down Christian Filipinos, whose only crime is that they believe in the declaration of independence. Sad that both branches of the so-called so highly civilized race should be guilty of the most uncivilized crimes. Let us pray that this disgrace is soon to pass away."
