BRISK TRADE ON LOCAL MARKET

Attendance Was Not Large, But Demand in All Lines Was Good.

Fair Supply of Fruits - Raspberries Made Their First Appearance on the Square.

The market, though moderately small his morning, showed a brisk trade and first quality going for the latter price. There were about 20 loads offered, which did not meet the demand, and there will likely be another good market for it tomorrow. Oats were very slack, though the prices showed a tendency to advance, one load sold as high as $1 67.

Slump in Meats.

There was a very decided slump in utchers' meats, however. Beef sold as low as $6 50, and from that to $7. Even at these prices there was really a very $5, and offerings are still light. Veal, too, was very slow; $7 was the highest price paid, while some went as low as $6. Spring lamb was
