"THANK YOU," SAID LADY TO FINDER OF PURSE

Brakeman William Sneath Made Rich Find On L. H. and B. Train.

Brakeman William Sneath, of Wingham, is an honest man. But nevertheless he cannot help thinking thoughts of the old saw which avers that honesty is the best policy. Sometimes, he says, honesty is only rewarded by a hurried "Thank you," and perhaps not much sincerity in the words at that.

Friday night he found a fat purse on the L. H. and B. train coming to London. It was lying snugly on the seat, and he at once picked it up and gave it to the mail clerk, who took charge of it and brought it to London.

On examination it was found to contain a bank book with a credit of $1,688.24; two notes, one for $128, and one for $240, payable in six months; a Blyth checkman's $50 in bills, $1 in silver, and two 25-cent "shin plasters."

Saturday morning a boy raced down to the depot at Wingham and asked for the purse. He was told it was too valuable to be given to a child and later the mother appeared. She was assured the purse was in London, by Brakeman Sneath, who had found it.

"Thank you," said the lady.

"Much obliged," replied Mr. Sneath, pointedly.

And thus the matter ended.

KNOLLWOOD PARK CHURCH

Reopening Services Were Held on Sunday.

The reopening services yesterday at Knollwood Park Presbyterian Church were very successful, a large congregation being present at all services.

The pastor, Rev. P. E. Nichol, preached an interesting and helpful sermon in the morning, and Mr. E. R. Wilson, secretary of the Y. M. C. A., assisted by a number of young men from the association, took charge in the evening.

Miss Cosens sang a solo very acceptably at the morning service. The interior of the church has been newly painted, the walls tinted, the platform enlarged and numerous other improvements made, which add greatly to the appearance of the building.

The work has all been done voluntarily by the church members, several of whom are skilled artisans, the only cost being for the material used.

A special offering was asked for yesterday, and resulted in over fifty dollars being raised.

A FIGHT FOR SCOTIA.

Montreal, March 28.—Rodolphe Forget, M. P., and his party, representing the Forget-Osler group of capitalists, who have, as they think, secured control of the Nova Scotia Coal and Steel Company's stock, will leave here today for New Glasgow, N. S., to attend the annual meeting on Tuesday next. If these gentlemen are successful in landing the Scotia, it is said that their next plan of campaign will be either to open up negotiations with Mr. Plummer, with a view to an amalgamation with the Dominion Iron and Steel Company, or to gain control of that big organization. As Senator L. J. Forget and his nephew, the federal member for Charlottetown, do not now represent the same financial boat, there may be an interesting situation, created, as the senator is vice-president of the Dominion Iron and Steel.

The twelve principal crops of the United States show a valuation of $5,000,000,000.

BISHOP FALLON'S FIRST SERMON

New Prelate Will Address His People on Sunday, May First.

EASTER IN THE CHURCHES

Special Services Were Very Largely Attended—Some Beautiful Thoughts Expressed in Many Pulpits.

Easter services in this city were never better attended than they were yesterday. The ideal weather brought people out in thousands and both the morning and evening services were listened to by congregations that filled the churches to the doors.

The early services in both St. Peter's and St. Paul's Cathedrals were also largely attended.

It was announced in the Roman Catholic churches that Bishop Fallon will be consecrated on April 25, and will preach his first sermon in London on Sunday morning, May 1, at St. Peter's Cathedral, and in the evening will preach at St. Mary's Church. For the past four years there has been no confirmation service at St. Mary's Church, of which the bishop is the pastor, but it was announced yesterday that Bishop Fallon will hold a confirmation soon after his consecration.

The musical services in the city churches yesterday were exceptionally fine and some splendid Easter selections were rendered. The churches were almost all profusely decorated with beautiful white lilies, and presented a very attractive appearance.

Bishop Williams, at St. Paul's Cathedral, "The resurrection was God's great confirmation of Jesus Christ and His power. It was God's answer to the doubts and sneers of men. Had Jesus Christ failed to make good His promise to rise again the whole history of the world would have been changed."

Rev. John Carmichael, at St. Andrew's, "The resurrection is the best proof we have of the truth of the Christian faith. It is the best proof we have of the truth of the Christian faith. It is the best proof we have of the truth of the Christian faith."

Rev. F. E. Mallot, at Colborne Street Methodist Church, "Eat, drink and be merry for tomorrow you die. It is the watchword of the world, but the Christian's motto should be 'Watch, work and pray, for tomorrow we live.'"

Rev. J. Gibson, at the First Presbyterian Church, "An M. P. said to me recently: 'It is all very well to point out the serious problems facing the state, the nation and the church, but what we want to know is how to solve them.' Here is the answer: 'By the power of the risen Christ.'"

Rev. A. J. Vining, at Talbot Street Baptist Church, on the "Resurrection." It was a conflict between light and darkness, between Heaven and hell, between God and Satan. Christ was fallen and the hands of the foe. They laid Him to the cross. This was not failure, it was success. After three days the glorious news came, "He is risen."

Very Rev. Dean Davis, at St. James' Episcopal Church, South London, "The results of Christ's resurrection cannot be estimated. His great promise of eternal life to all who believe in Him is proved and upheld beyond any doubt."

Rev. H. A. Graham, at the Wellington Street Methodist Church, "Die to come to life. This is written large in the natural world, and is equally true of human life. We only get life through death."

Rev. T. T. Shields, of Adelaide Street Baptist Church, spoke on the subject, "Easter's Message to Mourners."

"Faith in the resurrection of Jesus," said the speaker, "is the lamp which illumines the future with hope. We know from Scripture that he who died and rose again was recognized on the other side of the grave. Enoch and Elijah were translated. Moses died, and was buried, but, on Mount Tabor, Moses and Elijah talked with Jesus, and were recognized by the disciples. And so in the better world we hope to see and talk with Moses and Paul, and the apostles, and, above all, with Jesus, and our loved and lost will be with him."

Rev. Thomas Mitchell, at New St. James' Presbyterian Church, preached two very impressive sermons yesterday on the subject of the resurrection. The musical service was also of unusual interest. Special features being solos by Mr. Hodgins, Miss Irene Strathairn, Miss Elsie McCrimmon, a duet by Miss McKenzie and Mrs. Maudsley, a trio by Miss Agnes McKenzie, Miss Decker and Mr. Galbraith.

Rev. Richard Whiting at the First Methodist Church last evening spoke on the "Resurrection Now," mentioning the need for a higher outlook. "It is better to be above your work than below it, behind it, for there the smallest difficulty in the way will obscure the glorious vision God has given."

Rev. Dr. Manning, at Dundas Centre Church, "Some people say that the raising of Lazarus never occurred, and that it is a creation of the apostle's mind. I ask you to think whether that would be likely, for if it did not occur as a miracle, if it was only a literary creation of the apostle's mind, it would have been reached."

"Fluffy Ruffles" Thursday.

The merry musical comedy, "Fluffy Ruffles," is booked to appear here on Thursday. Miss Gear, the prima donna, is the star of the most popular women on the American stage, as she is certainly one of the most talented. This splendid company comes to the Grand on Thursday evening, March 31. The seat sale opens tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock.

"Servant in the House."

"What a wonderful lesson is being taught to the still more wonderful play at the Savoy, I fancy it must have been the first week of the "Servant in the House" in New York city. "Daring, indeed, is Mr. Kennedy, but how true to life it all is, God isn't watching—let us give as little as we can, as much as we can," just seems to fit the average man, whether he be a clergyman or businessman. And looking over the well-fed audiences that filled the Savoy, I fancy it must have gone straight as an arrow to at least one-half of the men there. It was, however, a bit rough on the bishop to be so exposed, and before one of the "people" to it is as perfect a performance as one can ever hope to see; a play that requires intelligent people to interpret.

"The Servant in the House" will begin an engagement at the Grand Opera House on Friday and Saturday, April 1 and 2, with a matinee Saturday. Sale opens Wednesday morning.

Forbes Robertson Accepts.

Ottawa, March 28.—Earl Grey received a reply from Forbes Robertson accepting his excellency's invitation to make a Canadian tour. He will open in Montreal on April 11, and will afterwards visit Ottawa, Hamilton, Toronto and London.

"Rambles Through Ireland."

"Rambles Through Ireland" is the title of the entertainment to be given at the Auditorium on Thursday evening, March 31. It consists of two hundred moving and still pictures of Ireland, which takes one back to the home of wit and pathos, and to the sweet memories of the country days, of her sons and daughters, and to the long gone and never to be forgotten heroes.

The brilliant humorist and wit, Mr. Thomas Lampany, will lecture on all scenes, making his lecture as humorous as possible. Mr. Dempsey will be accompanied on his tour by Miss Ethel Harris, the world's famous Irish harpist and vocalist. Seats can be reserved at Mallagh's bookshop.

AN AEROPLANE PLANT

One Company To Put $125,000 Into Plant at Coventry.

London, March 28.—The chief interest of the aero and motor boat exhibition which opens in London next Friday will be the evidence it supplies that British machine makers are waking up to the importance of the aeroplane industry. Having found out that there is money to be got out of it they are putting money into it without stint.

One company alone is stated to have sunk $125,000 in a plant at its Coventry works in order to cope with the orders expected for monoplanes and biplanes. A French aeronaut has been engaged to test the machines and to give demonstrations of their quality on a flying ground in the neighborhood which has been acquired by the firm.

At the exhibition some twenty-five of the forty aeroplanes on show will be of British manufacture if not of British design. A still more remarkable advance is to be found in another direction. At last year's show only one English-made aeroplane motor was on view, and even that was not purely native. This year fifteen British engines of different design will be seen.

A MISERABLE MISER

Had Plenty of Money, But Lived in Wretchedness and Squalor.

London, March 28.—A miser who had lived for years in squalor on 50 cents a week while he was in receipt of an income of $5,000 a year and had, it is believed, $250,000 worth of property, has just forsaken his solitary life and sought better shelter in a Salford hospital. His name is John Clarence Hudson. He was found by the hospital officials lying on a bedstead covered with a dirty rag, with a stick by his side to keep the rats from his food.
