ELECTION ODDS

New York, Sept. 5 .- A cable to the Tribune from London

Since the result of the Vermont election has been announced the odds on Woodrow Wilson at Lloyds have increased considerably. So great an amount of insurance has been placed on the probable election of Wilson that the rate has gone to 75 per cent. With the market so full, little further business can be done. The rate on Taft is now 40 per cent., and on Roosevelt 25 per cent.

BOARD TO DISCUSS CHANGE IN ROUTING

iness Will Be Brought Up at Meeting.

The London and Port Stanley board will meet on Friday to discuss the general condition of the road.

No meeting has been held since the Pere Marquette decided to route coal on other lines rather than over the London and Port Stanley

The change will make a serious difference in the earnings of the road. and the directors will take up the matter. The difficulty is in lack of siding accommodation in London. For tery, Dr. Geoffrion, mayor of Varennes, three years the Pere Marquette has asked the city council to give it more siding accommodation. The aldermen went to inspect a suitable location last year, but no effort was made to secure the land needed.

As a result, the Lake Erie Coal Company and the Pere Marquette routed the coal along other lines, and the city loses the revenue. The direc tors of the London and Port Stanley will review the question on Friday and, afternoon, and endeaver to relieve the situation

Ownership of Siding. In addition the ownership of the siding now utilized by the Trunk will be taken up. Ald. Bennett and others claim that the land adjoining the siding on Bathurst street was deeded to the Grand Trunk in exchange for some land at Port Stan-ley. The switch, however, is on the street, and should belong to the London and Port Stanley Railway.

The opinion of City Solicitor Mere dith and City Engineer Wright will be obtained on the question, and if the siding does belong to the city the Pere Marquette will be allowed utilize it. This will give the company a little more accommodation. There are routine matters to be disposed of in addition to these other matters. WESTERN WEATHER. Winnipeg, Sept. 5.-Showers threaten
