Candidate For Provincial Legislature in Last Election Makes an Interesting Discovery While Looking Over Hansard.

Miss Isabel Armstrong of this city who contested the London seat against Sir Adam Beck in the last provincial election made an interesting discovery a few days ago when she was looking through Hansard in Ottawa. Happening to be searching the parliamentary records of the late 80's, she came across a speech delivered by her father, the late James Armstrong, M.P.

Curious to find out what her father had been talking about, she read through the speech and found that it was a vigorous defence of the franchise for women, delivered in 1885. Miss Armstrong, who was quite young at the time of her father's death had been unaware that he held such views with regard to women and was delighted to find out that he was in favor of their having a voice in the affairs of the country.

In his late speech the late Mr. Armstrong refuted the statement that women were not intelligent. He had found that women he knew were more sensible about public affairs than most men and were quite as well educated.

This discovery is interesting in view of Miss Armstrong's own pronounced views on this subject and her recent entry into public life.

At Last—Something Effective For Wrinkles!

It has been conclusively demonstrated that a simple home-made tarrkroot paste, applied to the face, will very quickly eliminate wrinkles, worry, care and age marks. You need only mix a spoonful each of powdered tarrkroot and lemon juice, spread this over your face, then sit down before your mirror and watch the unwelcome lines disappear. In less than fifteen minutes your face will be as smooth and firm as a young girl's! Bagginess will also melt away—youthful contour will be restored. It's simply wonderful how this harmless mixture works.

The result, after the mixture is washed off the face, is infinitely better than from the most skillful face massage. And the cost is trifling—less than three cents per treatment. Any druggist can supply powdered tarrkroot in original package. So there's no excuse now for any woman looking so old, haggard or careworn—Advt.

Careless Shampooing Spoils the Hair.

If you want to keep your hair looking its best, be careful what you wash it with. Do not use prepared shampoos or anything else that contains too much free alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and ruins it.

The best thing for steady use is Mulstead's sufficient to cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather which rinses out easily, removing every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excess oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves the scalp soft, and the hair fine and silky, bright, lustrous, fluffy, wavy, and easy to manage.

You can get Mulstead's coconut oil shampoo at any drug store. It is inexpensive, and a few ounces will supply every member of the family for months. Be sure your druggist gives you Mulstead. Beware of imitations. Look for the name Watkins on the package.—Advt.
