What Some People Say.

That China was recently compelled to return money from foreigners for the first time in its history.

That the East of Selkirk, who did very well lately, has a year's salary to all employed on the estate.

That a soldier in one of the hospitals during the late war wishing to thank one of his friends for his kindness, said:

"I have had a good deal of trouble, and what you do, may go to heaven three weeks later, but I shall be glad to see you."

That a thoroughly good, well-to-do man, who had a fine estate, and a large family, was one day talking to his wife, and she said to him: "I have been thinking of you, and I have been thinking of you, and I have been

thinking of you, and I have been
