Cries of Murder and Fire From Gallery Result in Momentary Panic.

From Our Own Correspondent.

Vancouver, Oct. 15 .- There was almost a panie at the theatre last night on the eccasion of Hoyt's "Black Sheep" performance. During the cornet perform ance, the instrument being muffled and was heard to swear at another in the gallery. The sound was followed by hurrying feet, and confused noises from the gods. Then some fool cried "Murder!" Another fool cried "Fire!" and ladies became nervous and sprang to their feet while some men started to climb over the backs of the benches. The panic was averted by one of the performers shouting out the next number on the programme in a very loud voice and some one in the audience shouting. "Sit down; it's only a drunken man."

The disturbance was serious. Two boys names Olesten were arrested for smashing the American consul's tricycle. Another boy named Hill, said to be imthe crowded audience very still, a man

Mr. Jackson says McNally is a reput able man; that he has known him for many years. The latter went to the Cape York country from Dawson. has been a miner for twenty years.

SHOULD BE REPRESENTED Klondike's Claims for a Member in the House of Commons.

"What the Klondike most needs representative in parliament," says H. Wills, manager of the Dawson branch the Canadian Bank of Commerce. "The however, we probably cannot have unit 1901, when the national census is to I taken. That, I think, will reveal the the Yukon Klondike has sufficient popular. lation to entitle us to a member of pa liament. I don't know just what popular lation is required, but it is figured on a general basis of 65 for the province of Quebec. It is somewhere in the neighborhood of 25,000."

"Is there any probability of the obnovious Klondike royalty being abolished? Mr. Wills was asked. "Well, that is hard to say. Certainly and effort will be made in that direction. Pe sonally, I have no hesitancy in saying that the royalty should be materially reduced, if not abolished altogether. What ever is charged should be assessed on the net rather than the gross output of the mines. The gross output is manifestly unfair to the owner of a poor claim.

"Recently we had two members of parliament with us, and they were los lown with facts as to the needs of the Klondike and British Yukon, but cannot do much regarding the royalty which is a cabinet affair."
