

11

erts: "Pretoria, July 26.—May a rear-guard action with the early morning until dark, side of Nanumport, in hills, resulting in his effe-ing Nanumport Nek to the one "Hunter reports that the checked his advance by positions on two neks, one taken before dark by Boyal Irish, the Wiltshire Royal Irish, the Wiltshire ster regiments. Our ca "The second nek was ta night by the Scots and G opposition, the enemy ret Nauumport. "The prisoners taken s burghers would surrenden that they would be treat of war and not as a rebels. assented, and as a result or war and not as rebeis, assented, and as a result tions Prinsloo, commandi asked, under a flag of true a four days' armistice for tions "Hunter replied that th could accept were uncon der, and until these were hostilities could not ceas my approval and told H to enter negotiation "As I am writing a tele from Hunter saying that written a second letter willingness to hand ov his men, rifles, ammur fire arms, upon condition saddles, bridles and othe the burghers be guara they be free to return to "I have replied that the be absolutely unconditi rifles, ammunition, horse sessions must be given u burghers would be cons of war. I added that tures would not be allow interfere with Hunte which must be continued is defeated or has surre A later despatch from dated 29th, confirms the Prinsloo with five thousa THE NEW COM General O'Grady Haly tawa To-d Capetown, July 30 .-- ( with five thousand men, h ed unconditionally to the London, July 30.-The spatch has been received t

Ottawa, July 27.-Ma Haly will arrive at Ot and be received by a gus a salute of eleven gun such a distinction has