

BH "ENGLISH" PAINT

SAID THE MAN WHO BUILDS:—"Yes sir, I am going to use Brandram-Benderson, Limited, 'English' Paint. You don't suppose I would put so much good money in a new house and then paint with cheap paint. That would be absolutely wasteful, wouldn't it? I am building and painting for permanence—and 'English' Paint is the only paint I shall use. None but the best for mine. It wouldn't be fair to the house."

HAMILTON GIRL POISONED BY HER PATIENT

Hamilton, Ont., Aug. 12.—Events are marking time in the tragedy of Miss Rose Ziebo, who died Sunday evening, at the city hospital after eating some candy given her by Mrs. Edith Bruce, a patient, whom she had been calling upon.

The facts gathered by the police have been forwarded to the crown authorities at Toronto and no new developments are expected, pending the inquest. The Misses Gertrude and Ethel Dalby, sisters of Mrs. Bruce and Miss Vance, who were also with Mrs. Bruce at the time, and ate some of the candy, have fully recovered and returned to their homes late last night. According to the police story, the Dalby girls and Miss Vance each ate one of the chocolates and Miss Ziebo ate two, while Mrs. Bruce bit into one and finding it bitter to the taste, spat it out.

The stomach of the dead girl and half a pound of the chocolates have been sent to Toronto for analysis and the statement will be given out before the inquest as to what sort of poison the candies contained, though it is supposed to have been strychnine.

James Bruce, who is under arrest on an open charge in his early twenties. He was in debt and his marriage with Edith Dalby was arranged in a hurry under circumstances which he has shown on several occasions had irritated him. It had never occurred to him before Sunday to treat his wife to candy.

Miss Vance, Miss Ziebo and the Misses Dalby were chattering at the hospital with Mrs. Bruce, when the latter opened a box of chocolates which she informed her mother later in the evening, had been given to her by her husband during the afternoon, and offered them to her chums. Miss Ziebo immediately partook of the candies as did the other girls, and mentioned at that time that they had an odd taste.

About twenty minutes later, the 'died' girl with a cry of pitiful agony, flung her hands to her breast and moaned terribly, while the others looked on stunned for the moment. The house doctors were rushed for, as well as several nurses, but when they arrived, the unfortunate girl was stretched on a nearby bed, uttering shrieks of agony. The doctors worked over her to ascertain the cause of her illness, but as the time sped away she gradually ceased moaning and passed away without uttering many words. It was on the information supplied by Mrs. Bruce that the police arrested her husband.

When he visited the hospital yesterday afternoon, he was not very friendly to her, she said, and attracted considerable attention by speaking in abusive terms to her.

According to the parents of the young wife, Bruce has been in difficulties financially, for some time, and thus to some extent, caused the rift between them. Mrs. Dalby declared late in the evening after visiting her daughter that Bruce declared to her that he had practically been forced to marry the girl to save her from disgrace. "I put it in the papers about the marriage, and he did not like it," said Mrs. Dalby. "I thought it should be announced and did not care whether he liked it or not."

She asserted that on the very day on which the anniversary was celebrated, of Pius X's election to the pontificate, a vision came before her eyes, showing the chief episodes of what would be the future life of the Pope. She declared she could clearly see how the head of the church, notwithstanding his great age, will live for a long time in good health and that his attacks of gout would become less frequent, and less severe. She added that the second part of the pontificate would be marked by great political and religious triumphs, notably by the return to the old terms of friendship, of two Catholic countries, which in recent years had been estranged and had violently fought against the church and its head, and by the growth and spread of Catholicism throughout different countries, which speak the same language.
