TEN PERISH AT SHAWBRIDGE, QUE.

Montreal, Aug. 16.—The number of dead in the fire which destroyed the Jewish boys orphanage at Shawbridge, Quebec, late last night, is placed at ten.

The fire at one time threatened the whole village of Shawbridge, but the wind changed in time and blew the flames in the opposite direction.

Stories of remarkable discipline and courage by the boys in the orphanage and by the lady in the boys' farm and training school nearby are told.

When the fire was discovered the youngsters in the orphanage were paraded in the upstairs rooms, and in the face of the rapidly spreading flames were taken to the windows and through them to a balcony. It was impossible to get the inmates down the stairs because the flames soon cut off this section. The bigger boys made rope ladders of sheets and coolly lowered the younger ones to the ground with them.

COMING PLAY WELL SPOKEN OF

An Excellent Drama Is "The Unloved Wife" Which Will Play Here Aug. 29th.

Halifax Herald.—It may be rightly concluded from the size of the audience which enjoyed—thoroughly enjoyed—the first matinee and evening performances of "The Unloved Wife", that the people have been eagerly waiting for the production of an excellent drama in the legitimate form and method. "The Unloved Wife" is here for the full run of Carnival Week, and the management of the company, and of the Majestic have confined the matinee, which will be given daily, to attendance by women, while the evening performances are for mixed audiences (children not permitted), and gesture, and her lover, portrayed by Randall O'Neill at times bordered by the "screen" variety. An unusual feature of comedy was supplied by Walter Henry and Mrs. Elizabeth Lefroy.

It is a pure woman's comedy, and who married the latter "in re-venge." The Pennington role was a study achieved by Ted Brackley. He a drama, has for the moral imagination and the spirit? Simply this—that love between man and woman, a bad and a good, is a sacred sentiment and marriage a sacrament—and that those who pretend love and marry for any other reason sin against themselves, society and God.

The company is an excellent one in every way. They have their lines pat. They speak their parts with ease and act them with intelligence and they give a smooth, equally balanced performance of the play. Miss Florence Hackett, as the "butterfly" mother, with a mercenary heart, played her role incisively and at time role. But he spoke like a man under deep, but restrained passions; and the gradual changes in his heart—from hate to love—he acted with extraordinary realism and truth, with realism might have wanted and ruined the role. It is a pure woman's comedy, and who married the latter "in re-venge." The Pennington role was a study achieved by Ted Brackley. He
