

"I am an old man—and many of my troubles never happened."—ELBERT HUBBARD

THE white hair and wrinkled faces of our busy men and women tell of doubt, fear and anxiety—more than disease or age. Worry plays havoc with the nervous system—so that digestion is ruined and sleep banished. What oil is to the friction of the delicate parts of an engine—is to the delicate organs of the body. It's a tonic and body builder—because it stimulates the liver to vigorous action, assists the stomach to assimilate food—thus enriching the blood, and the nerves and heart in turn are fed on pure rich blood. Neuralgia "is the cry of starved nerves for food." For forty years "Golden Medical Discovery" in liquid form has given great satisfaction as a tonic and blood maker.

Now it can be obtained in tablet form—from dealers in medicine or send 50 one-cent stamps for trial box. Write R. V. Pierce, Buffalo.

DR. PIERCE'S PLEASANT PELLETS
Relieve constipation, regulate the liver, and bowels. Easy to take as candy.

The Fat Man's Plight

The fellows whose pictures I see in the ads—how often I wish I could be as nifty appearing and trim as the lads whose wardrobes I constantly see. I gaze on them all in the month's magazines—I notice their collars and ties, I follow the lines of their up-to-date jeans with eager and envious eyes. I take in the cut of their Willie-boy suits, I longingly gaze on their hats, I see myself sporting their shoes and their boots, their shirts and their hose and cravats. Some day I may purchase a package of socks as shown on the sockery page, and fit out my head from a choice of the blocks the hat ads affirm are the rage; I'll send for some collars to bind round my neck the same as the picture-boy sports; I'll buy me a tie just like this one, by heck! although I may land in the courts. I'll drape on my shoulders a shirt that looks so, and loudly I'll mock at the sun, because of the garments I'll have on below (as worn on page 381). Then smiling a calm and superior smile, in all of my glory arrayed, I'll sport round the burg while the things are in style—yet I am afraid, I'm afraid! I fear that those shoes hurt like old nick, that shirt would fit ill on my curves, and trying that suit on would make me feel sick, that neckwear would get on my nerves. Yet oft when I gaze on the magazine ads, my tears I can hardly repress; I wish I could look like these trim-looking lads, but alas I'm too bulgy I guess.

Philosophy of Life

The future and the past are stock subjects for those who love to worry and be miserable. Take no thought for the morrow; who can live the past over again.

Man is here today and away tomorrow and it is good he can take nothing with him; otherwise some "hog" would take all and leave nothing for the poor.

Be friendly, not intimate, with strangers. To force acquaintanceship is worse than cold reserve, neither begets respect, and respect is the rock all good mixers stand on.

Good manners consist in giving offence to no one—love all, do good to enemies.

If you care to know the best that our literature can give in simple noble prose—mark, learn and inwardly digest the Holy scriptures in the English tongue.—Frederic Harrison.

Common sense is doing the sensible thing and saying the right word when tempted to be silly or nonsensical. Wisdom is priceless, always beautiful.

Work is medicine and long life to the clean minded.

Don't Pay to Borrow

They used to say "Nobody loves a fat man." Gee whizz—a fat man, be he egotistical, bombastic or stubborn is a physical paradise compared to a man who is too stingy to buy his home town paper, says the Philadelphia Press. Just read this story from the Mahahoy City Daily Record, and see what happens to a stingy man:

A man who was too economical to take this paper sent his little boy to borrow the copy taken by his neighbor. In his haste the boy ran over a $4 stand of bees, and in 10 minutes looked like a warty summer squash. His cries reached his father, who ran to his assistance, and failing to notice a barbed wire fence ran into that, breaking it down, cutting a handful of flesh from his anatomy and ruining a $4 pair of pants.

The old cow took advantage of the gap in the fence and got into the cornfield and killed herself eating green corn. Hearing the racket, the wife ran out, upset a four gallon churn full of rich cream into a basket of kittens, drowning the whole flock. In the hurry she dropped a $7 set of false teeth. The baby, left alone, crawled through the spilled cream and into the parlor, ruining a brand new $20 carpet. During the excitement the oldest daughter ran away with the hired man, the dog broke up 11 setting hens, and the calves got out and ate the tails off four fine shirts.

Holloway's Corn Cure takes the corn out by the roots. Try it and prove it.

If you would be happy don't worry, be good, never take too much or too little of anything, and read regularly the Guide-Advocate.

Lambton Farms Wanted

A fourth list of farms for sale in Lambton County will be published by the Lambton Publicity Association early in August. Farms that appeared on the last list will re-appear in the forthcoming list if request be sent the secretary before Aug. 5th and present price of farm stated. These lists will have wide circulation at Canadian National Exposition, Toronto, and other places of concourse.

Those who have farms for sale will please send a full description, the price and post office address of owner to the undersigned, in order that parties inquiring may be brought into personal touch with those who have land to sell.

There will be no charge or commission of any kind, and the parties furnishing description are not bound in any way. Give details as to situation, acreage, roads, improvements, soil, distance from churches, schools, towns, railways, telephone service, etc., etc., that would be of interest to prospective purchasers at a distance. When sale of farm takes place please notify secretary so that it may be struck off the list. Parties offering large farms, suitable for fruit growing, would do well to offer them in lots of 15 to 50 acres.

The Publicity Association exists for the purpose of advertising Lambton County and for no other purpose. It consists largely of the members of the County Council and the expense of the advertising is paid by the county.

The information is wanted for the purpose of placing a list of farms in the hands of those who wish to buy and who have written to the Secretary in answer to general advertisements and descriptions of Lambton which have been published in various newspapers in Canada, the United States and Great Britain.

The description may be sent by mail to R. Stirrett, Petrolia, Secretary of the Association, not later than Tuesday, August 5th, 1913.

As an inducement to secure harvest hands the prairie farmers are considering the matter of installing moving picture shows on the farms. On account of the prolonged twilight, when it is possible to work until a late hour, the entertainment will not start before 11.30 p.m.

The people of Canada last year smoked 975,325,501 cigarettes, an increase of nearly 200,000 over the figures of the previous year, according to figures compiled by the department of inland revenue. In fact the consumption of tobacco and wet goods has increased all round.

It is announced that Sir Wilfrid Laurier intends touring Ontario and Quebec in the early fall, delivering a series of addresses at the principal points. The leader of the Opposition does not purpose coming West. While a great admirer of the natural beauties of this province, he finds the political atmosphere west of the Rockies very depressing.

A double wedding, where two brothers marry the only two sisters in a family at the same church, and same time, is a rare event. Tuesday morning of last week witnessed the double wedding of Eva and Laura, only two daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Gibb, of Anderson, to Alfred and Phillip Brown, two brothers, of Detroit. The double wedding took place at the R. C. Church at Amherstburg.
