

GENEALOGY OF THE OGILVIES OF MONTREAL.

Note of explanation:—For convenient reference, each generation is indicated by the same letter of the alphabet which follows the numeral showing the several members of a family—thus Archibald Ogilvie, the first of the Ogilvies to arrive in Canada, is indicated as 1a; his son James in the second generation as 1b; his grandson Archibald in the third generation as 1c, and so on.

PATRICK OGILVIE and ELSPET MILLER, of Gargunock, Stirlingshire<sup>1</sup>, who had several children baptized between 1711 and 1723, were parents of

JAMES OGILVIE (see page 2), tenant in Byreburn of Gargunock, some time before 1772. He married Katherine Murdoch, and had an only son:

1a. ARCHIBALD OGILVIE (see page 2), tenant in Arnieve, Stirlingshire, who came to Canada in 1800. B. Oct., 1750, m. 20 Nov., 1772, Agnes dau. of John Watson tenant in Chalmerston, Gargunock, and d. 10 Aug., 1820, having had 8 children as follows:—

1b. JAMES OGILVIE, b. in Scotland, 4 Oct., 1773, d. April, 1820. He was at one time the principal Veterinary Surgeon in Canada, and served in the Royal Montreal Cavalry during the War of 1812-13<sup>2</sup>. He lived on the Blackburn farm—now the site of the G. T. R. offices, Point St. Charles. M. Ann Tresson, from London, England (who was b. 29 Sept., 1767, and d. March, 1821). Issue, an only son:

1c. ARCHIBALD OGILVIE, nicknamed "Baldy," b. 4 July, 1807, and d. 15 March, 1893. His father and mother dying while he was a child he was taken in charge and brought up by his uncle, Archibald Ogilvie, at his farm at Riviere St.

(<sup>1</sup>) Gargunock Parish Registers.

(<sup>2</sup>) See copy of Petition, Appendix D.