

[This is how GRIP brings delinquent subscribers to the book. After you have finished reading the sentence, please refer to your address as printed on this number, and see whether the date shows you to be paid up to date. If not, confess.—Ed. C. S. W.]

Subscriber at the Bar:

Have you anything to say why the sentence of the Court should not be passed upon you?

(Two weeks' time is granted for an answer, and the only availing answer is one accompanied with the cash to settle all arrears of the past, and prepay subscription for 1882.) Otherwise the Judge shall proceed to say:

Subscriber at the Bar: You have had a fair and impartial trial, and you have been convicted of Remisness in paying your subscription to GRIP. The sentence of the Court upon you is that on Monday, the day of next, your Name be cut off from the list of Subscribers, and may the Mailing Clerk have mercy on his Scipors.

Sentence Approved:

Benjamin, Morn & Benjamin
Council for Grip.
