St. John may be treached from the West at three ways:

1. By Grand Trunk to Point Levi at chaudiere Junction, and thence by Intercolonial. The reduced fare via Grand Trunk from Toronto to Chaudiere Junction and return is 200.80; and the fare from that point to St. John an Ireturn will be $12.58.

2. By Grand Trunk to Danville Junction (or Portland), fare, including return, will be $20.2 and from Danville Junction to Cale for (St. John) the return ticket will be $3.70.

3. Those in West may go by New York Central and its connecting lines from Spension Bridge to Boston. The rate from Bridge to Boston is not yet given; but from Boston to St. John by steamer a return ticket will be given for $6. Should a hundred go by this route the rate will be $5. There is also a steamer twice or thrice a week from Portland to St. John; fare for Commissioners $5, including return. In addition to the lines mentiomed above, the Great Western, the Midland, the Canadian Pacific, the Credit Valley, and the Q. M. O. & O. Roads will give return tickets for fare and third. Arrangements will also be made, if practicable, with the steamers on Lake Ontario and the St. Lawrence.

Certificates for the Intercolonial and for the line from Danville Junction to St. John will be given at the Assembly.

Intercolonial tickets will be good till 7th July; on other roads till 8th July. Intercolonial tickets may be extended on application, or clergymen's certificates will be given on application to the Superintendent, D. Petinger, Esq., at Moncton.
