

any wise connected with the teaching staff or governing board of any university or incorporated medical school which is under the provisions of this Act entitled to elect a member of the Council, nor shall it be competent to them to so elect any person belonging to any such particular and distinct school of practice of medicine as is mentioned and intended by paragraph (d.) of this subsection ;

(c.) One member from each university or from any incorporated medical college or school in Canada having an arrangement with a university for the conferring of degrees on its graduates, engaged in the active teaching of medicine, who shall be elected by the university or by such college or school under such regulations as may appertain.

(d.) Three members, who shall be elected by such practitioners in Canada as, by the law of the Province wherein they practice, are recognized as forming a particular and distinct school of practice of medicine, and as such, are by the said law entitled to practice in the province.

(2.) No one shall be a member of the Council unless he—

(a) resides in the Province for which he is an appointed or elected member ;

(b.) is duly registered as a medical practitioner in the register established under the provisions of this Act ; but this qualification shall not be required of any of the members originally composing the Council.

(3.) No Province shall be represented upon the Council either by appointed or elected members until the Legislature of the Province has enacted in effect that registration by the Council shall be accepted as equivalent to registration for the like purpose under the laws of the Province, and when all the Provinces shall have legislated in effect as aforesaid, it shall be lawful to appoint and elect in the manner aforesaid the members of the Council : Provided, however, that if any of said legislatures afterwards repeals its legislation contemplated by this section, no more persons shall be given the right to practise medicine within the jurisdiction of such legislature, by reason of their qualification or registration under this Act.

7. The term of office for appointed members shall be four years.

(2.) Members elected by Provincial medical council shall remain in office until the expiration of the term of office of the members of the medical Council of the Province for which they are elected.

(3.) All other members shall be elected for four years.

(4.) Any member may at any time tender his resignation by written notice thereof to the president or to the secretary of the Council. Upon the acceptance of such resignation by the Council, the Council shall forthwith give notice in writing thereof, in case of an appointed member to the Secretary of State of Canada, and, in case of an elected member, to the secretary of the medical council for the Province, or to any University, incorporated Medical School or College, or to the President or the Secretary of any recognized distinct School of Practice of Medicine represented, which such member represents.

(5.) Any person who is or has been a member may, if properly qualified, be re-appointed or re-elected : but no person shall at one time serve as a member in more than one capacity.

(6.) In the case of members of the Council whose term of office is about to expire, successors may be appointed or elected at any time within three months before the expiration of such term ; provided that where any vacancy exists in the membership of the Council by reason of any term of office having expired, or otherwise, such vacancy may be filled at any time.
