
The BISHOP'S VISIT to EASTERN CANADA.

After taking part in the election of Archdeacon Lofthouse as Bishop of Keewatin on April 9th. the Bishop spent the Sunday following in Winnipeg, preaching at St. John's Cathedral in the morning; and at All Saints' Church in the evening.

On Monday, April 14th., the Bishop left Winnipeg for Montreal where he arrived on the evening of the 16th.

On the evening of the 19th., on the invitation of the Principal, his Lordship addressed the students of the Montreal Theological College. On Sunday, 20th., he preached and celebrated Holy Communion in the Church of St. James the Apostle, Montreal, and on Tuesday at 8 a.m., he gave an address and took the Celebration at Trinity Church for the Parochial Branch of the Women's Auxiliary. On St. Mark's Day, his Lordship took part in the Consecration of the Very Rev. Dean Carmichael, as Co-adjutor Bishop of Montreal, and after the service he was present at the luncheon given to the Bishop Co-adjutor by Mr. A. F. Gault, and the Wardens of St. George's; and replied to the toast of the Primate (Archbishop Machray).

After the luncheon he accompanied the Bishop of Quebec, whose guest he was while in Quebec, to that ancient city. On Sunday, April 27th., he preached in the Cathedral in the morning, and at St. Matthew's in the Evening; and on the following Monday evening he addressed a meeting of Church people, the Bishop of the Diocese presiding. At the suggestion of the Bishop of Quebec, he did not canvass for subscriptions in that city, but it is hoped that the results of his visit to Quebec will be seen in the increased help the Diocese will render to his work through the Board of Missions.

On Thursday, May 1st., the Festival of St. Philip and St. James, his Lordship held an ordination, by permission of the
