Camp, please note that the Rooms of the Association are in SHAPTESBURY HALL, Cor. Queen & James Sts.

Building open every week day from 8 a.m., to 10 p.m.

You are cordially invited to visit the Building, and become familiar with the work of the Association, and the advantages it offers to young men.

Thus far over 60 letters have been written each day in the tent.

Mr. Hines has charge of the tent, Rev.
John Salmon of the Services, and our young friend Master Hewit presides at the organ.

Should any Christian friend feel prompted to contribute toward the fund for this work, or towards the issue of a special edition of the Bulletin for circulation next week, we will gladly receive and wisely expend the same.

WE are pleased to have with us once again our fellow worker Mr. S. R. Briggs, who has just returned from a trip to England. He returns with improved health, and will at once resume charge of his Sunday Afternoon Bible Class, which has been conducted during his absence with much acceptance by Mr. F. Aston.

He that believeth not is CONDEMNED ALREADY,
because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God.

TEACHERS' BIBLE CLASS.

OUR President (Mr. Blake) has resumed this class, and we expect in a few weeks to witness a repetition of the scenes of past years, when our large parlor was crowded to its utmost capacity.
This class has in past years been much blessed to the teachers in the city, and we trust that still greater blessing may result in the future.

NOONDAY MEETING.

THE attendance for the past week has not been so encouraging as we would desire, but the testimony of those who have attended has been that it was "good to be there." In speaking to some friends about this meeting we have been met with the objection that they could not reach the rooms in time after taking lunch. This objection will not hold good after the 5th of next month, as our friends and members who really wish to spend a few minutes with us, can after that date take lunch in the coffee house under our Rooms, and then have time to drop in for 10 or 15 minutes.
If our Brethren will please try this plan we know that we shall not need to urge continuance of the arrangement. Read Malachi iii. 16.
